Translator's Foreword

The book that is in your hands is the English translation of Rules Relating to the Deceased, according to the fatāwā of the highest Shi'a Religious Authority of our age, His Eminence Āyatullāh al-'Uzmā al-Ḥajj as-Sayyid 'Alī al-Ḥusāinī as-Seestānī (May Allāh grant him a long life in the service of Islām).

Numerous other books detailing the Islāmīc rulings according to this scholar have been printed in 'Arabic and Fārsī, with a growing number being translated into various other languages. Currently, eight books have been translated and printed in English, including; (1) The Islāmīc Laws (A Translation of Tawḍhiul Masā'il), (2) Contemporary Legal Rulings in Shi'i Law, (3) Manāsek Ḥajj, (4) The Simplified Islāmīc Rules for Youth and Young Adults, (5) Jurisprudence Made Easy, (6) A Code of Practice for Muslims living in the West, (7) Rules Relating to the Deceased: Condensed Version, and the present book.¹

Because of the important responsibility that lies on the shoulders of all Muslims - both men and women - after the death of a fellow Muslim, it was decided to translate and publish this book which beings with the rules regarding the correct procedure of writing a Will, continuing on to the important rites of burial, and all other aspects related to the deceased.

In undertaking the translation of this book, we have tried our hardest to convey the meaning to the English reader in a simple and standard

English, however, we have decided to use ‘Arabic terminology throughout the text. To guide you, the reader, to the meanings of the ‘Arabic terms, we have also provided a Glossary at the end of the book.

We have relied on the electronic version of the Holy Qur’ān translation of Muḥammad Sarwar as found on his web site for the translation of the Sūrahs of the Qur’ān, however we have made some modifications where it was deemed necessary. We have also included text in ‘Arabic for both the Sūrahs of the Qur’ān and various Duās including the translation of two Duās from as-Ṣaḥīfah as-Sajjādiyah done by William Chittick and published by Muḥammad Trust.

It should be mentioned that the book that this translation is based on, was originally compiled according to the fatāwā of the Late Marja’ Taqlīd of the Shī’a world, Āyatullāh al-‘Uzmā al-Ḥajj as-Sayyid Muḥammad al-Riḍāa al-Gulpāygānī (May Allāh raise his status). Needless to say, countless hours were spent in researching and compiling these laws so as to correspond with the fatāwā of the highest Shī’a Religious Authority in our age, Āyatullāh al-‘Uzmā al-Ḥajj as-Sayyid ‘Alī al-Husāinī as-Seestānī (May Allāh grant him a long life). The different supplications including the various methods of Ṣalāt al-Mayyit were presented in written form to the office of His Eminence in Qum, Iran for approval, which, after going through, gave us the permission to print the same under the Ayatullah’s name.

Many chapters start with aḥādith concerning the philosophy of that particular section which in itself, form a separate part of the book. We have also included valuable information from the book, Manāzil-e-Ākhirāh by the late Muḥaddith al-Qummī, the compiler of Mafātīh al-Jinān, concerning the deceased. These sections have been noted accordingly.

We would like to extend our thanks and appreciation to some of the brothers in Qum, Iran who helped us out with the proofreading and editing certain parts of the text. Without their help, the completion of this book would not have been possible. May Allāh (SWT) reward them for their troubles.

It goes without saying that whatever knowledge and effort is put into such a work, it will always remain far from being perfect, as perfection is only for Allāh (SWT). We therefore request you the readers that if any inaccuracies are found in this book that you to write to us so that in future editions, those errors may be corrected. We also ask for your feedback regarding the translation of this work or if you would like to raise any points as to the contents of the book.

In closing, we pray to the Almighty to forgive any of our shortcomings and any mistakes that we may have missed in the course of this translation. We pray to Him to accept this work of ours and to give us the ability to continue translating Islāmic literature and serving the cause of Islām, Inshā-Allāh.

A glance into the life of the Grand Marja‘ Taqlid of the Shī‘a World

Āyatullāh al-‘Uẓmā al-Ḥajj as-Sayyid ‘Alī al-Ḥusainī as-Seestānī

المرجع الديني الأعلى سماحة آية الله العظمى الحاج السيد علي الحسيني السيستاني

قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ (ﷺ) :

«فَقِيهٌ أَشَدُّ عَلَىٰ إِبْلِيسَ مِنْ أَلْفِ عَابِدٍ»

The Prophet of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family) said:
“One Scholar is more powerful against the Devil than one thousand worshippers.”

For more than half a century, the school of the late Grand Āyatullāh al-‘Uẓmā al-Ḥajj as-Sayyid Abū al-Qāsim al-Muṣawwī al-Khū‘ī (May Allāh raise his rank) has been an inexhaustible spring that has enriched and enlivened Islāmīc thought and knowledge throughout the world. From his school graduated hundreds of jurists, scholars, and dignitaries who took it upon themselves to continue his ideological path, which was full of achievements and sacrifices in the service of faith, knowledge, and the society.

Among those, are the outstanding ‘Ulamā’ of the Ḥawza ‘Ilmiyyah, especially those in the holy cities of Najaf and Qum. Some of them have attained the level of Ijtihād – the competence to deduce independent legal judgments – enabling them to assume the office of supreme religious authority. Others have reached lofty levels qualifying them for shouldering the responsibilities of teaching and educating the future generation of scholars.

One of the most distinguished among these towering figures in today’s age is His Eminence Grand Āyatullāh al-‘Uzmā al-Ḥajj as-Sayyid ‘Alī al-Ḥusainī as-Seestānī. He ranks among the brightest, most qualified and knowledgeable of Imām al-Khū‘ī’s (May Allāh raise his status) students.

1. His Birth and Upbringing

His Eminence, Āyatullāh al-‘Uzmā al-Ḥajj as-Sayyid ‘Alī al-Ḥusainī as-Seestānī was born in 1349 A.H. (1928) in the month of Rabi’ al-Awwal¹ in the holy city of Mashad, Iran, where the sacred shrine of Imām ‘Alī ibn Mūsā al-Riḍā (Peace be upon him) is located. His father was one of the devout Scholars of his region, and in order to help his son continue his Islāmīc studies and to gain a deeper knowledge of the Islāmīc sciences, he introduced him to the ‘Ulama and scholars of the Ḥawza ‘Ilmiyyah.

Āyatullāh al-‘Uzmā as-Seestānī began his introductory ‘Arabic studies, including eloquence (Balāgha), in Khurasān under the renowned teacher of ‘Arabic, Muḥammad Taqī Ādīb Nishaburī. He also studied jurisprudence (Fiqh), principles of jurisprudence (Usūl), logic (Mantiq), and beliefs (Aqāid) under the great ‘Ulamā and teachers of Khurasān. It was in this city that he took part in Dars-e-Khārij (the highest level of studies in the Ḥawza). At this time, he also benefited from the presence of Allāmah Muḥaqqiq Mīrzā Mahdī Isfahānī (May Allāh sanctify his spirit).

1 webmaster’s note: 9th Rabi Al-Awwal 1349 A.H.

In order to advance further and complete his studies, he traveled to the city of Qum in 1368 A.H. (1948), so as to benefit from the ‘Ulamā of the grand Ḥawza in this city. The Ḥawza ‘Ilmiyyah of Qum was at that time under the supervision and guidance of the sole Marja’ of the Shi’a world, namely Āyatullāh al-‘Uzmā as-Sayyid al-Ḥajj Ḥusayn Burūjerdi (May Allāh raise his rank).

Āyatullāh Seestānī who was present in the lessons of Fiqh and Usūl, which at that time were being taught by Āyatullāh Burūjerdi, was quickly recognized as the brightest student in the fields of Fiqh, Usūl, and Rijāl. He also took part in the classes of Āyatullāh al-‘Uzmā Ḥujjat Kūhkumrāi and other teachers and scholars in order to quench his thirst for knowledge.

As-Sayyid as-Seestānī excelled his peers, especially in the force-fullness of his interjections, his quick wit, research in jurisprudence, biographies of the transmitters of aḥādith, and his keeping abreast with many theories in different fields of the theological sciences.

In the year 1371 A.H. (1951), Āyatullāh Seestānī once again moved, this time to Najaf al-Ashraf. At that time, the Ḥawza of Najaf was blooming and was full of splendor and glory. He took part in the classes that were being offered and learnt the various Islāmic sciences from the most well known ‘Ulamā of that time.

For more than 10 years he took part in the lessons of Āyatullāh al-‘Uzmā al-Ḥajj as-Sayyid Abū al-Qāsim al-Muṣawī al-Khū’ī (May Allāh be pleased with him). At this time, he also attended the lessons taught by Āyatullāh al-‘Uzmā as-Sayyid Moḥsin al-Ḥakīm (May Allāh sanctify his spirit). He also finished one complete course in Usūl al-Fiqh under the auspices of Āyatullāh al-‘Uzmā al-Shaykh Ḥusayn Ḥilli (May Allāh be pleased with him).

In the year 1380 A.H. (1960), in recognition of his achievements, he was awarded the distinction certifying that he had attained the level of Ijtihād — deduction of legal judgment in matters of religion, by Imām al-Khū’ī and again, by al-Shaykh al-Ḥilli.

In the same year, he was awarded certification by the distinguished traditionalist and scholar al-Shaykh Āghā Buzurg al-Ṭehrānī testifying to his skill in the science of ‘Ilm al-Rijāl, or research into the biographies of the narrators of aḥādīth. He achieved this grand status when he was a mere 31 years of age!

In the year 1381 A.H. (1961), after years of studies and participating in the lessons of Usūl, Fiqh, and Manṭiq in the Ḥawzas of Mashad, Qum, and Najaf he started to teach his own lessons in Dars-e-Khārij, revolving around the book, al-Makāsib by Shaykh Ansāri (May Allāh be pleased with him). After teaching Dars-e-Khārij based on the framework found in al-Makāsib for years, he advanced his lessons onto a higher level by teaching from the book Urwatul Wuthqā.

2. His Comparison Between the Various Schools of thought

In order to put forward a sound study for any subject, as-Sayyid as-Seestānī compares his findings with those of al-Mīrzā Mahdī al-Isfahānī, representing the Mashhad school of thought, as-Sayyid al-Burūjerdī of Qum, and of as-Sayyid al-Khū‘ī and al-Shaykh Ḥussain al-Hillū representing Najaf.

3. His Juristic Methodology

His juristic methodology has the following distinct characteristic: Comparative Jurisprudence between Shī‘a and Sunnī. Familiarizing oneself with the Sunnī juristic thought, contemporary to the time of the text such as Imām Mālik’s “al-Muwattā” or Abū Yūsuf’s “al-Khirāj”, make clear to us the opinions and goals of the A‘immah (Peace be upon them) at those times. Making use of modern-made laws in certain juristic respects, as is the case with his reference to Iraqi, Egyptian and French laws when he discusses the topic of “Contract of Sale and Right of Withdrawal”, widens one’s scope in analyzing juristic principles, its goals, and expands its practical use.

4. His Inventiveness of Approach

Unlike traditional clerics who follow literally what they have been taught, as-Sayyid as-Seestānī's approach to juristic principles is characterized by lending weight to some of these principles by re-interpreting them. To give an example, the principle of Izlām (compulsion) is expounded by some jurists as follows: “A practicing Muslim may make use of the laws of other Islāmic Schools of Thought insofar as his personal interest is best served even though his school of thought does not approve it.”

As-Sayyid as-Seestānī interprets such a practice on the basis of respect (ihtirām) i.e. showing respect for other peoples' laws and opinions. He has based his interpretation on the freedom of expression, like when we say, “Everyone has his/her own way of conducting marriage”; hence “the lawfulness of marriage of a polytheist.”

5. His Examining the Text in its Social Context

Investigating the text in its social climate and the circumstances surrounding it helps us to arrive at a better understanding of it and leads to deducing a sound legal judgement.

Such is the approach of as-Sayyid as-Seestānī for example when he tackled the ḥadīth of the Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him and his family) at Khaybar forbidding the eating of donkey meat. As-Sayyid as-Seestānī's interpretation was that such a prohibition is confined to that particular incident at that point in time. The evidence he puts forward is that the Prophet's forbidding was due to a military requirement, in that the donkey was a means of transportation and protecting it was needed to serve that purpose. Hence, no extrapolation should be made from it at a later time since circumstances have changed.

6. His Expertise in the Tools of Deduction

This great Marja' is of the opinion that a jurist cannot be called as such until he has acquired all the necessary qualifications to enable him to be one. Among such vehicles is the mastery of 'Arabic, full knowledge of the traditions of the Prophet and his Progeny (Peace be upon all of them) and detailed accounts of their narrators — for the science of 'Ilm al-Rijāl (biographies of transmitters of ḥadīth) is a prerequisite for the jurist to achieve authenticity.

In this respect he holds many opinions which may go against what is universally held. He also stresses the importance of familiarizing oneself with the different compilations of ḥadīth and their different copies to ensure knowledge about the author as regards to the accuracy, authenticity, and the manner of compiling.

7. His Character

Those who come into close contact with as-Sayyid as-Seestānī will discover that he is endowed with ideal spiritual traits. Of these are the following:

1. Fairness and respect for the other opinion. Based on his love for science and knowledge, interest in arriving at the truth, and upholding freedom of expression and the constructive word, he is constantly reading in order to acquaint himself with the different opinions — whether they are expressed by well-known scholars or less known ones. Thus, he may quote an opinion expressed by al-Shaykh Muḥammad Riḍā al-Muḍhaffar in his book Usūl al-Fiqh (Fundamentals of Jurisprudence); and by the same token he may take the liberty of alluding to another opinion which he admires, though it may belong to a peer, rival, friend, or a less famous scholar.
2. Etiquette of debate: His manner of conducting a debate or discussion is a far cry from the heated, aimless, time wasting arguments that others indulge in. He never resorts to silencing others, interrupting them or belittling their contribution to the subject that is to be discussed. No matter who the other side is – teacher, or student – and he always uses polite words to address them. Thus, he adopts an appropriate approach in handling any category without overstepping the line of courtesy and good manners in order to preserve the integrity and respect of those involved.

3. Manners of the Teacher: Teaching is not simply a paid profession – if it is not coupled with the concern for the advancement of the student and showing love and affection for him, then the teaching process will be devoid of its noble aims and objectives in producing a committed, well-mannered generation, fully aware of their responsibilities towards themselves and the society in general. As-Sayyid as-Seestānī is considered among the elite, just like as-Sayyid al-Ḥakīm and as-Sayyid al-Khū‘ī who viewed teaching as an heavenly obligation which must be fulfilled to the best ability of the teacher. Thus, he constantly reminds his students to spare no effort in asking about everything, however trivial it may seem to them, such as inquiring about the number of pages in a book, so that they may get used to close contact with the teacher. Moreover, he often encourages them to compare his study and research with the others in the same field, with a view to find out their strengths and weaknesses.
4. Godfearing and Piety: There is a striking phenomenon that the majority of scholars and great men seem to share, in that they do not allow controversy and disputes to get between them. Such a stand has proven to be wise since they have been necessitated by the concern for the public interest. Indeed, “... at times when innovations threaten to creep into the religion, it is incumbent on the scholar to put his knowledge to use in the defence of faith – otherwise Allāh will take away the light of belief of the scholar,” as the Prophet of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family) had put it.

When trials and tribulations are deployed to serve the personal ends of a scholar, or the community experiences propaganda warfare fanned by mutual enmity and envy, the ‘Ulamā’ of the Ḥawza ‘Ilmiyyah, one of them being as-Sayyid as-Seestānī, prefer silence and refrain from entering the conflict.

Such was the state of affairs in the aftermath of the death of as-Sayyid al-Ḥakīm and as-Sayyid al-Burūjerdi, and history repeated itself after the departure of the Guardian of the Ḥawza ‘Ilmiyyah, as-Sayyid al-Khū‘ī where competition and jockeying for titles and positions became widespread.

Furthermore, as-Sayyid as-Seestānī’s contentment and humility is reflected in his simple attire, the small house in which he lives (but does not own) and the simple furniture therein.

5. His ideological production: As-Sayyid as-Seestānī is not a jurist so to speak. Rather, he is a highly educated man who keeps in touch with modern visions with regard to the development of political and economic thought. He has very good ideas in the realm of administrative theory, as well as social thought that is compatible with modern progress. With all this in perspective, he views the dispensation of religious edicts as a right of the Islāmic society.
6. Office of the supreme religious authority: Some scholars of the Najaf center for theological studies (Ḥawza an-Najaf) were quoted as saying that after the death of as-Sayyid Nasrullāh al-Mustanbit, they advised the late as-Sayyid al-Khū‘ī to groom someone for the office of the supreme religious authority and the guardianship and overseeing of the Najaf Ḥawzah. The choice fell on as-Sayyid as-Seestānī for his excellence, knowledge, and impeccable character. Accordingly, he started leading the prayer in Imām al-Khū‘ī’s masjid, al-Khadra, during the lifetime of his late teacher, and writing and compiling his annotation based on as-Sayyid al-Khū‘ī’s “Islāmic Laws.”

After the passing away of Marja' Taqlid of the Shi'a World, and the Guardian of the Hawza 'Ilmiyyah, the Late Āyatullāh al-'Uzmā al-Ḥajj as-Sayyid Abū al-Qāsim al-Muṣawī al-Khū'i, Āyatullāh al-'Uzmā al-Ḥajj as-Sayyid 'Ali al-Husayni as-Seestānī was among the six people who were permitted to take part in his funeral and performed the services on the deceased.

8. Works of this Scholar

Āyatullāh Seestānī, for close to 40 years, has been continuing the important task of teaching Dars-e-Khārij in Fiqh and Usūl, and Rijāl, and the fruits of his struggle for knowledge and his accomplishments have been preserved in writing (now numbering over 40 books). Many of these books have been translated into the various world languages including; English, Urdu, Gujarati, Turkish, and others.

9. Books translated into English

1. Islāmic Laws (Translation of Tawḍhiul Masā'il).
2. Manāsek Ḥajj.

Remembering Death

Before a believer approaches the final moment of his/her life and death overtakes him, it is necessary that he wakes up from the state of negligence and prepares for the final everlasting place. This way he will be able to avoid bewilderment and the fear of the so-called untimely death.

At the time of leaving this world, as attested to by the Qur'an, a person will be in one of two states - either he will be of the Companions of the Right, or of the Companions of the Left.¹ If he is counted amongst the Companions of the Right, he will be in a good, final state, but if he is one of the Companions of the Left, he will be of those who has suffered a great loss.

At this point it is appropriate that we start this discussion by quoting Aḥādīth from the Ma'ṣūmīn (Peace be upon them all) on the preparation for death.

Who is the Cleverest Believer?

١. سُئِلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ (ﷺ): أَيُّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ أَكْبَى؟ قَالَ: أَكْثَرُهُمْ ذِكْرًا لِلْمَوْتِ، وَأَشَدَّهُمْ اسْتِعْدَادًا لَهُ.

1. The Messenger of Allāh (Peace be upon him and his family) was once asked, “Who is the cleverest of the believers?” He replied, “The person who remembers death more than others, and the one who has prepared himself for it (more than others).” (Bihār al-Anwār, Volume 6, Page 126)

٢. قِيلَ لِأَمِيرِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ (عليه السلام): مَا الاسْتِعْدَادُ لِلْمَوْتِ؟ فَقَالَ (عليه السلام): أَداءُ الْفَرَائِضِ وَاجْتِنَابُ الْمَحَارِمِ وَالِاسْتِمَالِ عَلَى الْمَكَارِمِ، ثُمَّ لَا يُبَالِي أَوْقَعَ عَلَى الْمَوْتِ أَوْ وَقَعَ الْمَوْتُ.

2. Someone once asked Amīr al-Mo’minīn (Peace be upon him), “What is the best way to prepare for death?” He (Peace be upon him) said, “One should fulfill the obligatory acts, abstain from the forbidden, and exhibit exalted morals. At that point, one should not be concerned whether he falls upon death or death falls upon him.” (Bihār al-Anwār, Vol. 6, Pg. 138)

٣. عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ لَيْدٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ (ﷺ) قَالَ: شَيْئَانِ يَكْرَهُهُمَا ابْنُ آدَمَ: يَكْرَهُ الْمَوْتَ وَالْمَوْتَ رَاحَةً لِلْمُؤْمِنِ مِنَ الْفِتْنَةِ، وَيَكْرَهُ قِلَّةَ الْمَالِ وَقِلَّةَ الْمَالِ أَقْلٌ لِلْحِسَابِ.

3. Maḥmūd ibn Labīd relates that the Messenger of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family) said, “There are two things that the son of Ādam dislikes: death, even though death is ease for the believer from trials and tribulations; and a reduction in wealth even though in the reduction of wealth, lies a lessening in one’s accountability.” (Bihār al-Anwār, Volume 6, Page 128)

٤. قَالَ النَّبِيُّ (ﷺ): أَدْكُرُوا هَادِمَ اللَّذَاتِ، فَقِيلَ: وَمَا هُوَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ فَقَالَ: الْمَوْتُ، فَمَا ذَكَرَهُ عَبْدٌ عَلَى الْحَقِيقَةِ فِي سَعَةِ إِلَّا ضَاقَتْ عَلَيْهِ الدُّنْيَا، وَلَا فِي شِدَّةِ إِلَّا اتَّسَعَتْ عَلَيْهِ، وَالْمَوْتُ أَوَّلُ مَنْزِلٍ مِنْ مَنَازِلِ الْآخِرَةِ، وَآخِرُ مَنْزِلٍ مِنْ مَنَازِلِ الدُّنْيَا، فَطُوبَى لِمَنْ أَكْرَمَ عِنْدَ الزُّرُوقِ بِأَوْلِيهَا، وَطُوبَى لِمَنْ أَحْسَنَ مُشَايَعَتَهُ فِي آخِرِهَا، وَالْمَوْتُ أَقْرَبُ الْأَشْيَاءِ مِنْ بَنِي آدَمَ وَهُوَ يَعُدُّهُ أَبْعَدَ، فَمَا أَجْرُ الْإِنْسَانِ عَلَى نَفْسِهِ وَمَا أضعَفُهُ مِنْ خَلْقِي! وَفِي الْمَوْتِ نَجَاةُ الْمُخْلِصِينَ وَهَلَاكُ الْمُجْرِمِينَ، وَلِذَلِكَ اشْتَقَّ مِنَ اشْتَقَّ إِلَى الْمَوْتِ وَكَرِهَ مِنْ كَرِهٍ.

4. The Messenger of Allāh (Peace be upon him and his family) said, “Remember the destroyer of pleasures.” Someone asked him, “And what is that, O’ Messenger of Allāh?” He said, “It is death. No servant remembers it according to its reality in times of ease without the world losing its pleasure for him, nor in times of difficulty without it giving him ease. Death is the first stage of the next life, and the last stage of the stages of this world. Fortunate is he who is respected and welcomed in the first stage, and who has good company in the last stage. Death is the nearest thing to the descendants of Ādam, while he considers it the furthest thing. How bold man is with regard to himself, and how weak of a creation is he! In death there is salvation for the sincere, and annihilation for the wicked, and that is why one who desires death, desires it, and one who dislikes death, dislikes it.” (Biḥār al-Anwār, Volume 6, Page 133)

ه. قَالَ رَجُلٌ لِأَبِي ذَرٍّ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ): مَا لَنَا نَكْرَهُ الْمَوْتَ؟ قَالَ: لَأَنَّكُمْ عَمَرْتُمُ الدُّنْيَا وَخَرَبْتُمُ الْآخِرَةَ فَتَكْرَهُونَ أَنْ تَنْتَقِلُوا مِنْ عِمْرَانٍ إِلَى خَرَابٍ، قِيلَ لَهُ: فَكَيْفَ تَرَى قُدُومَنَا عَلَى اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ: أَمَّا الْمُحْسِنُ فَكَالْعَائِبِ يَقْدِمُ عَلَى أَهْلِهِ، وَأَمَّا الْمُسِيءُ فَكَالْآبِقِ يَقْدِمُ عَلَى مَوْلَاهُ، قِيلَ: فَكَيْفَ تَرَى حَالَنَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ: أَعْرَضُوا أَعْمَالَكُمْ عَلَى كِتَابِ اللَّهِ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالَى: «إِنَّ الْأَبْرَارَ لَفِي نَعِيمٍ وَإِنَّ الْفُجَّارَ لَفِي جَحِيمٍ» قَالَ الرَّجُلُ: فَأَيْنَ رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ: إِنَّ رَحْمَةَ اللَّهِ قَرِيبٌ مِنَ الْمُحْسِنِينَ.

5. A man one asked Abū Dharr, “Why do we dislike death?” Abū Dharr (Allāh’s blessings be upon him) replied, “You do not like death because you have built and established the world and ruined the hereafter. So you dislike moving from the established to the ruined.” Someone said to him, “How do you see our return to Allāh ﷻ?” He replied, “As for the pious (person), it is like a traveler returning to his family, and as for the wicked, it is like a runaway slave returning to his master.” He was questioned, “How do you see our situation with Allāh ﷻ?” He replied, “Compare your actions to (what is written in) the Book of Allāh ﷻ, ‘Verily the good doers are enjoying blessings, and verily the evil doers are in Hell.’” The man said, “So where is Allāh’s mercy?” He said, “Verily the Mercy of Allāh ﷻ is near those who do good.” (Biḥār al-Anwār, Volume 6, Page 137)

٦. عَنْ أَبِي جَعْفَرٍ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ (ﷺ): النَّاسُ اثْنَانِ: وَاحِدٌ أَرَاخَ، وَآخَرُ إِسْتَرَاخَ، فَأَمَّا الَّذِي اسْتَرَاخَ فَالْمُؤْمِنُ إِذَا مَاتَ اسْتَرَاخَ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا وَبَلَائِهَا، وَأَمَّا الَّذِي أَرَاخَ فَالْكَافِرُ إِذَا مَاتَ أَرَاخَ الشَّجَرَ وَالذَّوَابَّ وَكَثِيراً مِنَ النَّاسِ.

6. Imām Muḥammad al-Bāqir (Peace be upon him) relates that the Messenger of Allāh (Peace be upon him and his family) said, “People are of two types: one group is pleased by death, while the other one makes others pleased by their death. As for he who is pleased by death, he is the true believer, who by dying, is relieved from the trials and tribulations of the world. And as for the one whose dying makes others pleased, he is the non-Believer who by dying, has relieved the trees, animals, and many people.” (Biḥār al-Anwār, Volume 6, Page 151)

٧. عَنْ أَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ (ﷺ): الْمَوْتُ كَفَّارَةٌ لِدُنُوبِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ.

7. Imām as-Ṣādiq (Peace be upon him) narrates from the Messenger of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family), “Death is an atonement for the sins of a believer.” (Biḥār al-Anwār, Volume 6, Page 151)

٨. عَنِ الرِّضَا (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ)، عَنْ آبَائِهِ (عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَامُ) قَالَ: لَمَّا حَضَرَتْ الْحَسَنَ بْنَ عَلِيٍّ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) الْوَفَاةَ بَكَى، فَقِيلَ: يَا بْنَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ أَتَبْكِي وَمَكَانَكَ مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ (ﷺ) مَكَانَكَ الَّذِي أَنْتَ بِهِ، وَقَدْ قَالَ فِيكَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ (ﷺ) مَا قَالَ، وَقَدْ حَجَجْتَ عِشْرِينَ حُجَّةً مَاشِياً، وَقَدْ قَاسَمْتَ رَبَّكَ مَالِكَ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ حَتَّى التَّعَلَّ وَالتَّعَلَّ؟ فَقَالَ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ): إِنَّمَا أَبْكِي لِخِصْلَتَيْنِ: لِهَوْلِ الْمُطَّلَعِ، وَفِرَاقِ الْأَحَبَّةِ.

8. Imām al-Riḍā (Peace be upon him) narrates from his forefathers that when the time of death of Imām Ḥasan al-Mujtabā (Peace be upon him) approached, the Imām fell into tears. Someone said, “O’ son of the Messenger of Allāh, why are you crying though your position with the Prophet is what it is and the Prophet has said about you what he has said. In addition to this, you have performed the Ḥajj twenty times walking; and three times in your life, you split your wealth and gave half of it in the way of Allāh , even so much as your shoes?!” The Imām replied, “I am crying for two reasons; because

The Reality of Repentance for One’s Sins

The second stage for the person who sees the signs of death approaching is to repent for his sins. If a person succeeds in asking forgiveness for the sins that he has committed, his status is just as the one who had not committed any sins.

1. In a ḥadīth from ‘Alī ibn Mūsā al-Riḍā (Peace be upon him) from his forefathers, quoting the Messenger of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family), it is stated that, “The person who repents from his sins is like the one who had not committed a sin at all.” (Biḥār al-Anwār, Volume 6, Page 21)

However, asking for forgiveness for one’s sins has specific conditions that must be noted:

٢. قَالَ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) لِقَائِلٍ بِحَضْرَتِهِ: أَسْتَغْفِرُ اللَّهَ. تَكَلَّمْتَ أُمَّكَ، أَتَدْرِي مَا الْإِسْتِغْفَارُ؟ إِنَّ الْإِسْتِغْفَارَ دَرَجَةُ الْعَلِيِّينَ وَهُوَ إِسْمٌ وَقَعَ عَلَى سِتَّةِ مَعَانٍ: أَوَّلُهَا التَّوْبَةُ عَلَى مَا مَضَى، وَالْقَانِيَةُ الْعَزْمُ عَلَى تَرْكِ الْعُودِ إِلَيْهِ أَبَدًا، وَالثَّالِثُ أَنْ تُؤَدِّيَ إِلَى الْمَخْلُوقِينَ حُقُوقَهُمْ حَتَّى تَلْقَى اللَّهَ أَمَلَسَ لَيْسَ عَلَيْكَ تَبِعَةٌ، وَالرَّابِعُ أَنْ تَعْمِدَ إِلَى كُلِّ فَرِيضَةٍ عَلَيْكَ صَبَّغَتْهَا فَتُؤَدِّيَ حَقَّهَا، وَالخَامِسُ أَنْ تَعْمِدَ إِلَى اللَّحْمِ الَّذِي نَبَتَ عَلَى السُّحْتِ فَتُذَيِّبَهُ بِالْأَحْزَانِ، حَتَّى يَلْصِقَ الْجِلْدُ بِالْعَظْمِ وَيَنْدَشَأَ بَيْنَهُمَا لَحْمٌ جَدِيدٌ، وَالسَّادِسُ أَنْ تُذَيِّقَ الْجِسْمَ أَلَمَ الطَّاعَةِ كَمَا أَدْفَعْتَهُ حَلَاوَةَ الْمُعْصِيَةِ، فَعِنْدَ ذَلِكَ تَقُولُ: أَسْتَغْفِرُ اللَّهَ.

2. Amīr al-Mo’minīn (Peace be upon him) said to a person who, while in his presence said Astagfirullāh: “May your mother lose you! Do you know what it means to repent? Repentance is the level of people of a high position. It is a word that comes for six meanings. The first is to repent over the past; the second is to make a firm determination never to revert to it; the third is to discharge all the rights of people so that you may meet Allāh , clean with nothing to account for; the fourth is to fulfil every obligation which you ignored (in the past) so that you may now do justice with it; the fifth is to aim at the flesh that grew as a result of unlawful earning, such that you may melt it by grief (of repentance) till the skin touches the bone and new flesh grows on top of it; and the sixth is to make the body taste the pain of obedience as you (previously) made it taste the sweetness of disobedience. At that time you may say: Astagfirullāh.” (Biḥār al-Anwār, Volume 6, Page 57)

﴿Rules Regarding the Writing of a Will﴾

Now that we have become familiar with some of the traditions concerning the remembrance of death and repentance for one's sins, it is appropriate to discuss another topic of great importance that must be reviewed before one's death — namely, the writing of a Will.

One of the most important topics, which has been greatly emphasized in Islām, is the writing of the Will. It has been narrated by Imām Ja'far as-Ṣādiq (Peace be upon him) that:

«مَنْ مَاتَ بِغَيْرِ وَصِيَّةٍ مَاتَ مِيتَةً جَاهِلِيَّةٍ»

“One who dies without a Will, dies the death of one during the days of Ignorance (Pre-Islāmic age).” (Wasā'il al-Shī'a, Volume 19, Page 259)

«لَا يَنْبَغِي أَنْ يَبِيَّتَ إِلَّا وَوَصِيَّةٌ تَحْتَ رَأْسِهِ»

In another ḥadīth, it is mentioned that it is better that when a Muslim intends to go to sleep, he keeps his Will underneath his pillow. (Wasā'il al-Shī'a, Volume 19, Page 258)

In a ḥadīth narrated by Abī Ṣabāh Kanānī, Imām Ja'far as-Ṣādiq (Peace be upon him) was asked regarding the reality and truth about the Will, and he replied, “This is an issue which is firmly rooted (in Islām), and is a necessity for every Muslim.” (Wasā'il al-Shī'a, Volume 19, Page 257)

The Correct Will in Islām

With all the emphasis that has been placed on the writing of a Will, it is also necessary to learn the correct procedure of writing a Will, as taught to us by the Prophet and the Infallible A'imma (Peace be upon them). A correct Will is the one in which when one goes through it, he is satisfied that the rights of each of the inheritors have been observed, and none of them have been placed in a loss or disadvantage.

١. عَنْ جَعْفَرِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ (ؑ) عَنْ أَبِيهِ (ؑ) قَالَ: قَالَ عَلِيٌّ (ؑ) مَنْ أَوْصَى وَلَمْ يَحْفَظْ

1. Ja'far ibn Muhammad (Peace be upon him) narrates from his fore-fathers (Peace be upon all of them) that 'Alī (Peace be upon him) said, “The reward of a person who writes a Will in which there is no oppression or injustice and no one is put in a disadvantage or loss, is just as a person who spent all of his wealth (in the way of Allāh ﷻ) during his life.” Wasā'il al-Shī'a, Volume 19, Page 264)

٢. عَنْ جَعْفَرِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ (ؑ) عَنْ أَبِيهِ (ؑ) قَالَ: مَنْ عَدَلَ فِي وَصِيَّتِهِ كَانَ كَمَنْ تَصَدَّقَ
بِهَا فِي حَيَاتِهِ وَمَنْ جَارَ فِي وَصِيَّتِهِ لَقِيَ اللَّهَ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَهُوَ عَنْهُ مُعْرَضٌ.

2. In another ḥadīth from Ja'far ibn Muhammad (Peace be upon him) from his father (Peace be upon him) that he said, “A person who observes justice in writing his Will, is just as a person who during his lifetime has spent it (in the Way of Allāh ﷻ). As for the person who commits oppression while writing his Will (meaning he does not adhere to the commandments set down by Allāh ﷻ in relation to the rights of his inheritors), he will meet Allāh ﷻ on the Day of Resurrection in such a condition that He will have turned away from him.” (Wasā'il al-Shī'a, Volume 19, Page 267)

Willing 1/3 or 1/5 of One's Wealth?

Once a person leaves this world, he loses the power of choice over his wealth and has no say in how his wealth should be spent. This can be averted if during his life, he had written a Will. In the Will he can specify that 1/3 of his wealth be spent in a certain way (as he desires).

١. عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ يَفْطِينٍ قَالَ: سَأَلْتُ أَبَا الْحَسَنِ (ؑ) مَا لِلرَّجُلِ مِنْ مَالِهِ عِنْدَ مَوْتِهِ؟ قَالَ:
الثُّلُثُ، وَالثُّلُثُ كَثِيرٌ.

1. 'Alī ibn ibn Yaqtīn, said, “I asked Abā al-Ḥasan (Peace be upon him) what amount of wealth a person is allowed to allot for specific uses after his death?” The Imām (Peace be upon him) replied, “He can specify $\frac{1}{3}$ of his wealth, but even $\frac{1}{3}$ is too much.” (Wasā'il al-Shī'a, Volume 19, Page 274)

٢. قَالَ عَلِيٌّ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ): الْوَصِيَّةُ بِالْخُمْسِ لِأَنَّ اللَّهَ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ قَدْ رَضِيَ لِتَفْسِيهِ بِالْخُمْسِ.

2. In a ḥadīth from Amīr al-Mo'minīn 'Alī (Peace be upon him) he has said, “The (best) Will is that in which a person allots $\frac{1}{5}$ for a specific use since Allāh, The Glorious and High, in the Āyah referring to Khums, is pleased with the amount of $\frac{1}{5}$.” (Wasā'il al-Shī'a, Volume 19, Page 275)

This is a small sample of the aḥādīth referring to the importance of the Will. We will now discuss this topic from the Fiqhi, point of view, according to the fatāwā of the Grand Marja' Taqlīd of the Shī'a World, Āyatullāh al-'Uzmā al-Ḥajj as-Sayyid 'Alī al-Ḥusainī as-Seestānī.

Rule 1: A Will is written to direct that after one's death:

- A certain task should be completed.
- A portion of his property is to be given in ownership to someone.
- The ownership of his property be transferred to someone else.
- His wealth be spent for charitable purposes.
- He appoints someone as a guardian for his children and dependants.

A person who is to give effect to a Will is called an executor (Waṣī).

Rule 2: If a person who is dumb (mute), can make himself understood by means of signs, then he can Will for anything he likes; and even if a person who can speak, makes a Will by means of signs and makes himself understood, his Will is valid.

Rule 3: If a written paper is found signed and sealed by a deceased person, and if it is known or implied that he wrote it as a Will, then it must be acted upon. But if it is known that he did not have an intention to make any Will, and that he had simply made some notes for a Will to be written later, then it will not be considered as a Will.

Rule 4: A person making a Will must be Baligh, sane, and he should not be one who wastes his money. Moreover, the Will must have been made by one's own choice and not by being compelled. A Will made by a non-baligh child is invalid, but if a child of ten years of age Wills for the benefit of his blood relative, or for general charity, then that Will is valid. However, if he Wills for the benefit of those other than his blood relatives, or if a seven year old child Wills that a certain part of wealth be for someone, or be given to someone, then that Will is a matter of difficulty, and in both cases, precaution must be observed.

As for the who wastes his money, his Will which relates to his property is not valid, but in matters other than the property, like in matters of some tasks or duties to be performed for the deceased, his Will is valid.

Rule 5: If a person who injures himself intentionally or takes poison, such that death becomes certain or probable, makes a Will that a certain part of his property be put to some particular use, then his Will would not be in order.

Rule 6: If a person makes a Will that something from his property will belong to someone else, and if that person accepts the Will, then even if his acceptance took place during the lifetime of the testator, that thing will become his property after the death of the testator.

Rule 7: When a person sees the signs of death approaching in himself, he should immediately return the things held in trust by him to their owners, or he should inform the owners (acting according to the details mentioned in rule number 194). In addition, if he is indebted to others, and the time for repayment of the debt has matured, or if the creditors make the demand, then he must repay the debt. If he is not in a position to repay the debt, or the time for its repayment has not yet matured, or the creditor has not yet demanded it, then he should make arrangements to ensure that his creditor will be paid after his death, such as by making a Will to inform those who are unaware of the debt and also appoint a witness to the Will.

Rule 8: If a person who sees the signs of death approaching in himself has a debt of Khums, Zakāt, or other liabilities, and if he cannot make the payment immediately, then he must make a Will directing payment if he owns some property, or if he knows someone will pay the debts on his behalf. The same rule applies if he had Ḥajj obligatory upon him. However, if he is capable of paying his religious dues immediately, he must pay them at once, even if he sees no signs of impending death.

Rule 9: If a person who finds signs of death approaching in himself, has lapsed (Qaḍā) of some prayers and fasts due, then he must direct in his Will that a person be hired, and paid from his estate for their performance. In fact, even if he does not have any estate, but feels it probable that someone would perform them without taking any fees, then it is obligatory upon him to make a Will in this behalf. In addition, if he has someone like his eldest son who would perform them, then it is sufficient to inform him about it and it is not obligatory to Will in that respect.

Rule 10: If a person who finds signs of impending death in himself has deposited some property with some one else, or has concealed it in some place of which his heirs are not aware, and if owing to the ignorance of the heirs their right is lost, then he must inform them about it. Also, it is not necessary for him to appoint a guardian, or an administrator for his minor children, except when it is feared that their property may perish, or that they themselves may be ruined without an administrator, in which case, he must appoint a trustworthy administrator for them.

Rule 11: The executor of the Will (Waṣī) must be sane and trustworthy in matters related to the testator, and as a precaution, in matters related to others. Moreover, it is necessary as a precaution that the executor of a Muslim must be another Muslim. To appoint a non-bāligh child alone for putting the Will into effect is not permissible if the said child is expected to exercise discretion without permission of the guardian. However, if the child is directed to put the Will into effect after having become baligh, or with the permission of the guardian, then there will be no objection.

Rule 12: If a person appoints more than one executor, allowing each of them to execute the Will independently, then it will not be necessary that they should obtain permission from one another for the execution of the Will. If he had not given such permission – whether he had said that or not that both of them should execute the Will jointly, they must execute the Will in consultation with one another. And if they are not prepared to execute the Will jointly, and this unwillingness is not accompanied by any religious misgiving, then the Mujtahid can force them to do so, and if they do not obey his orders or any one has a religious excuse for not being prepared to act jointly, then the Mujtahid can replace the dissenting executor.

Rule 13: If a person retracts a directive in his Will; for example, if he first says that $\frac{1}{3}$ of his property must be given to a person, and then says that it must not be given to him, then the Will becomes void. If he changes his Will; for example, if he appoints an administrator for his children, and then replaces him with another person, then his first Will becomes void, and his second Will must be acted upon.

Rule 14: If a person conducts himself in a manner which shows that he has drawn back from his Will, for example, if he sells a house which he had willed to give away to someone, or appoints someone as his agent to sell it in spite of his original wish, then the Will becomes void.

Rule 15: If a person makes a Will that a particular thing must be given away to someone, and later changes it to say that half of the same thing must be given to another person, then that thing must be divided into two parts, and one part must be given to each of them.

Rule 16: If a person who is on his death-bed, bestows a part of his property as a gift to a certain person and makes a Will that after his death another quantity be given to yet another person, and if both the gifts exceed one-third of his estate and the heirs are not prepared to approve the excess, then in that case the first endowment must be given to the first beneficiary, and whatever remains from one-third must be spent according to the Will.

Rule 17: If a person makes a Will that $\frac{1}{3}$ of his property must not be sold and its income must be spent for some particular purpose, then his instructions must be followed.

Rule 18: If a person during his terminal illness says that he owes a certain amount to someone, and if he is suspected of having said that to harm his heirs, then that amount specified by him must be given out of $\frac{1}{3}$ of his property; and if he is not suspected of any such motive, his admission will be valid and the payment must be made out of his estate.

Rule 19: If a person makes a Will that something should be given to another person, then it is not necessary that that beneficiary be existing at the time of the Will. Therefore, if he makes a Will that something be given to a child who may possibly be born from a particular wife, then it is necessary that the thing must be given to the child if he is born after the death of the testator. If he is not born and if the Will is construed as general, then it must be spent in a manner, which would be nearer to the object of the Will, according to the testator.

However, if he makes a Will that after his death, a portion of his property will be owned by a particular person, and if that person exists at the time of the death of the testator, then his Will would be in order, otherwise it is void, and whatever he willed for that person must be divided by the heirs amongst themselves.

Rule 20: If a person comes to know that someone has appointed him as his executor, and he informs the testator that he is not prepared to perform the duties of an executor, then it is not necessary for him to act as an executor after the death of the testator. But, if he does not come to know of his appointment before the death of the testator, or comes to know about it but does not inform the testator that he is not prepared to act as an executor, then he must execute the Will if the execution of the Will does not involve any hardship to him. Also, if the executor comes to know of his appointment at a time when, due to serious illness or some other hindrance, the testator cannot appoint any other executor, then he must accept the appointment, on the basis of precaution.

Rule 21: After a testator dies, the executor cannot appoint another person to execute the Will and withdraw himself. However, if he knows that the deceased did not mean that the executor should execute the Will himself, (rather) what he wanted was only that the given work should be accomplished, then he can appoint another person on his behalf.

Rule 22: If a person appoints two persons as joint executors and if one of them dies, become insane, or becomes an apostate, then the Mujtahid will appoint another person in his place. If both of them die, become insane or apostates, then the Mujtahid will appoint two people in their place. However, if one person can execute the Will, then it is not necessary to appoint two for that purpose.

Rule 23: If an executor alone cannot perform all the tasks laid down in the Will of the deceased even by appointing someone as his agent or by hiring someone else, then the Mujtahid will appoint someone to assist him in his duties.

Rule 24: If some quantity from the property of a dead person is lost or damaged while in the custody of the executor, then if he had been negligent in looking after it or had gone beyond moderation, he will be responsible. For example, if the dead person had willed him to give a certain quantity to the poor of a particular town and he took it to some other town, and in the process it perished, then he will be responsible for it. But if he was neither neglectful nor immoderate, then he will not be responsible for the loss.

Rule 25: If a person appoints someone as his executor, and says that after that executor's death, another person should be the executor in his place, then the second executor must perform the tasks laid down in the Will of the deceased, after the death of the first one.

Rule 26: If an obligatory Ḥajj remained unperformed by the deceased person, or debts like Khums, Zakāt and Mazālim (wealth wrongly appropriated) which were obligatory upon him to pay but were not paid, then they must be paid from the estate of the deceased though he may not have directed it in his Will.

Rule 27: If the estate of the deceased exceeds his debt, and expenses for an obligatory Ḥajj, obligatory religious dues like Khums, Zakāt and Mazālim, and if he has also willed that $\frac{1}{3}$ or a part thereof of his property be put to a particular use, then his Will must be followed; and if he had not made a Will, then whatever remains is the property of the heirs.

Rule 28: If the disposal specified by the deceased exceeds $\frac{1}{3}$ of his property, then his Will, in respect of what exceeds the $\frac{1}{3}$ of his property will be valid only if the heirs show their agreement, by words or by actions. Their unexpressed approval will not suffice and even if they give their consent after some time, it is in order. However, if some heirs permit and others decline to give consent (to the Will being acted upon), then the Will is valid and binding only in respect to the shares of those who have consented.

Rule 29: If the dispensation specified by the deceased exceeds $\frac{1}{3}$ of his property and his heirs give consent to that dispensation before his death, then they cannot withdraw their permission after his death.

Rule 30: If a person makes a Will that Khums and Zakāt and other debts due on him must be paid out of $\frac{1}{3}$ of his property, and also someone should be hired for performing his Qaḍā prayers and fasts, and also perform Mustahab acts like feeding the poor, then the precaution will be that his debt must be paid first out of the $\frac{1}{3}$ of his property, and if there is a balance remaining, then a person should be hired to perform his Qaḍā prayers and fasts, and if there is still a surplus, it should be spent on the Mustahab acts specified by him. If however, $\frac{1}{3}$ of his property is sufficient only for the payment of his debts, and his heirs also do not permit that anything more than the $\frac{1}{3}$ of his property should be spent, then his Will in respect of prayers, fasts, and Mustahab acts is void.

Rule 31: If a testator wills that his debt should be paid, someone should be hired for the performance of his Qaḍā prayers and fasts, and also Mustahab acts should be performed, but does not direct that the expenses for those acts should be paid from $\frac{1}{3}$ of his estate, then his debt must be paid from his estate, and if anything remains, $\frac{1}{3}$ of it must be spent on prayers and fasts and Mustahab acts specified by him. If that $\frac{1}{3}$ is not sufficient and if his heirs permit, then his Will should be implemented by paying from their share, and if they do not permit, then the expenses of prayers and fasts should be paid from the $\frac{1}{3}$ of his estate, and if anything remains it should be spent on the Mustahab acts specified by him.

Rule 32: If a person claims that the deceased had willed that a certain amount should be given to him, and two 'Ādil men confirm his statement, or if he takes an oath and one 'Ādil man also confirms his statement, or if one 'Ādil man and two 'Ādil women, or four 'Ādil women bear witness to what he says, then the amount claimed by him must be given to him.

And if only one 'Ādil woman bears witness, $\frac{1}{4}$ of the amount claimed by him must be given to him, and if two 'Ādil women bear witness, $\frac{1}{2}$ of that amount, and if three 'Ādil women bear witness, $\frac{3}{4}$ of it must be given to him.

Also, if two non-Muslim males from amongst Ahl al-Kitāb (The People of the Book), who are esteemed as 'Ādil in their own religion confirm his statement, and if the deceased was obliged to make a Will while no 'Ādil man and woman was present at that time, then the amount claimed by that person must be given to him.

Rule 33: If a person claims that he is the executor of the deceased and can act according to the Will and put it into effect, or that the deceased had appointed him an administrator of his children, then his statement should be accepted only if two 'Ādil men confirm it.

Rule 34: If a person makes a Will that something from his estate is for a particular person, and that beneficiary dies before accepting or rejecting it, then his heirs can accept it as long as they do not reject the Will. However, this order applies when the testator does not retract his Will, otherwise the beneficiary has no right to lay claim on that thing.

﴿Rules Related to a Dying Person﴾

The word Muḥtaḍir is used to refer to a person who is on his deathbed.

When a person is in this situation, meaning that the signs of death are apparent in him and he is about to die, and either himself or those who are around him recognize that he is about to breathe his last breath — for example, he is told that within half an hour or one hour, he will pass away, then the rules related to a Muḥtaḍir will apply to him.

The rules related to a Muḥtaḍir are divided into two categories — the first category include those rules that are Wājib to be performed by the person himself who is the Muḥtaḍir, and the second category includes rules that are Wājib to be performed by those that are around him.

The Wājib Rules Related to the Muḥtaḍir (Dying Person)

The things which are Wājib upon the person who is at the end of his life and is in the state of Iḥtiḍār are:

Asking for forgiveness for his sins, and asking Allāh ﷻ to have mercy and pardon those transgressions that he may have committed. The asking for forgiveness and mercy from Allāh ﷻ is something that we are all in need of, especially he who is about to leave this world. Even the most pious and pure of people can not be certain that at the time of death, they will not commit any misdeed or wrongdoing against Allāh ﷻ. It is for this reason that we see the A'immaḥ (Peace be upon all of them) who although they were at the level of 'Ismat and Purity from all sins and transgressions, still they were constantly in a state of asking forgiveness from Allāh ﷻ.

Writing a Will Relating to the Rights of Others

Another thing which is Wājib on the person who is in Iḥtiḍār is that if he has any property or trust in his possession that belong to other people, or if he owes someone something, and if he himself is not able to fulfill the trust or pay back that which he owes, then he must inform those around him of this.

Writing a Will Relating to the Wājib Actions that have Become Qaḍā

It is also Wājib upon the Muḥtaḍir that if there are any actions which were Wājib on him but were not performed, that he inform those around him. For example, he says that I have one year of Ṣalāt that I have not prayed, or that I have one month of fasting that I have not performed. The same applies for the performance of Ḥajj, if he had never gone, or for Khums and Zakāt that he had not paid, or for any other loans or debts that are outstanding.

As for those things which are Wājib to perform, or an outstanding debt, it does not make any difference if he has money, some wealth or something that can be sold – although if he has anything that can be sold, then the responsibility is clear – since those who will execute his will and his inheritors will be able to pay his debts and make up the missed responsibilities from his money.

However, if he leaves behind no money nor anything else of value, then he must still announce those acts or worship which he has not performed, since the declaration of these things is Wājib upon the person who is Muḥtaḍir. Also it is possible that those who are around him and who are concerned for him and his state in the next life, will come forward and for the pleasure of Allāh ﷻ, perform the actions that he did not discharge.

The Rules Related to those Around the Muhtaḍir (Dying Person)

Rule 35: A Muslim who is dying — whether man or woman, old or young, must according to precaution, be laid on his/her back if possible in such a manner that the soles of his/her feet would face the Qiblah (direction towards the holy Ka‘bah).

Rule 36: It is recommended that the body be laid facing the Qiblah until it dies and the Ghuls are given. However, when the Ghuls are completed, it is better to lay it the same way as it is to be laid when the prayers are offered for it.

Rule 37: According to Iḥtiyāt, it is Wājib upon every Muslim to lay a dying person facing the Qiblah, and if the dying person consents to it, there is no need to seek the permission from the guardian. Otherwise the permission must be sought.

Rule 38: It is recommended that the Shahādātāin of Islām and the acknowledgement of the twelve Imāms and the other tenets of faith be repeated to the dying person in such a manner that he or she would understand them. It is also recommended that those things recited to him are repeated until the time of his or her death.

Rule 39: It is recommended that the following supplication should be recited over a dying person in such a manner that he or she would understand it:

اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي الْكَثِيرَ مِنْ مَعَاصِيكَ وَاقْبَلْ مِنِّي الْيَسِيرَ مِنْ طَاعَتِكَ يَا مَنْ يَقْبَلُ الْيَسِيرَ
وَيَعْفُو عَنِ الْكَثِيرِ إِقْبَلْ مِنِّي الْيَسِيرَ وَاعْفُ عَنِّي الْكَثِيرَ إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْعَفُوُّ الْعَفُورُ، اللَّهُمَّ
ارْحَمْنِي فَإِنَّكَ رَحِيمٌ

Translation: “O’ Allāh! Forgive my sins, which are many and accept the little I have done in Your servitude. O’ the one who accepts the little (good deeds) and forgives the many (sins). Accept from me the little (good deeds) and forgive the many (sins). Truly, You are the Forgiver and the Merciful. O’ Allāh, have mercy on me, truly You are the Merciful.”

Rule 40: It is Mustahab to carry a person who is experiencing a painfully slow death, to the place where he used to offer prayers, if it does not cause him too much discomfort.

Rule 41: For a person who is in the agony of death, it is Mustahab to recite the following: Sūrah Yā Sīn, Sūrah as-Saffāt, Sūrah al-Aḥzāb, Ayāt al-Kursī, the 54th verse of Sūrah al-A'rāf and the last three verses of Sūrah al-Baqarah by his side. In fact it is better to recite as much from the Holy Qur'ān as possible.¹

In the Name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Merciful.

1. I swear by Yā Sīn
2. and the Qur'ān, the Book of wisdom,
3. that you (Muḥammad) are a Messenger
4. and that you follow the right path.
5. This is a revelation sent down from the Majestic and All-merciful,
6. so that you may warn a people who are unaware because their fathers were not warned.
7. (I swear) that most of them are doomed to be punished. They have no faith.
8. We have enchained their necks up to their chins. Thus, they cannot bend their heads (to find their way).
9. We have set-up a barrier in front of and behind them and have made them blind. Thus, they cannot see.
10. Whether you warn them or not, they will not believe.
11. You should only warn those who follow the Qur'ān and have fear of the Beneficent God without seeing Him. Give them the glad news of their receiving forgiveness and an honorable reward (from God).
12. It is We who bring the dead to life and record the deeds of human beings and their consequences (of continual effects). We keep everything recorded in an illustrious Book.

13. Tell them the story of the people of the town to whom Messengers came.
14. We sent them two Messengers whom they rejected. We supported them by sending a third one who told the people, "We are the Messengers (of God) who have been sent to you."
15. The people said, "You are mere mortals like us and the Beneficent God has sent nothing. You are only liars."
16. They said, "Our Lord knows that We are Messengers
17. Who have been sent to you. Our only duty is to preach clearly to you."
18. The people said, "We have ill omens about you. If you will not desist, we shall stone you and make you suffer a painful torment."
19. The Messengers said, "This ill omen lies within yourselves. Will you then take heed? In fact, you are a transgressing people."
20. A man came running from the farthest part of the city saying, "My people, follow the Messengers.
21. Follow those who do not ask you for any reward and who are rightly guided.
22. Why should I not worship God who has created me? To him you will all return.
23. Should I worship other gods besides Him? If the Beneficent God was to afflict me with hardship, the intercession of the idols can be of no benefit to me nor could it rescue me from hardship.
24. (Had I worshipped things besides God, I would have been in manifest error).
25. Messengers, listen to me. I believe in your Lord."
26. (Having been murdered by the disbelievers) he was told to enter paradise,
27. (wherein he said), "Would that people knew how my Lord has granted me forgiveness and honor."
28. We did not send an army against his people from the heaven after his death nor did We need to send one.
29. It was only a single blast, which made them extinct.
30. Woe to human beings! Whenever a Messenger came to them, they mocked him.

31. Have they not seen how many generations, living before them, had We destroyed and they cannot ever come back to them?
32. They will all be brought into Our presence together.
33. Evidence (of the truth) for them is how We revived the dead earth
34. and produced therein grains from which they eat and established therein gardens of palms trees and vineyards and have made streams flow therein,
35. so that they may consume the fruits and whatever their hands prepare. Will they not then be grateful?
36. All glory belongs to the One Who has created pairs out of what grow from the earth, out of their soul and out of that which they do not know.
37. Of the signs for them is how We separated the day from the night and thus they remained in darkness;
38. how the sun moves in its orbit and this is the decree of the Majestic and All-knowing God;
39. how We ordained the moon to pass through certain phases until it seems eventually to be like a bent twig;
40. how the sun is not supposed to catch-up with the moon, nor is the night to precede the day. All of them are to float in a certain orbit;
41. how We carried them and their offspring inside the laden Ark
42. and created for them similar things to ride.
43. Had We wanted, We could have drowned them and nothing would have been able to help or rescue them
44. except Our mercy which could enable them to enjoy themselves for an appointed time.
45. Whenever they are told to guard themselves against sin and the forth coming torment so that perhaps they could receive mercy
46. and whenever a revelation out of their Lord's revelations comes to them, they ignore it.
47. When they are told to spend for the cause of God out of what He has provided for them for their sustenance, the disbelievers say to the believers, "Should we feed those whom God has decided to feed? You are in plain error."
48. The unbelievers say, "When will the Day of Judgement come if what you say is at all true?"

49. They will not have to wait long. When the Day of Judgement comes, it will only take a single blast of sound to strike them while they are quarrelling with one another.
50. Then they will not be able to make a will or return to their families.
51. When the trumpet is sounded, they will be driven out of their grave into the presence of their Lord.
52. They will say, "Woe to us! Who has raised us up from our graves? This is what the Beneficent God has promised. The Messengers have also spoke the truth."
53. Only after a single blast of sound, they will all be brought into Our presence.
54. No soul will be in the least bit wronged on that Day and no one will receive any recompense other than what he deserves for his deeds.
55. The dwellers of Paradise on that day will enjoy themselves
56. They and their spouses will recline on couches in the shade
57. therein. They will have fruits and whatever they desire.
58. "Peace be with you," will be a greeting for them from the Merciful Lord.
59. (The Lord will command), "Criminals, stand away from the others on this day."
60. Children of Adam, did We not command you not to worship Satan. He was your sworn enemy.
61. Did We not command you to worship Me and tell you that this is the straight path?
62. Satan misled a great multitude of you. Did you not have any understanding?
63. This is hell with which you were threatened.
64. Suffer therein on this day for your disbelief.
65. We shall seal your mouths on that Day, let your hands speak to us and your feet testify to what you had achieved.
66. We could have blinded them had We wanted. Then they would have raced along to cross the Bridge but how could they have seen (their way)?
67. We could have turned them into other creatures on the spot had We wanted and they would not have been able to precede or turn back.
68. The physical growth of those whom We grant a long life will be reversed. Will you then not understand?

69. We did not teach him (Muḥammad) poetry, nor was he supposed to be a poet. It is only the word (of God) and the illustrious Qur’ān
70. by which he may warn those who are living and may let the words of God come true against the unbelievers.
71. Have they not seen what We have created from the labour of Our own hands? We have given them cattle.
72. We have made the cattle subservient to them so they ride and consume them.
73. From cattle they get milk and other benefits. Will they not then give thanks?
74. They chose idols besides God in the hope of receiving help from them,
75. but they will not be able to help them. Instead, the disbelievers will be brought into the presence of God as the soldiers of the idols.
76. (Muḥammad), let not their words annoy you. We certainly know whatever they conceal or reveal.
77. Has the human being not considered that We have created him from a drop of fluid. He is openly quarrelsome
78. He questions Our Resurrection of him, but has forgotten his own creation. He has said, “Who will give life to the bones which have become ashes?”
79. (Muḥammad), tell him, “He who gave them life in the first place will bring them back to life again. He has the best knowledge of all creatures.
80. He has created fire for you out of the green tree from which you can kindle other fires.
81. Is the One who has created the heavens and the earth not able to create another creature like the human being? He certainly has the power to do so. He is the Supreme Creator and is All-knowing.
82. Whenever He decides to create something He has only to say, “Exist,” and it comes into existence.
83. All glory belongs to the One in whose hands is the control of all things. To Him you will all return.

 فِتْنَةً لِلظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٧٠﴾ إِنَّهَا شَجَرَةٌ تَخْرُجُ فِي أَصْلِ الْجَحِيمِ ﴿٦٩﴾ طَلْعُهَا كَأَنَّهُ رُءُوسُ الشَّيَاطِينِ ﴿٦٨﴾

In the Name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Merciful.

1. I swear by (the angels) who stand in ranks,
2. by those who drive away the devil (to protect Our revelation),
3. and those who recite Our revelations,
4. that your Lord is the only Lord.
5. He is the Lord of the heavens and the earth and all that is between them, the Lord of the Eastern regions.
6. We have decorated the lower heavens with stars
7. to protect them from the rebellious Satan.

8. The devils cannot hear that high above. They would be struck from all sides
9. and driven away to suffer the necessary torment.
10. Some of them who stealthily steal words from the heavens are pursued by a glistening flame.
11. (Muḥammad), ask them, "Have they (people) been created stronger than what We have created?" We have created them from moist clay.
12. (Muḥammad), you will be surprised that they still mock (God's revelations).
13. They pay no attention when they are reminded
14. and when they see a miracle, they mock
15. it and say, "It is only plain magic."
16. They say, "Shall we be brought to life again after we die and turn into dust and bones?"
17. Will our forefathers also be brought to life again?"
18. Say, "You will certainly be brought back to life in disgrace."
19. The Day of Judgement will come within a single roar and they will remain gazing at it.
20. They will say, "Woe to us!" (They will be told), "This is the day of receiving recompense."
21. This is the Day of Judgement in which you disbelieved.
22. (God will command the angels), "Gather together the unjust, their spouses, and what they had worshipped
23. besides God, and show them the way of hell
24. Stop them. They must be questioned."
25. They will be asked, "Why do you not help each other?"
26. In fact, on that day they will be submissive.
27. They will turn to each other saying,
28. "It was you who tried to mislead us from righteousness."
29. Others will respond, "It was you who did not want to have any faith.
30. We had no authority over you, in fact, you were a rebellious people.
31. Thus, the words of Our Lord about us have come true and now we are suffering the torment.
32. We mislead you and we ourselves had also gone astray."
33. On that day they will all share the torment.

34. This is how We deal with the criminals.
35. They were the ones, who on being told, "God is only One," become puffed-up with pride
36. and said, "Should we give up our idols for the sake of an insane poet?"
37. In fact, he had brought them the truth and had acknowledged the Messengers (who were sent before him).
38. (They will be told), "You will certainly suffer the painfull torment
39. and will be recompensed only for what you deserve."
40. But the sincere seivants of God
41. will have their determined sustenance
42. and fruits while they are honoured.
43. (They will live) in the bountiful gardens,
44. on couches facing each other.
45. They will be served with a cup filll of crystal clear wine,
46. delicious to those who drink it,
47. but not harmful or intoxicating.
48. They will have with them loving wives with big black and white eyes,
49. who are as chaste as sheltered eggs.
50. They will turn to each other and ask questions.
51. One of them will say, "I had a companion who asked me,
52. 'Do you believe in the Day of Judgement?"
53. Shall we be recompensed for our deeds after we die and become bones and dust?"
54. Do you want to see him?"
55. He will look down and see him in hell.
56. He will say to his friend in hell, "By God, you almost destroyed me.
57. Had I not the guidance of my Lord, I would certainly have been brought into torment."
58. He will ask his companion, "Did you not say that there would only be one death
59. and that we would not be punished?"
60. This is certainly the greatest triumph
61. for which one must strive hard
62. Is this not a better reward than the tree of Zaqqum

63. which We have made as a torment for the unjust?
64. (Zaqqum) is a tree which grows from the deepest part of hell,
65. and its fruits are like the heads of devils.
66. The dwellers of hell will eat that fruit and fill-up their bellies.
67. Then they will have on top of it a mixture of boiling water.
68. They can only return to hell.
69. They found their father going astray
70. and rushed to follow them.
71. Most of the ancient people had also gone astray.
72. We had certainly sent warners to them.
73. See how terrible was the end of those who were warned.
74. Only Our sincere servants were saved.
75. Noah called for help. How blessed was the answer, which he received.
76. We rescued him and his people from the greatest affliction
77. and We made his offspring the only survivors.
78. We perpetuated his praise in later generations.
79. Peace be with Noah among all men in the worlds.
80. Thus do We reward the righteous ones.
81. He was one of Our believing servants.
82. We drowned all the others (besides Noah and his people).
83. Abraham was one of his followers.
84. He turned to his Lord with a sound heart
85. and asked his father and his people, "What is that you worship?
86. Do you want to worship false idols as your lords besides God?
87. What do you think about the Lord of the Universe?"
88. (The people invited him to attend their feast). Then he looked at the stars
89. and said, "I am sick!"
90. All the people turned away from him
91. and he turned to their idols and asked them, "Do you eat?
92. Why do you not speak?"
93. He struck them with his right hand.
94. Thereupon the people came running to him.
95. He said, "How can you worship what you yourselves have carved
96. even though God created both you and that which you have made?"

97. They said, "Let us build a fire and throw him into the flames."
98. They plotted against him, but We brought humiliation upon them
99. (Abraham) said, "I will go to my Lord who will guide me."
100. Abraham prayed, "Lord, grant me a righteous son."
101. We gave him the glad news of the birth of a forbearing son.
102. When his son was old enough to work with him, he said, "My son, I have had a dream that I must sacrifice you. What do you think of this?" He replied, "Father, fulfil whatever you are commanded to do and you will find me patient, by the will of God."
103. When they both agreed and Abraham had lain down his son on the side of his face (for slaughtering),
104. We called to him, "Abraham,
105. you have fulfilled what you were commanded to do in your dream." Thus do We reward the righteous ones.
106. It was certainly an open trial.
107. We ransomed his son with a great sacrifice
108. and perpetuated his praise in later generations.
109. Peace be with Abraham.
110. Thus, do We reward the righteous ones.
111. He was one of Our believing servants.
112. We gave him the glad news of the birth of Isaac, one of the righteous Prophets.
113. We had blessed him and Isaac. Some of their offspring were righteous and others were openly unjust to themselves.
114. We certainly bestowed Our favour upon Moses and Aaron
115. and saved them and their people from great distress.
116. We helped them and they were victorious.
117. We gave them the enlightening Book,
118. guided them to the right path,
119. and perpetuated their praise in later generations.
120. Peace be with Moses and Aaron.
121. Thus do We reward the righteous ones.
122. They were two of Our believing servants.
123. Elias was certainly a Messenger.
124. He told his people, "Why do you not have fear of God?
125. Do you worship Ba'al and abandon the Best Creator.

126. who is your Lord and the Lord of your forefathers?”
127. They called him a liar. Thus, all of them will suffer torment,
128. except the sincere servants of God.
129. We perpetuated his praise in the later generations.
130. Peace be with the followers of El Yasin.
131. In this way do We reward the righteous ones.
132. He was one of Our believing servants.
133. Lot was certainly a Messenger.
134. We rescued him and his whole family,
135. except for an old woman who remained behind.
136. Then We totally destroyed the others.
137. You pass by (their ruined town) in the morning and at night
138. Will you then not understand?
139. Jonah was certainly a Messenger.
140. He abandoned his people
141. and sailed away in a laden ship, where in people cast lots.
Because he lost, he was thrown into the water.
142. The fish swallowed him up and he deserved (all this).
143. Had he not glorified God,
144. he would certainly have remained inside the fish until the Day of Resurrection.
145. We cast him out of the fish unto dry land and he was sick.
146. We made a plant of gourd grow up for him.
147. We sent him to a hundred thousand or more people.
148. They believed in him so We granted them enjoyment for an appointed time.
149. (Muḥammad), ask them, “Do daughters belong to your Lord and sons to them?”
150. Have We created the angels as females before their very eyes?
151. It is only because of their false invention that they say,
152. ‘God has begotten a son.’ They are certainly liars.
153. Has He chosen daughters in preference to sons?
154. Woe to you! How terrible is your Judgement.
155. Do you not understand?
156. Do you have clear authority?
157. Bring your book if what you say is true.

158. They have said that there is a relationship between Him and the jinn. The jinn certainly know that they will all be brought to suffer torment.
159. God is too glorious to be described as they describe Him
160. except the servants of God, sincere and devoted.
161. You and whatever you worship
162. cannot mislead anyone
163. except those who are doomed to enter hell
164. The angels say, "Each of us has an appointed place.
165. We stand in ranks (for prayer)
166. and we glorify God."
167. Even though they (unbelievers) say,
168. "Had we received guidance from the people living before us,
169. we would have certainly been sincere servants of God."
170. They have rejected the Qur'ān. They will soon know the consequences (of their disbelief).
171. We decreed that Our Messenger servants
172. will certainly be victorious
173. and that Our army will be triumphant.
174. (Muḥammad), stay away from them for a while
175. and watch them. They, too, will watch.
176. Do they want to suffer Our torment immediately?
177. When it descends into their courtyard, it will be terrible for those who have already been warned.
178. Stay away from them for a while
179. and watch. They, too, will watch.
180. Your Lord, the Lord of Honor, is too exalted to be considered as they describe Him.
181. Peace be with the Messengers (of God).
182. It is only Allāh, the Lord of the Universe, who deserves all praise.

In the Name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Merciful.

1. Prophet, have fear of Allāh and do not yield to the infidels and hypocrites. Allāh is All-knowing and All-wise.
2. Follow what has been revealed to you from your Lord. Allāh is All-aware of what you do.
3. Trust in Allāh and be sure that He is a Sufficient Guardian.
4. Allāh has not created two hearts inside any one human being. Allāh does not consider your wives whom you renounce by zihar as your mothers nor those whom you adopt as your sons. These are only words of your mouth. God tells the Truth and shows the right path.

5. Call them sons of their own fathers. It is more just in the eyes of Allāh. If you do not know their fathers, they are your brothers and friends in religion. You will not be responsible for your mistakes, but you will be responsible for what you do intentionally. Allāh is All-forgiving and All-merciful.
6. The Prophet has more authority over the believers than themselves. His wives are their mothers. The relatives are closer to each other, according to the Book of Allāh, than the believers and the emigrants. However, you may show kindness to your guardians. This also is written in the Book.
7. We had a solemn covenant with you (Muḥammad), and the Prophets: Noah, Abraham, Moses, and Jesus, the son of Mary.
8. This was a firm agreement. Allāh will ask the truthful ones about their truthfulness and prepare a painful torment for the disbelievers.
9. Believers, recall Allāh's favor to you when the army attacked you. We sent a wind and the armies, which you did not see, to support you. Allāh sees all that you do.
10. Eyes became dull and hearts almost reached the throat when they attacked you from above and below and you started to think of God with suspicion.
11. There the believers were tested and tremendously shaken.
12. It was there that the hypocrites and those whose hearts were sick, said, "The promise of Allāh and His Messenger has proved to be nothing but deceit."
13. It was there that a group of them said, "People of Yathrib, turn back for there is no place for you to stay." Another group, asking for the Prophet's permission, said, "Our homes are defenseless." In fact, they were not defenseless. They only wanted to run away.
14. Had the army of the enemies invaded their homes and asked them to give up their religion, they would have yielded to them without delay.
15. They had certainly promised Allāh that they would not turn away. To promise Allāh is certainly a (great) responsibility.
16. (Muḥammad), tell them, "Running away will never be of any benefit to you even if you run away from death or being killed. Still you would not be able to enjoy yourselves except for a short while."

17. Say, "Who can prevent Allāh from punishing you or granting you mercy? They will not find anyone besides Allāh as their guardian or helper."
18. Allāh certainly knows those among you who create obstacles (on the way that leads to Allāh) and those who say to their brothers, "Come quickly to us" and very rarely take part in the fighting.
19. They are niggardly in spending for you. When fear comes, you can see them looking at you, their eyes rolling about like to faint because of the agony of death. When their fear subsides, they start to bite you with their sharp tongues. They are miserly in spending for a virtuous cause and have no faith. Allāh has turned their deeds devoid of all virtue. This was not at all difficult for Allāh.
20. They think that the confederate tribes have not yet gone. If the confederate tribes were to attack them, they would have wished to be left alone among the Bedouin Arabs where they would only follow the news about you. Even if they were with you, only a few of them would take part in the fight.
21. The Messenger of Allāh is certainly a good example for those of you who have hope in Allāh and in the Day of Judgement and who remember Allāh very often.
22. On seeing the confederate tribes, the believers said, "This is what Allāh and His Messenger had promised us. The promise of Allāh and His Messenger is true." This only strengthens their faith and their desire of submission to the will of Allāh.
23. Among the believers there are people who are true in their promise to Allāh. Some of them have already passed away and some of them are waiting. They never yield to any change.
24. Allāh will certainly reward the truthful ones for their truthfulness and punish or pardon the hypocrites as He wishes. Allāh is All-forgiving and All-merciful.
25. Allāh repelled the unbelievers in their rage. They could not achieve anything good. Allāh rendered sufficient support to the believers in fighting. Allāh is All-powerful and Majestic.
26. Allāh brought down those among the People of the Book who had supported the confederate tribes from their castles and struck their hearts with terror. You did away with some of them and captured the others.

27. Allāh made you inherit their land, houses, property, and a land on which you had never walked. Allāh has power over all things.
28. Prophet, tell your wives, “If you want the worldly life and its beauty, I shall allow you to enjoy it and set you free in an honorable manner,
29. but if you want the pleasure of Allāh, His Messenger, and the life hereafter, know that Allāh has prepared a great reward for the righteous ones among you.”
30. Wives of the Prophet, if anyone among you commits indecency, her torment will be double. This is not at all difficult for Allāh.
31. To whoever of you obeys Allāh and His Messenger and acts righteously, We will give double reward and a honorable sustenance.
32. Wives of the Prophet, you are not like other women. If you have fear of God, do not be tender in your speech lest people whose hearts are sick may lust after you.
33. Do not display yourselves after the manner of the (pre-Islāmic) age of darkness. Be steadfast in the prayer, pay the religious tax, and obey Allāh and His Messenger. People of the house, Allāh wants to remove all kinds of uncleanness from you and to purify you thoroughly.
34. Wives of the Prophet, remember the revelations of Allāh and Words of wisdom that are recited in your homes. Allāh is Most Kind and All-aware.
35. Allāh has promised forgiveness and great rewards to the Muslim men and the Muslim women, the believing men and the believing women, the obedient men and the obedient women, the truthful men and the truthful women, the forbearing men and the forbearing women, the humble men and the humble women, the alms-giving men and the alms-giving women, the fasting men and the fasting women, the chaste men and the chaste women, and the men and women who remember Allāh very often.
36. The believing men and women must not feel free to do something in their affairs other than that which has been already decided for them by Allāh and His Messenger. One who disobeys Allāh and His Messenger is in plain error.
37. Say to the person to whom you and Allāh have granted favor, “Keep your wife and have fear of Allāh. You hide within yourself what Allāh wants to make public. You are afraid of people while it is God whom one should fear.” When Zayd set her free, We gave her in marriage to you so that the believers would not face difficulties about the wives of their adopted sons when they are divorced. Allāh’s decree has already been issued.

38. The Prophet cannot be blamed for carrying out the commands of Allāh. It was the tradition of Allāh with those who lived before. The command of Allāh has already been decreed and ordained.
39. Those who preach the message of Allāh and are humble before Him should not be afraid of anyone besides Allāh. Allāh is Sufficient in keeping the account.
40. Muḥammad is not the father of any of your males. He is the Messenger of Allāh and the last Prophet. Allāh has the knowledge of all things.
41. Believers, remember Allāh very often
42. and glorify Him both in the mornings and in the evenings.
43. It is He who forgives you and His angels pray for you so that He will take you out of darkness into light. Allāh is All-merciful to the believers.
44. On the day when they will be brought into the presence of their Lord, their greeting to each other will be, “Peace be with you.” Allāh has prepared an honorable reward for them.
45. Prophet, We have sent you as a witness, a bearer of glad news, a warner,
46. a preacher for Allāh by His permission and as a shining torch.
47. Give glad news to the believers of their receiving great favor from Allāh.
48. Do not yield to the disbelievers or the hypocrites. Ignore their annoying you. Trust in Allāh. Allāh is your all Sufficient Protector.
49. Believers, if you marry believing women and then divorce them before the consummation of the marriage, they do not have to observe the waiting period. Give them their provisions and set them free in an honorable manner.
50. Prophet, We have made lawful for you your wives whom you have given their dowry, slave girls whom Allāh has given to you as gifts, the daughters of your uncles and aunts, both paternal and maternal, who have migrated with you. The believing woman, who has offered herself to the Prophet and whom the Prophet, may want to marry, will be especially for him, not for other believers. We knew what to make obligatory for them concerning their wives and slave girls so that you would face no hardship (because we have given distinction to you over the believers). Allāh is All-forgiving and All-merciful.

51. You may refuse whichever (of the woman who offer themselves to you) as you want and accept whichever of them you wish. There is no blame on you if you marry (one whom you had refused previously). This would be more delightful for them. They should not be grieved but should be happy with whatever you have given to every one of them. Allāh knows what is in your hearts. Allāh is All-knowing and All-forbearing.
52. Besides these, other women are not lawful for you to marry nor is it lawful for you to exchange your wives for the wives of others (except for the slave girls), even though they may seem attractive to you. Allāh is watchful over all things.
53. Believers, do not enter the houses of the Prophet for a meal without permission. if you are invited, you may enter, but be punctual (so that you will not be waiting while the meal is being prepared). When you have finished eating, leave his home. Do not sit around chatting among yourselves. This will annoy the Prophet but he will feel embarrassed to tell you. Allāh does not feel embarrassed to tell you the truth. When you want to ask something from the wives of the Prophet, ask them from behind the curtain. This would be more proper for you and for them. You are not supposed to trouble the Prophet or to ever marry his wives after his death, for this would be a grave offence in the sight of Allāh.
54. Whether you reveal something or hid it, Allāh has the knowledge of all things.
55. It will not be an offence for the wives of the Prophet (not to observe the modest dress) in the presence of their fathers, sons, brothers, sons of their brothers and sisters, their own women, and their slave-girls. They should have fear of Allāh. Allāh witnesses all things.
56. Allāh showers His blessings upon the Prophet and the angels seek forgiveness for him. Believers, pray for the Prophet and greet him with, "Peace be with you."

57. Those who annoy Allāh and His Messenger will be condemned by Allāh in this life and in the life to come. He has prepared for them a humiliating torment.
58. Those who annoy the believing men and women without reason will bear the sin for a false accusation, a manifest offence.
59. Prophet, tell your wives, daughters, and the wives of the believers to cover their bosoms and breasts. This will make them distinguishable from others and protect them from being annoyed. Allāh is All-forgiving and All-merciful.
60. If the hypocrites, those whose hearts are sick and those who encourage the spread of evil in the city, will not desist, We shall arouse you against them and they will only be allowed to be your neighbours for a short while.
61. They will be condemned wherever they are and will be seized and done away with for good.
62. This was the tradition of Allāh with those who lived before. There will never be any change in the tradition of Allāh.
63. (Muḥammad), people ask you about the Day of Judgment. Say, "Only Allāh has knowledge about it. Perhaps the Hour of Doom will soon come to pass."
64. Allāh has condemned the unbelievers and prepared for them a burning torment,
65. wherein they will live forever without being able to find any guardian or helper.
66. On the day when their faces will be turned from side to side on the fire, they will say, "Would that we had obeyed Allāh and the Messenger!"
67. They will say, "Lord, we obeyed our chiefs and elders and they caused us to go astray.
68. Lord, make them to suffer double torment and subject them to the greatest condemnation."
69. Believers, do not be like those who annoyed Moses. Allāh proved him to be innocent of what they had said about him. Moses was a honorable person in the sight of Allāh.

70. Believers, have fear of Allāh and speak righteous words.
71. Allāh will reform your deeds and forgive your sins. One who obeys Allāh and His Messenger will certainly achieve a great success.
72. We offered Our Trust (Our deputation) to the heavens, to the earth, and to the mountains, but they could not bear this burden and were afraid to accept it. Mankind was able to accept this offer but he was unjust to himself and ignorant of the significance of this Trust.
73. (As a result of this) Allāh will punish the hypocrites and the pagans, but He will accept the repentance of the believers. Allāh is All-forgiving and All-merciful.

‘Āyāt al-Kursī

اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّومُ ۚ لَا تَأْخُذُهُ سِنَّةٌ وَلَا نَوْمٌ ۚ لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَاوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ ۗ مَنْ ذَا الَّذِي يَشْفَعُ عِنْدَهُ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِهِ ۚ يَعْلَمُ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ ۗ وَلَا يُحِيطُونَ بِشَيْءٍ مِّنْ عِلْمِهِ إِلَّا بِمَا شَاءَ ۚ وَسِعَ كُرْسِيُّهُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ ۗ وَلَا يَئُودُهُ حِفْظُهُمَا ۗ وَهُوَ الْعَلِيُّ الْعَظِيمُ ﴿٢٥٥﴾ لَا إِكْرَاهَ فِي الدِّينِ ۗ قَدْ تَبَيَّنَ الرُّشْدُ مِنَ الْغَيِّ ۚ فَمَنْ يَكْفُرْ بِالطَّاغُوتِ وَيُؤْمِن بِاللَّهِ فَقَدِ اسْتَمْسَكَ بِالْعُرْوَةِ الْوُثْقَىٰ لَا انفِصَامَ لَهَا ۗ وَاللَّهُ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٢٥٦﴾ اللَّهُ وَلِيُّ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا يُخْرِجُهُم مِّنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى النُّورِ ۗ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَوْلِيَاؤُهُمُ الطَّاغُوتُ يُخْرِجُونَهُم مِّنَ النُّورِ إِلَى الظُّلُمَاتِ ۗ أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ ۗ هُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ ﴿٢٥٧﴾

255. Allāh, there is no God but He, the Everlasting and the Guardian of life. Drowsiness or sleep do not seize him. To Him belongs all that is in the heavens and the earth. No one can intercede with Him for others except by His permission. He knows about people's present and past. No one can grasp anything from His knowledge besides what He has permitted them to grasp. The heavens and the earth are under His dominion. He does not experience fatigue in preserving them both. He is the Highest and the Greatest.
256. There is no compulsion in religion. Certainly, right has become clearly distinct from wrong. Whoever rejects the devil and believes in Allāh has firmly taken hold of a strong handle that never breaks. Allāh is All-hearing and knowing.

257. Allāh is the Guardian of the believers and it is He who takes them out of darkless into light. The Devil is the guardian of those who deny the Truth and he leads them from light to darkless. These are the dwellers of hell wherein they will live forever.

سورة الأعراف، آية ٥٤

Sūrah al-A'raf : Āyah 54

إِنَّ رَبَّكُمُ اللَّهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ فِي سِتَّةِ أَيَّامٍ ثُمَّ اسْتَوَىٰ عَلَى الْعَرْشِ يُغْشِي اللَّيْلَ
التَّهَارَ يَطْلُبُهُ حَثِيثًا وَالشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ وَالنُّجُومَ مُسَخَّرَاتٍ بِأَمْرِهِ ۗ أَلَا لَهُ الْخَلْقُ وَالْأَمْرُ ۗ تَبَارَكَ
اللَّهُ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٥٤﴾

54. Your Lord is Allāh who established His dominion over the Throne (of the realm) after having created the heavens and the earth in six days. He made the night darken the day which it pursues at a (considerable) speed and He made the sun and the moon submissive to His command. Is it not He Who creates and governs all things? Blessed is Allāh, the Cherisher of the Universe.

سورة البقرة، آيات ٢٨٤ - ٢٨٦

Sūrah al-Baqarah : 'Āyāt 284 - 286

لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَاوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ ۗ وَإِن تُبَدُّوا مَا فِي أَنفُسِكُمْ أَوْ تُخْفُوهُ يُحَاسِبْكُمْ بِهِ اللَّهُ
فَيَغْفِرُ لِمَن يَشَاءُ وَيُعَذِّبُ مَن يَشَاءُ ۗ وَاللَّهُ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٢٨٤﴾ آمَنَ الرَّسُولُ بِمَا أُنزِلَ إِلَيْهِ
مِن رَّبِّهِ وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ ۗ كُلٌّ آمَنَ بِاللَّهِ وَمَلَائِكَتِهِ وَكُتُبِهِ وَرُسُلِهِ لَا نُفَرِّقُ بَيْنَ أَحَدٍ مِّن رُّسُلِهِ
وَقَالُوا سَمِعْنَا وَأَطَعْنَا ۗ غُفْرَانُكَ رَبَّنَا وَإِلَيْكَ الْمَصِيرُ ﴿٢٨٥﴾ لَا يَكْفُرُ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِلَّا وُسْعَهَا ۗ لَهَا
مَا كَسَبَتْ وَعَلَيْهَا مَا اكْتَسَبَتْ ۗ رَبَّنَا لَا تُؤَاخِذْنَا إِن نَّسِينَا أَوْ أَخْطَأْنَا ۗ رَبَّنَا وَلَا تَحْمِلْ عَلَيْنَا
إِصْرًا كَمَا حَمَلْتَهُ عَلَى الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِنَا ۗ رَبَّنَا وَلَا تُحَمِّلْنَا مَا لَا طَاقَةَ لَنَا بِهِ ۗ وَاعْفُ عَنَّا وَاعْفِرْ لَنَا
وَارْحَمْنَا ۗ أَنْتَ مَوْلَانَا فَانصُرْنَا عَلَى الْقَوْمِ الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٢٨٦﴾

284. To Allāh belongs whatever is in the heavens and the earth. Allāh will call you to account for all that you may reveal from your souls and all that you may conceal. Allāh will forgive or punish whomever He wants. Allāh has power over all things.

285. The Messengers and the believers have faith in what was revealed to them from their Lord. Everyone of them believed in Allāh, His Angels, His Books, and His Messengers, saying, “We find no difference among the Messengers of Allāh.” They also have said, “We heard Allāh’s commands and obeyed them. Lord, we need Your forgiveness and to You we shall return.”
286. Allāh does not impose on any soul a responsibility beyond its ability. Every soul receives whatever it gains and is liable for whatever it does. Lord , do not hold us responsible for our forgetfulness and mistakes. Lord, do not lay upon us the burden that You laid on those who lived before us. Lord, do not lay on us what we cannot afford. Ignore and forgive our sins. Have mercy on us. You are our Lord. Help us against the unbelievers.

Rule 42: It is Makrūh to leave a dying person alone, place a weight on his stomach, talk idly or weep near him, or to let only women remain with him. It is also Makrūh for a person in the state of Janābah or Ḥaiḍh to be near the dying one.

The Reward for Making a Dying Person face towards the Qiblah

١. عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ عَلِيٍّ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهِ عَنْ أَمِيرِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) قَالَ: دَخَلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ (ﷺ) عَلَى رَجُلٍ مِنْ وُلْدِ عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ وَهُوَ فِي السُّوقِ وَقَدْ وُجَّهَ لِغَيْرِ الْقِبْلَةِ فَقَالَ (ﷺ) وَجَّهْهُ إِلَى الْقِبْلَةِ فَإِنَّكُمْ إِذَا فَعَلْتُمْ ذَلِكَ أَقْبَلَتْ عَلَيْهِ الْمَلَائِكَةُ وَأَقْبَلَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ فَلَمْ يَزَلْ كَذَلِكَ حَتَّى يُفْبَضَ.

1. Zaīd ibn ‘Alī relates from his father that Amīr al-Mo’minīn (Peace be upon him) said, “The Prophet (Peace be upon him and his family) visited one of the descendants of ‘Abd al-Muṭṭalib who was on his deathbed and was not facing the Qiblah. He (Peace be upon him and his family) said, ‘Make this man face towards the Qiblah, because if you do this, then the Angels will turn their attention towards him and Allāh ﷻ (too) will turn His attention to him until he leaves this world’.” (Thawāb al-A‘māl, Page 433)

The Reward for Reciting the Shahādāt to the Dying Person

٢. عَنْ إِسْحَاقَ بْنِ عَمَّارٍ عَنِ الصَّادِقِ جَعْفَرِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ آبَائِهِ (عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَامُ) عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ (ﷺ) قَالَ: لَقِّنُوا مَوْتَاكُمْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ فَإِنْ مَن كَانَ آخِرُ كَلَامِهِ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ دَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ.

1. Ishaq ‘Ammār relating from as-Ṣādiq Ja‘far ibn Muḥammad (Peace be upon him) from his father from his forefather (Peace be upon all of them) relates that the Messenger of Allāh (Peace be upon him and his family) said, “At the time of death, one should recite (لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ) to the dying person, since whoever’s last words are (لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ) will go to Paradise.” (Thawāb al-A‘māl, Page 434)

﴿Rules to be Followed After Death﴾

Rule 43: It is Mustahab that (after death):

- The eyes and lips of the deceased are shut.
- The mouth is closed.
- The hands and feet are straightened.
- A cloth should be spread over the body.

For a person who dies at night, it is Mustahab to light the place where he/she is, and to inform the believers to join the funeral, and to hasten the burial. But if they are not sure of his/her death, then they should wait till they are certain. Moreover, if the deceased is a pregnant woman and there is a living child in her womb, then her burial should be postponed until such time when her left side can be cut open and the child can be taken out, and afterwards, her side should be sewn up again.

﴿Rules of the Ghusl, Kafan, Ṣalāt and Dafan﴾

Rule 44: Giving the Ghusl, Kafan, Hunūt, Ṣalāt, and burial to every dead Muslim, regardless of whether he/she is an Iṭḥna-‘Asherī or not, is Wājib on the guardian. The guardian must either discharge all these duties himself or appoint someone else to do them. In addition, if anyone performs these duties with or without the permission of the guardian, then the guardian will be relieved of his responsibility.

If the deceased has no guardian, or if the guardian refuses to discharge his duties, then these duties will be obligatory upon everyone equally as Wājib-e-Kiā’ī, which means that if even one person undertakes to fulfil the obligation, others will be relieved of the responsibility; however, if no one undertakes to do so, all will be equally sinful. In addition, when a guardian refuses to discharge his duty, then seeking his permission has no meaning.

Rule 45: If a person undertakes to fulfil the obligations to the dead body, then it is not obligatory on others to proceed for the same. However, if that person leaves the work half done, then others must complete it.

Rule 46: If a person is certain that others are fulfilling their obligations properly, then it is not obligatory upon him to proceed for the purpose. However, if he is in doubt or has suspicion, then he should take the necessary steps.

Rule 47: If a person is certain that the Ghusl, Kafan, Ṣalāt or burial of a dead body have not been performed correctly, then he must proceed to do them again properly. But if he feels that maybe the duties were incorrectly discharged, or if he has a mere doubt, then it is not obligatory to undertake the work.

Rule 48: The guardian of a wife is her husband; and in other cases, men who inherit from the deceased according to the categories (which will be explained later) will take precedence over each other. However, to say that the father of the deceased takes precedence over the son, the grandfather over the brothers, or full brothers over half-brothers or the paternal uncles over the maternal uncles is a ponderable issue, and one should act with caution as the situation demands.

Rule 49: A minor or an insane person does not qualify for guardianship in matters relating to the deceased; similarly, an absent person who can neither attend to the duties himself nor appoint someone to do them, has no authority as a guardian.

Rule 50: If a person claims that he is the guardian of the deceased person, or that the guardian of the deceased has given him permission to carry out his Ghusl, Kafan and Dafan, or if he claims that he is the appointed executor of the deceased in the matter of the final rituals, then his claim will be accepted, provided that he is reliable or that the corpse is in his possession, or that two 'Ādil people testify to his statement.

Rule 51: If the deceased person appointed someone other than his guardian to carry out his Ghusl, Kafan, Dafan and Ṣalāt, then he will be the rightful person to fulfil these obligations. It is not necessary that the person who the deceased had appointed to carry out the duties personally should accept the Will. However if he accepts it, then he must act accordingly.

The Reward of Giving Ghusl to a Deceased Muslim

١. عَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ الْإِسْكَافِيِّ عَنْ أَبِي جَعْفَرٍ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) قَالَ: أَيُّمَا مُؤْمِنٍ غَسَلْنَا مُؤْمِنًا فَقَالَ إِذَا قَلْبُهُ «اللَّهُمَّ هَذَا بَدَنُ عَبْدِكَ الْمُؤْمِنِ وَقَدْ أَخْرَجْتَ رُوحَهُ مِنْهُ وَفَرَّقْتَ بَيْنَهُمَا فَعَفْوِكَ عَفْوُكَ» إِلَّا عَفَرَ اللَّهُ لَهُ ذُنُوبَ سَنَةِ إِلَّا الْكَبَائِرَ.

1. It is related from Sa'd ibn al-Iskāf that Abī Ja'far (Peace be upon him) said, "There is not a single believer who gives another believer the ghusl (after his death) and while shifting the body says: "O' Allāh, this is the body of your believing slave. You have taken his soul from him and separated his soul from him so forgive his sins, forgive his sins” except that Allāh ﷻ forgives that person (who is performing the ghusl) his sins for one year, except the major sins.”

۲. عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ سَنَانَ عَنْ أَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) قَالَ: مَنْ غَسَلَ مَيِّتًا مُؤْمِنًا فَأَدَّى فِيهِ الْأَمَانَةَ عَفَرَ اللَّهُ لَهُ، قَالَ وَكَيْفَ يُؤَدِّي فِيهِ الْأَمَانَةَ؟ قَالَ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) لَا يُخْبِرُ بِمَا يَرَى.

2. ‘Abdullāh ibn Sanān relates that Abī ‘Abdillāh (Peace be upon him) said, “Whosoever gives a deceased Muslim the Ghusl and takes care of his trust, Allāh ﷻ will forgive him his sins.” ‘Abdullāh asked the Imām, How does he take care of his trust? The Imām (Peace be upon him) replied, “He does not inform others of what (defects) he has seen.” (Thawāb al-A‘māl, Page 434)

﴿Method of Ghusl for the Deceased﴾

Rule 52: It is Wājib to give three Ghusls to the dead body:

- The first bathing must be with water mixed with “Sidr” (lotus) leaves.
- The second bathing must be with water mixed with Camphor.
- The third must be with pure water.

Rule 53: The quantity of ‘Sidr’ leaves and Camphor must not be so much that the water becomes mixed (Muḍhāf), nor so little that it may be said that the ‘Sidr’ leaves and Camphor have not been mixed in it at all.

Rule 54: If enough quantity of ‘Sidr’ leaves and Camphor is not available, then whatever quantity is available must be mixed with the water.

Rule 55: If a person dies while he is in the state of Iḥrām, then his dead body must not be washed with water mixed with Camphor. Instead of that, pure, unmixed water must be used. However, in the following two situations water with Camphor must be used:

1. If he or she dies in Ḥajj Tamattu‘ after completing Sa‘ī.
2. If it is Ḥajj Qirān or Iḥrām, and he died after having shaved the head

Rule 56: If ‘Sidr’ leaves and Camphor or either of these things is not available or its use is not lawful (e.g. if it has been usurped), then the dead body must be given Ghusl, on the basis of precaution, with pure, unmixed water and instead of the Ghusl which is not possible, it must also be given one Tayammum.

Rule 57: A person who gives Ghusl to the dead body must be a Muslim, preferably a Shī‘a Iṭḥna-Asheri, adult, sane, and must know the rules of the Ghusl. If an intelligent, discerning boy or girl, who is not yet bāligh, gives the Ghusl correctly, then it will be sufficient. If the deceased belongs to a sect other than the Shī‘a Iṭḥna-Asheri, and if he (or she) is given Ghushl according to the rules of his (or her) sect by a person of that sect, then the Shī‘a Iṭḥna-Asheri believer will be relieved of the responsibility, except if he is the guardian.

Rule 58: One who gives Ghushl to the dead body must perform the act with the intention of Qurbat, that is, in obedience to the pleasure of Allāh ﷻ.

Rule 59: It is obligatory to give a Ghushl to a Muslim child, even one who is illegitimately born. But the Ghushl, Kafan, and Dafan of a non-Muslim and his children is not allowed. It is also necessary to give Ghushl to a Muslim who has been insane since child-hood and has grown up without having recovered.

Rule 60: If a fetus of four months or more is stillborn, then it is obligatory to give it Ghushl, and even if it has not yet completed four months, but it has formed the features of a human child, then it must be given Ghushl, as a precaution. In the event that both of these circumstances are absent, the fetus will be wrapped up in a cloth and buried without Ghushl.

Rule 61: It is unlawful for a man to give Ghushl to the dead body of a woman, and for a woman to give Ghushl to the dead body of a man. Husband and wife can however give Ghushl to the dead body of each other, although the recommended precaution is that they too must avoid doing so, in normal circumstances.

Rule 62: A man can give a Ghushl to the dead body of a little girl and similarly a woman can give a Ghushl to the dead body of a little boy.

Rule 63: If no man is available to give the Ghushl to the dead body of a man, then his kinswomen who are also his maḥram (one with whom marriage is prohibited e.g., mother, sister, paternal or maternal aunt) or those women who became his maḥram by way of marriage or suckling, can give Ghushl to his dead body. Similarly if no woman is available to give the Ghusl to the dead body of a woman, then her kinsmen who are also her maḥram or had become maḥram by marriage or suckling, can give Ghusl to her dead body. In either case, it is not obligatory to cover the body except the private parts; though doing so is recommended.

Rule 64: If a man gives the Ghusl to the dead body of a man, or a woman to the dead body of a woman, then it is permissible to keep the body bare, except for the private parts; however it is better to perform the Ghusl under the clothing.

Rule 65: It is Ḥarām to look at the private parts of a corpse, and if a person giving Ghusl looks at them, then he has committed a sin, but the Ghusl will not become void.

Rule 66: The plank or slab of stone on which the dead body is given the Ghusl, and the cloth with which his private parts are covered, and the hands of the person who gives the Ghusl and all things washed, along with the dead body become ṭāhir when the Ghusl is finished.

Rule 67: If there is a Najāsāt on any part of the dead body, then it is obligatory to remove it first before giving the Ghusl. Also, according to Iḥtiyāt Mustahab, before the corpse is given the Ghusl, it must be clean and free from all other impurities.

Rule 68: The Ghusl for a dead body is similar to the Ghusl for Janābah. And the obligatory precaution is that a corpse must not be given Ghusl by Irtīmāsī, that is, immersion, as long as it is possible to give Ghusl by way of Tartībī. And even in the case of Ghusl Tartībī, it is necessary that the body be washed on the right side first followed by the left side. And the recommended precaution is that if possible, none of the three parts of the body be immersed in the water, rather water must be poured on the dead body.

Rule 69: If someone dies in the state of Haīḍh or Janābah, then it is not necessary to give him or her their respective Ghusls, and the Ghusl given for the dead body will suffice.

Rule 70: As a precaution, it is Ḥarām to charge any fee for giving the Ghusl to the dead. If someone gives Ghusl with an intention of earning and without the intention of seeking nearness to Allāh, then the Ghusl will become void. However, it is lawful to charge for the preliminary preparations before the Ghusl.

Rule 71: There is no rule for Jabīrah in the Ghusl of the Mayyit, so if water is unavailable or there is some other valid excuse for abstaining from using water for the Ghusl, then the dead body must be given one Tayammum instead of Ghusl. As a recommended precaution, three Tayammum must be given, and in one of the Tayammum, there should be the intention of "مَا فِي ضَمَّةٍ". This means that a person performing the Tayammum resolves that this Tayammum is given to absolve him of his responsibility.

Rule 72: A person giving Tayammum to the dead body must strike his own palms on the earth and then wipe them on the face and back of the hands of the dead body. The obligatory precaution is that he must, if possible, use the hands of the deceased for Tayammum.

﴿Ghusl for Touching a Dead Body﴾

Rule 73: If a person touches the dead human body which has become cold and has not yet been given Ghusl (i.e. brings any part of his own body in contact with the deceased), then he must perform a Ghusl, regardless of whether he touched it while asleep or awake, voluntarily or otherwise. A Ghusl will also become Wājib if his nail or bone touches the nail or bone of the dead body. However, Ghusl is not obligatory if one touches a dead animal.

Rule 74: If someone touches a dead body which has not yet become entirely cold, then Ghusl will not be Wājib, even if the part that was touched has become cold.

Rule 75: If a person brings his hair in contact with the body of a deceased, or if his body touches the hair of the deceased, or if his hair touches the hair of the deceased, then Ghusl will not become obligatory.

Rule 76: If someone touches a dead child or a fetus in which life has entered into it, then the Ghusl for touching it will become obligatory. Hence, if a stillborn child, whose body has become cold, comes in contact with the outer part of the mother's body, then the mother must perform a Ghusl for touching the dead body. In fact, as an obligatory precaution, she must perform Ghusl even if the child did not touch the outer part of her body.

Rule 77: A child who is born after its mother has died, and her body has become cold, and if it touches any outer part of the mother's dead body, then it must do Ghusl on attaining the age of puberty. In fact, it must perform a Ghusl, even if it did not touch the mother's body, as a precaution.

Rule 78: If a person touches the dead body after it has been given three obligatory Ghusls, then the Ghusl for touching the body is not Wājib.

However, if he touches any part of the dead body before the completion of the three Ghusls, then he must perform a Ghusl for touching the dead body, even if the third Ghusl of that part which he has touched may have been completed.

Rule 79: If an insane person or a minor touches a dead body; then the insane person would perform the Ghusl when he becomes sane, and similarly the minor child would do Ghusl when he attains the age of puberty.

Rule 80: If a part (of the body) is separated from a living person, or from a dead body which has not yet been given the Ghusls, and a person touches that separated part, then one does not have to do any Ghusl even if that separated part contains bones.

Rule 81: It is not obligatory to perform a Ghusl for touching a separated bone which has not yet been given Ghusl, whether it has been separated from a dead body or a living person. The same rule applies to touching the teeth, which have been separated from a dead body or a living person.

Rule 82: The method of performing the Ghusl for touching the dead body is the same as that of Ghusl for Janābat. However, for a person who has done Ghusl for touching a dead body, the recommended precaution is that he must also perform Wudhu when he has to pray.

Rule 83: One Ghusl is sufficient for one who touches several corpses or touches the same corpse a number of times.

Rule 84: A person who has not yet performed a Ghusl after touching a dead body is not prohibited from halting or pausing in a Masjid, from having sexual intercourse with his spouse, or from reciting the verses of the Holy Qur'ān which contain an obligatory Sajdah. However, he must perform a Ghusl for offering prayers or for other similar acts of worship.

﴿Rules Regarding the Kafan﴾

Rule 85: The body of a dead Muslim must be given a Kafan with three pieces of cloth: a loincloth, a shirt or tunic, and a full cover.

Rule 86: As a precaution, the loin cloth must be long enough to cover the body from the navel to the knees, and it is better if it covers the body from the chest up to the feet. The Ma'zar (loin cloth) is approximately 60" × 54" (150cm × 135cm).

As a precaution, the covering sheet must be long enough to cover the entire body from the top of the shoulders up to the middle of the calf, and it is better still if it reaches down to the feet. The Qamīş (shirt) is approximately 36" × 110" (90cm × 275cm).

As a precaution, the covering sheet must be long enough to conceal the whole body, so that both of the ends can be tied. Its width should be enough to allow one side to overlap the other. The Izār (sheet cover) is approximately 60" × 90" (150cm × 225cm).

The following pieces are the Mustahab parts of the Kafan:

For the Male:

1. A piece of clothing to cover the private parts which must be long enough to wrap on the two thighs. The approximate size is 16" × 108" (40cm × 270cm).
2. An 'Amamā (Turban) to be placed on the head. The approximate size is 6" × 108" (15cm × 270cm).
3. A belt of cloth to be tied around the waist to hold the Ma'zar (loin cloth) in place.
4. A second sheet cover which is the same as the Wājib Izār and is used to secure the other pieces.

For the Female:

1. A piece of clothing to cover the private parts which must be long enough to wrap on the two thighs. The approximate size is 16" × 108" (40cm × 270cm).
2. A piece of clothing to cover the breasts. The approximate size is 12" × 90" (30cm × 225cm).
3. A piece of clothing that covers the head just as is worn in Ṣalāt. The approximate size is 25" × 55" (63cm × 140cm).
4. A belt of cloth to be tied around the waist to hold the Ma'zar (loin cloth) in place.
5. A second sheet cover which is the same as the Wājib Izār and is used to secure the other pieces.

Rule 87: The Wājib portion of the loin cloth is that which covers from the navel down to the knees, and the Wājib portion of the shirt is that which covers the shoulders down to the middle of the calf of the legs. whatever has been mentioned over and above this is the Mustahab part of the Kafan.

Rule 88: The Wājib amount of Kafan mentioned in the above rule should be financed from the estate of the deceased, and a reasonable amount to cover the Mustahab may also be charged to the estate if the status of the deceased demands. But as a recommended precaution, the Mustahab parts of Kafan must not be charged to the shares of the minor heirs.

Rule 89: If a person makes a will that the Mustahab quantity of the Kafan (as mentioned in the two foregoing rules) should be paid for from the $\frac{1}{3}$ of his estate, or if he has made a will that $\frac{2}{3}$ of the estate should be spent for himself but has not specified the type of its expenditure, or has specified only a part of it, then the Mustahab quantity of the Kafan can be taken from $\frac{1}{3}$ of the estate.

Rule 90: If the deceased has not made a will that the Kafan should be paid for from the $\frac{1}{3}$ of his estate and if the heirs wish to take it from the estate, then they must not draw more than what has been indicated in rule number 87. And if they purchased a Kafan, which is unusually expensive, then the extra amount paid for it must not be charged to the estate. However, if his Bāligh heirs agree to pay from their shares of the inheritance, then the sum can be deducted to the extent agreed.

Rule 91: The Kafan of a wife is the responsibility of her husband even if she has her own wealth. Similarly, if a woman is given a revocable divorce and she dies before the expiry of her Iddah, then her husband must provide her Kafan. If her husband is not adult or is insane, then the guardian of the husband must provide the Kafan for the wife from his (the guardian's) property.

Rule 92: It is not obligatory for the relatives of a deceased to provide the Kafan for him, even if they were his dependants during his lifetime.

Rule 93: As a precaution, it must be ensured that each of the three pieces used for the Kafan are not so thin as to show the body of the deceased. However, if the body is fully concealed when all the three pieces are put together, then it will suffice.

Rule 94: The Kafan for the deceased must not be a usurped one, that is, unlawfully appropriated. If nothing else but the usurped Kafan is available, then the body must be buried without a Kafan. In fact, the usurped Kafan must be removed even if the body has already been buried, except in some special situations, which will not be discussed here.

Rule 95: It is not permissible to give a Kafan, which is Najis, or made of pure silk, or which is woven with gold, except in the situation of helplessness when there is no alternative.

Rule 96: It is not permissible to give a Kafan made of the hide or skin of a dead, Najis animal, in normal circumstances. In fact, even the skin of a dead, ṭāhir animal, or Kafan made of the wool or fur from an animal whose meat is Ḥarām to eat must not be used in normal circumstances. (By the term 'dead' is meant an animal, which has not been slaughtered according to Shari'ah). But a Kafan made of wool, fur or skin of a slaughtered ḥalāl animal can be used for the purpose. However, it is a recommended precaution to avoid them as well.

Rule 97: If the Kafan becomes Najis owing to its own najāsah, or owing to some other najāsah, and if the Kafan is not lost totally, then its Najis part must be washed or cut off, even after the dead body has been placed into the grave. If it is not possible to wash it or cut it off, but it is possible to change it, then it must be changed.

Rule 98: If a person who is wearing the Iḥrām for Ḥajj or Umrah dies, he must be given the Kafan like all others and there is no harm in covering his head and face.

Rule 99: It is Mustahab that one keeps a Kafan, “Sidr” leaves and Camphor ready during one’s lifetime.

The Reward for Providing an Expensive, High Quality Kafan for the Deceased

۱. عَنْ أَحْمَدَ بْنِ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَيْسَى يَرْفَعُهُ إِلَى أَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) قَالَ أَجِيدُوا أَكْفَانَ مَوْتَاكُمْ فَإِنَّهَا زِينَتُهُمْ.

1. Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad ibn ‘Isā relates that Abī ‘Abdillāh (Peace be upon him) said, “Prepare good quality Kafans for your deceased since it (the Kafan) is a beauty for him.” (Thawāb al-A‘māl, Page 437)

۲. عَنْ أَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) قَالَ أَوْصَانِي أَبِي (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) بِكَفَنِيهِ وَقَالَ لِي يَا جَعْفَرُ اشْتَرِ لِي بَرْدًا وَجُودَةً فَإِنَّ الْمَوْتَى يَتَبَاهَوْنَ بِأَكْفَانِهِمْ.

2. In another ḥadīth from Abī ‘Abdillāh (Peace be upon him), he is reported to have said, “My father (Imām Bāqir (Peace be upon him)) recommended me that I should provide a (good) Kafan for him, since the deceased will have pride over one another according to the type of Kafan that they have.” (Wasā’il al-Shī’a, Volume 3, Page 40)

The Reward for the One who Gives a Believer a Kafan

١. عَنْ أَبِي جَعْفَرٍ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) قَالَ: مَنْ كَفَّنَ مُؤْمِنًا كَانَ كَمَنْ ضَمِنَ كَسْوَتَهُ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ.

1. Abī Ja'far (Peace be upon him) said, "Someone who takes upon the responsibility of purchasing and giving a Believer a Kafan is just as the person who took the responsibility of clothing that person until the Day of Resurrection." (Wasā'il al-Shi'a, Volume 3, Page 148)

٢. عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ فِي حَدِيثٍ وَقَاةِ فَاطِمَةَ بِنْتِ أَسَدٍ أُمِّ أَمِيرِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) قَالَ:
قَالَ النَّبِيُّ (ﷺ) لِعَلِيِّ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) خُذْ عِمَامَتِي هَذِهِ وَخُذْ ثَوْبِي هَذَيْنِ فَكْفِنَهَا فِيهِمَا وَامُرِ

2. 'Abdillāh ibn 'Abbās said, "When Fāṭimah bint al-Asad, the mother of Amīr al-Mo'minīn (Peace be upon him) left the world, the Prophet (Peace be upon him and his family) told 'Alī, 'Take my 'Amāmah and shirt and use them as a Kafan for your mother and tell the women to give her a proper Ghusl'." (Wasā'il al-Shi'a, Volume 3, Page 148)

﴿Rules of the Hunūt﴾

Rule 100: After having given Ghushl to the dead body, it is Wājib to perform Hunūt - which means to apply Camphor on its forehead, both the palms, both the knees and both the big toes of the deceased's feet. It is not necessary to rub the Camphor, but it must be visible on those parts. It is Mustahab to apply Camphor to the tip of the nose also. The Camphor must be powdered and fresh, and if it is so stale that it has lost its fragrance, then it will not suffice.

Rule 101: The Ihtiyāt Mustahab is that the Camphor should first be applied on the forehead of the deceased. It is not necessary to observe sequence while applying the Camphor to other parts mentioned above.

Rule 102: It is better that Hunūt is applied before the Kafan, although there is no harm in giving Hunūt during Kafan or even after it.

Rule 103: It is not permissible to apply Hunūt to a person who died in the state of Ihram for 'Umrah and Hajj, except in circumstances explained in rule number 55.

Rule 104: Although it is Hāram for a woman to perfume herself if her husband has died and she is in her 'Iddah, but if she dies while in 'Iddah, then it is Wājib to give her Hunūt.

Rule 105: According to Ihtiyāt Mustahab, perfumes like musk, ambergris and aloes-wood ('ūd) should not be applied to the dead body, and neither should these things be mixed with the Camphor.

Rule 106: It is Mustahab to mix a small amount of Turbah (soil of the land around the shrine of Imām al-Husayn (Peace be upon him)) with the Camphor, but it should not be applied to those parts of the body where its use may imply any disrespect. It is also necessary that the quantity of Turbah is not so much, such that the identity of the Camphor changes.

Rule 107: If Camphor is not available or the quantity available is just sufficient for the Ghusl only, then it is not Wājib to apply Hunūt. If it is in excess of the requirement for Ghusl, but is not sufficient for administering Hunūt to all the parts, then as a recommended precaution, the Camphor will be applied on the forehead of the dead body first and if any remains, it can be applied to the other parts.

Rule 108: It is also Mustahab that two pieces of fresh, green twigs are placed in the grave with the dead body.

This action is referred to as the Jarīda, and it is necessary that the fresh twigs, which are cut from a tree, are without leaves. A lot of emphasis has been given by our A'immaḥ (Peace be upon them) to place the Jarīda on both sides of the dead body. The reason given is that as long as the twigs remain green, the body will be spared from the squeezing in the grave.

Preference is given to the twigs of date palms. If that is not available, then the twigs from a pomegranate tree, and if this too is not available, then from any other tree. The twigs should be of arms length and the name of the dead person together with his testimony to the Oneness of Allāh ﷻ and the Prophethood of our Prophet (Peace be upon him and his family) and the A'immaḥ (Peace be upon them), should be inscribed on them.

The twig on the right side should touch the armpit while the one on the left side should be kept above the armpit. The sheet should then be wrapped around the body.

﴿Rules of Ṣalātul Mayyit﴾

Rule 109: It is Wājib to offer Ṣalātul Mayyit for every Muslim, as well as for a Muslim child, if it has completed 6 years.

Rule 110: If a child has not completed 6 years, but it was a discerning child who knew what Ṣalāt was, then according to Iḥtiyāt Wājib, Ṣalātul Mayyit must be offered for it. If it was not aware about Ṣalāt, then the prayers may be offered with the intention of 'Raja'. However, to offer Ṣalātul Mayyit for a still born child is not even Mustahab.

Rule 111: Ṣalātul Mayyit must be offered after the dead body has been given Ghusl, Hunūt and Kafan; and if it is offered before or during the performance of these acts, then it does not suffice, even if it is due to forgetfulness or on account of not knowing the rule.

Rule 112: It is not necessary for a person who offers Ṣalātul Mayyit to be in Wuḍhu, Ghusl or Tayammum, nor is it necessary that his body and dress be Ṭāhir. In fact there is no harm even if his dress is a usurped one. However, it is better that while offering this Ṣalāt one should observe all the formal rules which one normally observed in other prayers.

Rule 113: One who offers Ṣalātul Mayyit must face the Qiblah, and it is also obligatory that at the time of Ṣalātul Mayyit, the dead body remains on his back in front of the one reciting Ṣalāt in such a manner him that the deceased's head is on his right and the feet are on his left side.

Rule 114: According to Iḥtiyāt Mustahab, the place where one stands to offer Ṣalātul Mayyit should not be a usurped one. Also, it must not be higher or lower than the place where the dead body is kept; however, if it is a little higher or lower then it is not a problem.

Rule 115: The person offering Ṣalātul Mayyit should not be far away from the dead body. However, if he is praying in congregation, then there is no harm if he is distant from the dead body but in the rows which are connected to each other.

Rule 116: In Ṣalātul Mayyit, one who offers prayers should stand in such a way that the dead body is in front of him, except if the Ṣalāt is prayed in Jama'at and the lines extend beyond on both sides, in which case praying away from the dead body will not be a problem.

Rule 117: According to Iḥtiyāt Wājib, there must be no curtain, wall, or any other obstruction between the dead body and the person offering Ṣalātul Mayyit. However, there is no harm if the dead body is in a coffin or in sometime similar to this.

Rule 118: The private parts of the dead body must be concealed when Ṣalātul Mayyit is being offered. Even if it was not possible to give a Kafan, the private parts must still be covered with a board, brick, or something similar to this.

Rule 119: A person must be standing while offering Ṣalātul Mayyit and should offer it with the intention of Qurbat [seeking nearness to Allāh ﷻ], specifying the deceased for whom one is praying. For example, one should make an intention such as: “I am offering Ṣalāt for this deceased for the pleasure of Allāh.”

Rule 120: If there is no one who is capable of praying Ṣalātul Mayyit while standing, then it can be offered sitting.

Rule 121: If the deceased had made a will that a particular person should lead the prayers, then according to Iḥtiyāt Mustahab, that person should take permission from the guardian of the deceased (to lead the Ṣalāt).

Rule 122: It is Makrūh to repeat Ṣalātul Mayyit a number of times, unless the deceased was an ‘Ālim and pious one, in which case it is not Makrūh.

Rule 123: If a dead body is buried without the Ṣalātul Mayyit - whether it be intentionally or due to forgetfulness, on account of an excuse, or if it transpires after its burial that the prayer offered for it was void - then it is not permissible to dig up the grave for praying Ṣalātul Mayyit. However, there is no objection to praying with the intention of ‘Raja’ by the graveside, if one feels that the decay (of the body) has not yet taken place.

The Reward for Reciting Ṣalātul Mayyit

١. جَاءَ نَفَرٌ مِنَ الْيَهُودِ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ (ﷺ) فَسَأَلُوهُ عَنْ مَسَائِلَ إِلَى أَنْ قَالَ (ﷺ) وَمَا مِنْ مُؤْمِنٍ يُصَلِّي عَلَى الْجَنَائِزِ إِلَّا أُوجِبَ اللَّهُ لَهُ الْجَنَّةَ، إِلَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ مُنَافِقًا أَوْ عَاقًا.

1. A group of Jews once came to the Messenger of Allāh (Peace be upon him and his family) and asked various questions. He (Peace be upon him and his family) replied, “Anytime a true believer prays over a deceased person, Allāh ﷻ makes paradise obligatory on that person as long as he (the one reciting the Ṣalātul Mayyit) was not a hypocrite nor one who broke off ties with his parents (since in these instances, the Ṣalātul Mayyit, with all its benefits and rewards, will be of absolute no use to him).” (Wasā’il al-Shi’a, Volume 3, Page 65)

The Reason why Ṣalātul Mayyit has Five Takbīr

١. عَنْ أَبِي بَصِيرٍ قَالَ: قُلْتُ لِأَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) لِأَيِّ عِلَّةٍ نُكَبِّرُ عَلَى الْمَيِّتِ خَمْسَ تَكْبِيرَاتٍ، وَيُكَبَّرُ مُحَالِفُونَا بِأَرْبَعٍ تَكْبِيرَاتٍ؟ قَالَ: لِأَنَّ الدَّعَاءَ الَّتِي بُنِيَ عَلَيْهَا الْإِسْلَامُ خَمْسٌ: الصَّلَاةُ وَالزَّكَاةُ وَالصَّوْمُ وَالْحَجُّ وَالْوَلَايَةُ لَنَا أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ، فَجَعَلَ اللَّهُ لِلْمَيِّتِ مِنْ كُلِّ دَعَاةٍ تَكْبِيرَةً، وَإِنَّكُمْ أَقْرَبْتُمْ بِالْخَمْسِ كُلِّهَا، وَأَقْرَبَ مُحَالِفُوكُمْ بِأَرْبَعٍ وَأَنْكِرُوا وَاحِدَةً، فَمِنْ ذَلِكَ يُكَبِّرُونَ عَلَى مَوْتَاهُمْ أَرْبَعَ تَكْبِيرَاتٍ، وَتُكَبِّرُونَ خَمْسًا.

1. It has been narrated from Abū Baṣīr that once he asked Imām as-Ṣādiq (Peace be upon him) why the Shi’a recite five Takbīrs in Ṣalātul Mayyit while the Sunnis only say four? The Imām replied, “Since Islām is built on five strong pillars, which include: Ṣalāt, Zakāt, Saum (Fasting), Ḥajj and the Wilāyat of us, the Ahl al-Bāit; therefore, Allāh ﷻ designated that one Takbīr be recited for each of these pillars (of the religion), and our Shī‘a, have confirmed their belief in each of these five pillars of Islām, while those who are opposed to us, they do not believe in our Wilāyat, the fifth pillar; thus they only recite four Takbīr and you recite five.” (Wasā’il al-Shī‘a, Volume 3, Page 77)

﴿Method of Ṣalātul Mayyit﴾

Rule 124: There are 5 takbîr (saying of: اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ) in Ṣalātul Mayyit and it is sufficient if a person recites the 5 takbîr in the following manner:

After making the intention to offer the prayers and reciting the 1st takbîr, one would say:

أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَأَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ

(I bear witness that there is no god but Allāh and that Muḥammad is Allāh's Messenger)

After the 2nd takbîr one would say:

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ

(O' Allāh! Bestow Peace and blessings upon Muḥammad and his family)

After the 3rd takbîr one would say:

اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ

(O' Allāh! Forgive the believing men and believing women)

After the 4th takbîr one would say:

اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِهَذَا الْمَيِّتِ

(O' Allāh! Forgive this deceased male)

If the deceased is a woman, one should say:

اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِهَذِهِ الْمَيِّتِ

(O' Allāh! Forgive this deceased female)

Thereafter one should recite the 5th takbîr.

Ṣalātul Mayyit for a Deceased Muslim Man

It is better that after the first takbîr, the following be recited:

أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ، وَأَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ، أُرْسَلَهُ بِالْحَقِّ

“I bear witness that there is no god except Allāh, the One who has no partner, and I bear witness that Muḥammad is His servant and His Messenger - whom He sent with the Truth, a giver of good tidings and a Warner of the Hour before us.”

After the 2nd takbîr:

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَارْحَمْ مُحَمَّدًا وَآلَ مُحَمَّدٍ،
كَأَفْضَلِ مَا صَلَّيْتَ وَبَارَكْتَ وَتَرَحَّمْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَآلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ، وَصَلِّ عَلَى
جَمِيعِ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ وَالْمُرْسَلِينَ وَالشُّهَدَاءِ وَالصِّدِّيقِينَ وَجَمِيعِ عِبَادِ اللَّهِ الصَّالِحِينَ

“O’ Allāh send peace on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad and (send) blessings on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad and have mercy on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad in the same way that you send your peace and blessings and mercy on Ibrāhīm and the family of Ibrāhīm. Verily You are the Praised and Glorious and send your peace on all the Prophets and Guides and Witnesses and the Truthful ones and upon all of the righteous servants of Allāh.”

After the 3rd takbîr:

بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَهُمْ بِالْخَيْرَاتِ، إِنَّكَ مُجِيبُ الدَّعَوَاتِ، إِنَّكَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

“O’ Allāh, forgive the male believers and the female believers, the male Muslims and the female Muslims, those of them who are living and those who have passed away. Verily You are the Answerer of the supplications, and verily You have power over everything.”

After the 4th takbîr:

نَعْلَمُ مِنْهُ إِلَّا خَيْرًا، وَأَنْتَ أَعْلَمُ بِهِ مِنَّا، اللَّهُمَّ إِنْ كَانَ مُحْسِنًا فَزِدْ فِي إِحْسَانِهِ، وَإِنْ كَانَ مُسِيئًا
فَتَجَاوَزْ عَنْهُ وَاعْفِرْ لَهُ، اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْهُ عِنْدَكَ فِي أَعْلَى عِلِّيِّينَ، وَاحْلُفْ عَلَى أَهْلِهِ فِي الْعَاثِرِينَ،
وَارْحَمْهُ بِرَحْمَتِكَ يَا أَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِينَ

“O’ Allāh, this is Your servant, son of Your male servant and Your female servant coming to You and You are the best One to come to. O’ Allāh, surely we know nothing of him except good and You know him better than we. O’ Allāh, if he was good, then increase his goodness, and if he was bad, then disregard (his bad deeds) and forgive him. O’ Allāh place him with You in the highest springs of heaven; appoint for him a successor in the post time; have mercy upon him by Your mercy, O’ the Most Merciful of those having Mercy.”

The 5th takbîr should then be recited.

Ṣalātul Mayyit for a Deceased Muslim Woman

After the first takbîr, the following should be recited:

أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ، وَأَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ، أُرْسَلَهُ بِالْحَقِّ

“I bear witness that there is no god except Allāh, the One who has no partner, and I bear witness that Muḥammad is His servant and His Messenger - whom He sent with the Truth, a giver of good tidings and a Warner of the Hour before us.”

After the 2nd takbîr:

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَارْحَمْ مُحَمَّدًا وَآلَ مُحَمَّدٍ،
كَأَفْضَلِ مَا صَلَّيْتَ وَبَارَكْتَ وَتَرَحَّمْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَآلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُجِيدٌ، وَصَلِّ عَلَى
جَمِيعِ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ وَالْمُرْسَلِينَ وَالشُّهَدَاءِ وَالصِّدِّيقِينَ وَجَمِيعِ عِبَادِ اللَّهِ الصَّالِحِينَ

“O’ Allāh send peace on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad and (send) blessings on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad and have mercy on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad in the same way that you send your peace and blessings and mercy on Ibrāhīm and the family of Ibrāhīm. Verily You are the Praised and Glorious and send your peace on all the Prophets and Guides and Witnesses and the Truthful ones and upon all of the righteous servants of Allāh.”

After the 3rd takbîr:

بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَهُمْ بِالْخَيْرَاتِ، إِنَّكَ مُجِيبُ الدَّعَوَاتِ، إِنَّكَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

“O’ Allāh, forgive the male believers and the female believers, the male Muslims and the female Muslims, those of them who are living and those who have passed away. Verily You are the Answerer of the supplications, and verily You have power over everything.”

After the 4th takbîr:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّ هَذِهِ أَمَّتُكَ وَابْنَةُ عَبْدِكَ وَابْنَةُ أَمَّتِكَ، نَزَلَتْ بِكَ وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ مَنْزُولٍ بِهَا، اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّا لَا

نَعْلَمُ مِنْهَا إِلَّا خَيْرًا، وَأَنْتَ أَعْلَمُ بِهَا مِنَّا، اللَّهُمَّ إِنْ كَانَتْ مُحْسِنَةً فَزِدْ فِي إِحْسَانِهَا، وَإِنْ كَانَتْ
مُسيئَةً فَتَجَاوَزْ عَنْهَا وَاعْفِرْ لَهَا، اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْهَا عِنْدَكَ فِي أَعْلَى عِلِّيِّينَ، وَاخْلُفْ عَلَى أَهْلِهَا فِي
الْغَابِرِينَ، وَارْحَمْهَا بِرَحْمَتِكَ يَا أَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِينَ

“O’ Allāh, this is Your servant, daughter of Your male servant and Your female servant coming to You and You are the best One to come to. O’ Allāh, surely we know nothing of her except good and You know her better than we. O’ Allāh, if she was good, then increase her goodness, and if she was bad, then disregard (her bad deeds) and forgive her. O’ Allāh place her with You in the highest springs of heaven; appoint for her a successor in the post time; have mercy upon her by Your mercy, O’ the Most Merciful of those having Mercy.”

The 5th takbîr should then be recited.

Ṣalātul Mayyit for a Deceased Muslim who was a Fāsiq¹

After the first takbîr, the following should be recited:

أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ، وَأَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ، أُرْسِلَهُ بِالْحَقِّ

“I bear witness that there is no god except Allāh, the One who has no partner, and I bear witness that Muḥammad is His servant and His Messenger - whom He sent with the Truth, a giver of good tidings and a Warner of the Hour before us.”

After the 2nd takbîr:

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَارْحَمْ مُحَمَّدًا وَآلَ مُحَمَّدٍ،
كَأَفْضَلِ مَا صَلَّيْتَ وَبَارَكْتَ وَتَرَحَّمْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَآلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ، وَصَلِّ عَلَى
جَمِيعِ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ وَالْمُرْسَلِينَ وَالشُّهَدَاءِ وَالصِّدِّيقِينَ وَجَمِيعِ عِبَادِ اللَّهِ الصَّالِحِينَ

“O’ Allāh send peace on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad and (send) blessings on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad and have mercy on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad in the same way that you send your peace and blessings and mercy on Ibrāhīm and the family of Ibrāhīm. Verily You are the Praised and Glorious and send your peace on all the Prophets and Guides and Witnesses and the Truthful ones and upon all of the righteous servants of Allāh.”

After the 3rd takbîr:

بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَهُمْ بِالْخَيْرَاتِ، إِنَّكَ مُجِيبُ الدَّعَوَاتِ، إِنَّكَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

“O’ Allāh, forgive the male believers and the female believers, the male Muslims and the female Muslims, those of them who are living and those who have passed away. Verily You are the Answerer of the supplications, and verily You have power over everything.”

1 In Islāmic terminology, a Fāsiq is one who openly committed the major sins (those sins which have been mentioned in the Qur’ān and whose punishment has been promised.)

After the 4th takbîr (If the Deceased is a Male):

اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّ هَذَا عَبْدُكَ وَابْنُ عَبْدِكَ وَابْنُ أُمَّتِكَ، نَزَلَ بِكَ وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ مَنْزُولٍ بِهِ، اللَّهُمَّ أَنْتَ
أَعْلَمُ بِهِ مِنَّا، اللَّهُمَّ إِنْ كَانَ مُحْسِنًا فَزِدْ فِي إِحْسَانِهِ، وَإِنْ كَانَ مُسِيئًا فَتَجَاوَزْ عَنْهُ وَاعْفِرْ لَهُ،
اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْهُ عِنْدَكَ فِي أَعْلَى عِلِّيِّينَ، وَاخْلُفْ عَلَى أَهْلِهِ فِي الْغَابِرِينَ، وَارْحَمْهُ بِرَحْمَتِكَ يَا
أَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِينَ

“O’ Allāh, this is Your servant, son of Your male servant and Your female servant coming to You and You are the best One to come to. O’ Allāh, You know him better than we. O’ Allāh, if he was good, then increase his goodness, and if he was bad, then disregard (his bad deeds) and forgive him. O’ Allāh place him with You in the highest springs of heaven; appoint for him a successor in the post time; have mercy upon him by Your mercy, O’ the Most Merciful of those having Mercy.”

After the 4th takbîr (If the Deceased is a Female):

اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّ هَذِهِ أُمَّتُكَ وَابْنَتُ عَبْدِكَ وَابْنَتُ أُمَّتِكَ، نَزَلَتْ بِكَ وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ مَنْزُولٍ بِهَا، اللَّهُمَّ أَنْتَ
أَعْلَمُ بِهَا مِنَّا، اللَّهُمَّ إِنْ كَانَتْ مُحْسِنَةً فَزِدْ فِي إِحْسَانِهَا، وَإِنْ كَانَتْ مُسِيئَةً فَتَجَاوَزْ عَنْهَا
وَاعْفِرْ لَهَا، اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْهَا عِنْدَكَ فِي أَعْلَى عِلِّيِّينَ، وَاخْلُفْ عَلَى أَهْلِهَا فِي الْغَابِرِينَ، وَارْحَمْهَا
بِرَحْمَتِكَ يَا أَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِينَ

“O’ Allāh, this is Your servant, daughter of Your male servant and Your female servant coming to You and You are the best One to come to. O’ Allāh, You know her better than we. O’ Allāh, if she was good, then increase her goodness, and if she was bad, then disregard (her bad deeds) and forgive her. O’ Allāh place her with You in the highest springs of heaven; appoint for her a successor in the post time; have mercy upon her by Your mercy, O’ the Most Merciful of those having Mercy.”

The 5th takbîr should then be recited.

Ṣalātul Mayyit for the Mustadaḥaf

One of the divisions of the Ṣalātul Mayyit is the Ṣalāt for the Mustadaḥaf. In the Aḥādīth, it has been narrated that a Mustadaḥaf is one who does not have the power or ability to distinguish between right and wrong - meaning he or she had no way to follow the right path or to go towards disbelief. In regards to this, we present a ḥadīth from Imām Muḥammad al-Bāqir (Peace be upon him) in which he describes who the Mustadaḥaf are:

١. عَنْ زُرَّارَةَ قَالَ: سَأَلْتُ أَبَا جَعْفَرٍ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) عَنِ الْمُسْتَضْعَفِ فَقَالَ: هُوَ الَّذِي لَا يَهْتَدِي حِيلَةً إِلَى الْكُفْرِ فَيَكْفُرَ وَلَا يَهْتَدِي سَبِيلًا إِلَى الْإِيمَانِ، لَا يَسْتَطِيعُ أَنْ يُؤْمِنَ وَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُ أَنْ يَكْفُرَ، فَهُمْ الصَّبِيَّانُ، وَمَنْ كَانَ مِنَ الرِّجَالِ وَالتِّسَاءِ عَلَى مَثَلِ عَقُولِ الصَّبِيَّانِ مَرْفُوعٌ عَنْهُمْ الْقَلَمُ.

1. Zurārah said: “I asked Abā Ja’far (Imām Muḥammad al-Bāqir (Peace be upon him)) concerning the Mustadaḥaf, and he (Peace be upon him) said, “He is one who does not have the power of thinking so as to become a Kāfir; (nor does he have the power of thinking) to accept the faith (and become a Believer) - meaning he does not have the ability to become either a believer or disbeliever. These people include children, and any man or woman whose wisdom or intellect is like that of a child. (Thus), the responsibility is lifted from them.” (Ūsūl al-Kāfi, Volume 4, Page 126)

After the 1st takbîr, the following should be recited:

أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ، وَأَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ، أَرْسَلَهُ بِالْحَقِّ بَشِيرًا وَنَذِيرًا بَيْنَ يَدَيْ السَّاعَةِ.

“I bear witness that there is no god except Allāh, the One who has no partner, and I bear witness that Muḥammad is His servant and His Messenger - whom He sent with the Truth, a giver of good tidings and a Warner of the Hour before us.”

After the 2nd takbîr:

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَارْحَمْ مُحَمَّدًا وَآلَ مُحَمَّدٍ،

كَأَفْضَلِ مَا صَلَّيْتَ وَبَارَكْتَ وَتَرَحَّمْتَ عَلَىٰ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَآلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُّحَمَّدٌ، وَصَلِّ عَلَىٰ
 جَمِيعِ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ وَالْمُرْسَلِينَ وَالشَّهَدَاءِ وَالصَّادِقِينَ وَجَمِيعِ عِبَادِ اللَّهِ الصَّالِحِينَ

“O’ Allāh send peace on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad and (send) blessings on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad and have mercy on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad in the same way that you send your peace and blessings and mercy on Ibrāhīm and the family of Ibrāhīm. Verily You are the Praised and Glorious and send your peace on all the Prophets and Guides and Witnesses and the Truthful ones and upon all of the righteous servants of Allāh.”

After the 3rd takbîr:

 بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَهُمْ بِالْخَيْرَاتِ، إِنَّكَ مُجِيبُ الدَّعَوَاتِ، إِنَّكَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

“O’ Allāh, forgive the male believers and the female believers, the male Muslims and the female Muslims, those of them who are living and those who have passed away. Verily You are the Answerer of the supplications, and verily You have power over everything.”

After the 4th takbîr:

 الَّتِي وَعَدْتَهُمْ وَمَنْ صَلَحَ مِنْ آبَائِهِمْ وَأَزْوَاجِهِمْ وَذُرِّيَّاتِهِمْ، إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ

“O’ Allāh! Forgive those who ask for forgiveness and those who follow Your path and protect them from the punishment of the Hell fire. O’ Our Lord, cause them to enter into the Paradise that You have promised them and (also those) among their forefathers, spouses and their children who are righteous. Verily You are the Noble and Wise.”

The 5th takbîr should then be recited.

Ṣalātul Mayyit for a Deceased Child¹

After the first takbîr, the following should be recited:

أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ، وَأَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ، أُرْسَلَهُ بِالْحَقِّ

“I bear witness that there is no god except Allāh, the One who has no partner, and I bear witness that Muḥammad is His servant and His Messenger - whom He sent with the Truth, a giver of good tidings and a Warner of the Hour before us.”

After the 2nd takbîr:

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَارْحَمْ مُحَمَّدًا وَآلَ مُحَمَّدٍ،
كَأَفْضَلِ مَا صَلَّيْتَ وَبَارَكْتَ وَتَرَحَّمْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَآلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُجِيدٌ، وَصَلِّ عَلَى
جَمِيعِ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ وَالْمُرْسَلِينَ وَالشُّهَدَاءِ وَالصِّدِّيقِينَ وَجَمِيعِ عِبَادِ اللَّهِ الصَّالِحِينَ

“O’ Allāh send peace on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad and (send) blessings on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad and have mercy on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad in the same way that you send your peace and blessings and mercy on Ibrāhīm and the family of Ibrāhīm. Verily You are the Praised and Glorious and send your peace on all the Prophets and Guides and Witnesses and the Truthful ones and upon all of the righteous servants of Allāh.”

After the 3rd takbîr:

بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَهُمْ بِالْخَيْرَاتِ، إِنَّكَ مُجِيبُ الدَّعَوَاتِ، إِنَّكَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

“O’ Allāh, forgive the male believers and the female believers, the male Muslims and the female Muslims, those of them who are living and those who have passed away. Verily You are the Answerer of the supplications, and verily You have power over everything.”

1 A child who passed away before he became Bāligh.

After the 4th takbîr (if the child was a boy):

اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْهُ لِأَبَوَيْهِ وَلِنَا سَلَفًا وَفَرَطًا وَأَجْرًا

“O’ Allāh, let this boy be a good company (when we pass away), example and reward for his parents and for us.”

After the 4th takbîr (if the child was a girl):

اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْهَا لِأَبَوَيْهَا وَلِنَا سَلَفًا وَفَرَطًا وَأَجْرًا

“O’ Allāh, let this girl be a good company (when we pass away), example and reward for his parents and for us.”

The 5th takbîr should then be recited.

Ṣalātul Mayyit for a Deceased Person who was a “Majhūl al-Ḥāl”

One of the other types of Ṣalātul Mayyit covered in the Fiqh of Islām is known as the Ṣalātul Mayyit Majhūl al-Ḥāl. This type of Ṣalāt refers to a person who is found dead somewhere, be it in the streets or in the countryside, etc. and it is not known whether the deceased one was a Muslim or a Kāfir. In this event, the Ṣalātul Mayyit would be recited as follows:

أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ، وَأَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ، أُرْسَلَهُ بِالْحَقِّ

After the first takbîr, the following should be recited:

أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ إِهَاءً وَاحِدًا أَحَدًا صَمَدًا فَرْدًا حَيًّا قَيُومًا دَائِمًا أَبَدًا
لَمْ يَتَّخِذْ صَاحِبَةً وَلَا وُلْدًا، وَأَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ، أُرْسَلَهُ بِالْهُدَى وَدِينِ الْحَقِّ لِيُظْهِرَهُ
عَلَى الدِّينِ كُلِّهِ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْمُشْرِكُونَ

“I bear witness that there is no god except for Allāh, the One who has no partners, The God, The One, The Single, The Everlasting, The Individual, The Living, The Everliving, The Continous, The One who is forever - He has not taken a partner or a child (for himself). And I bear witness that Muḥammad is His Slave and His Prophet, the one whom He sent with the guidance and the True Religion so that it may prevail over all other religions even though the polytheists may detest it.”

After the 2nd takbîr:

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَارْحَمْ مُحَمَّدًا وَآلَ مُحَمَّدٍ،
كَأَفْضَلِ مَا صَلَّيْتَ وَبَارَكْتَ وَتَرَحَّمْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَآلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُجِيدٌ، وَصَلِّ عَلَى
جَمِيعِ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ وَالْمُرْسَلِينَ وَالشَّهَدَاءِ وَالصَّادِقِينَ وَجَمِيعِ عِبَادِ اللَّهِ الصَّالِحِينَ

“O’ Allāh send peace on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad and (send) blessings on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad and have mercy on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad in the same way that you send your peace and blessings and mercy on Ibrāhīm and the family of Ibrāhīm. Verily You are the Praised and Glorious and send your peace on all the Prophets and Guides and Witnesses and the Truthful ones and upon all of the righteous servants of Allāh.”

After the 3rd takbîr:

اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ وَالْمُسْلِمِينَ وَالْمُسْلِمَاتِ، الْأَحْيَاءِ مِنْهُمْ وَالْأَمْوَاتِ، تَابِعْ
بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَهُمْ بِالْخَيْرَاتِ، إِنَّكَ مُجِيبُ الدَّعَوَاتِ، إِنَّكَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

“O’ Allāh, forgive the male believers and the female believers, the male Muslims and the female Muslims, those of them who are living and those who have passed away. Verily You are the Answerer of the supplications, and verily You have power over everything.”

After the 4th takbîr (if the deceased was a Male):

نَعْلَمُ مِنْهُ إِلَّا خَيْرًا، وَأَنْتَ أَعْلَمُ بِهِ مِنَّا، اللَّهُمَّ إِنْ كَانَ مُحْسِنًا فَزِدْ فِي إِحْسَانِهِ، وَإِنْ كَانَ مُسِيئًا
وَارْحَمْهُ بِرَحْمَتِكَ يَا أَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِينَ

“O’ Allāh, this is Your servant, son of Your male servant and Your female servant coming to You and You are the best One to come to. O’ Allāh, surely we know nothing of him except good and You know better of him than we. O’ Allāh, if he was good, then increase his goodness, and if he was bad, then disregard (his bad deeds) and forgive him. O’ Allāh place him with You in the highest of the springs of heaven; appoint for him a successor in the post time; have mercy upon him by Your mercy, O’ the Most Merciful of those having Mercy.”

After the 4th takbîr (if the deceased was a Female):

اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّ هَذِهِ أُمَّتُكَ وَابْنَتُكَ عَبْدُكَ وَابْنَةُ أُمَّتِكَ، نَزَلَتْ بِكَ وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ مَنْزُولٍ بِهَا، اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّا لَا
نَعْلَمُ مِنْهَا إِلَّا خَيْرًا، وَأَنْتَ أَعْلَمُ بِهَا مِنَّا، اللَّهُمَّ إِنْ كَانَتْ مُحْسِنَةً فَزِدْ فِي إِحْسَانِهَا، وَإِنْ كَانَتْ
مُسِيئَةً فَتَجَاوَزْ عَنْهَا وَاعْفِرْ لَهَا، اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْهَا عِنْدَكَ فِي أَعْلَى عِلِّيِّينَ، وَاخْلُفْ عَلَى أَهْلِهَا فِي
الْعَابِرِينَ، وَارْحَمْهَا بِرَحْمَتِكَ يَا أَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِينَ

“O’ Allāh, this is Your servant, daughter of Your male servant and Your female servant coming to You and You are the best One to come to. O’ Allāh, surely we know nothing of her except good and You know her better than we. O’ Allāh, if she was good, then increase her goodness, and if she was bad, then disregard (her bad deeds) and forgive her. O’ Allāh place her with You in the highest springs of heaven; appoint for her a successor in the post time; have mercy upon her by Your mercy, O’ the Most Merciful of those having Mercy.”

The 5th takbîr should then be recited.

Rule 125: A person offering prayers for the dead body must recite all of the takbîr and supplications in a sequence, such that the Şalātul Mayyit does not lose its form.

Rule 126: A person who joins the Şalātul Mayyit to follow an Imām must recite all the takbîr and supplications.

﴿Mustahab Acts of Ṣalātul Mayyit﴾

Rule 127: The following acts are Mustahab in the Ṣalāt for the dead body:

- The people who offers the Ṣalāt for the dead body should have had performed Ghusl, Wuḍhu or Tayammum. According to Iḥtiyāt, he should perform Tayammum only when it is not possible to perform Ghusl or Wuḍhu, or if he fears that if he leaves to perform Ghusl or Wuḍhu it will not be possible for him to participate in the prayers.
- If the dead body is that of a male, then the Imām or the person who is offering the prayers alone should stand at the middle part of the dead body. However, if the dead body is that of a female then he should stand at the chest of the dead body.
- To pray bare-footed.
- To raise one's hands (up to the ears) while reciting every takbîr.
- The distance between the person offering prayers and the dead body should be so short that, when if the wind blows, then the dress of the person offering the prayers would touch the coffin (or dead body).
- To pray in congregation.
- For the Imām to recite the takbîr and supplications loudly and those offering the prayers with him to recite them in a low voice.
- If there is only one person joining the Ṣalātul Mayyit being offered in Jama'at, then he would stand behind the Imām.
- One who offers the prayers should sincerely and persistently pray for the deceased as well as for all the believers.
- Before the commencement of the congregational prayers for the dead body, one should say (الصَّلَاةُ) three times.
- The prayers should be offered at a place where people often go for Ṣalātul Mayyit.
- If a Hāidh (woman who is menstruating) participates in the congregational prayers for the deceased, then she should stand alone and not join the lines.

Rule 128: It is Makrūh to perform prayers for the deceased in Masjids, except in Masjidul Ḥarām.

The Reward for Taking Part in the Burial Ceremony

One of the rules pertaining to the deceased, which it has been recommended to perform, is taking part in the burial ceremony. There is so much emphasis in Islām concerning this that the Angel Jibrā'il once said to the Prophet of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family) that he wished that he was a human for seven reasons, and one of them was so that he would be able to take part in the burial ceremony.

It would not be out of place for us to mention a few ḥadith related to the importance of attending and taking part in the funeral ceremony.

1. Imām al-Bāqir (Peace be upon him) said, “Prophet Musa (Peace be upon him) once prayed to Allāh ﷻ and asked him what the reward and recompense was for a person who took part in a funeral ceremony?” Allāh ﷻ replied, “I will appoint for him Angels, so that when he is raised from the grave, they will accompany him with raised flags to the Plain of Resurrection.” (Wasā'il al-Shi'a, Volume 1, Page 822)

٢. عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ (ﷺ) قَالَ: مَنْ شِيعَ جَنَازَةً فَلَهُ بِكُلِّ خَطْوَةٍ حَتَّى يَرْجِعَ مِائَةٌ أَلْفٌ حَسَنَةٍ، وَيُمَحَا عَنْهُ مِائَةٌ أَلْفٌ أَلْفٍ سَيِّئَةٍ، وَيَرْفَعُ لَهُ مِائَةٌ أَلْفٌ أَلْفٍ دَرَجَةٍ، فَإِنْ صَلَّى عَلَيْهَا شِيعَهُ فِي جَنَازَتِهِ مِائَةٌ أَلْفٌ أَلْفٍ مَلَكٍ، كُلُّهُمْ يَسْتَغْفِرُونَ لَهُ حَتَّى يَرْجِعَ، فَإِنْ شَهِدَ دَفْنَهَا وَكَلَّ اللَّهُ بِهِ أَلْفٌ مَلَكٍ كُلُّهُمْ يَسْتَغْفِرُونَ لَهُ حَتَّى يُبْعَثَ مِنْ قَبْرِهِ. وَمَنْ صَلَّى عَلَى مَيِّتٍ صَلَّى عَلَيْهِ جِبْرَائِيلُ وَسَبْعُونَ أَلْفٌ مَلَكٍ وَعَفِيرٌ لَهُ مَا تَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِهِ، وَإِنْ أَقَامَ عَلَيْهِ حَتَّى يَدْفَنَهُ وَحَتَّى يَرْجِعَ مِنْ التُّرَابِ انْقَلَبَ مِنَ الْجَنَازَةِ وَلَهُ بِكُلِّ قَدَمٍ مِنْ حَيْثُ شِيعَهَا حَتَّى يَرْجِعَ إِلَى مَنْزِلِهِ قَبْرَاطٌ مِنَ الْأَجْرِ، وَالْقَبْرَاطُ مِثْلُ جَبَلٍ أَحَدٍ يَكُونُ فِي مِيزَانِهِ مِنَ الْأَجْرِ.

2. The Messenger of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family) said, “Anytime a person takes part in the funeral ceremony, for each step that he takes, 100,000,000 good deeds will be written in his record, and 100,000,000 sins will be erased, and his rank will be increased by 100,000,000 levels. If he takes part in the Ṣalāt, 100,000,000 angels will take part in his funeral and will pray for his forgiveness until he returns. And if he stays until the body has been buried, Allāh will appoint 1,000 angels, all of whom will ask for his forgiveness until he is resurrected from his grave. Jibrā'il, along with 70,000 angels will ask for the forgiveness of the past sins for the one who prays over the dead body. If the person stays with the deceased until he is buried and covered over with the dirt and then leaves the body, then for every step he takes from the funeral ceremony until he returns to his house, he will receive the reward of one Qīrāt in his scale of rewards - and one Qīrāt is similar (in size) to the Mountain of Uhud.” (Wasā'il al-Shī'a, Volume 3, Page 143)

The Participation in a Funeral by Imām al-Bāqir (Peace be upon him)

Muḥaddith Qummī, in his book Muntahā al-'Amāl, relates a ḥadīth from Zurāra that, “One day, Imām al-Bāqir (Peace be upon him) attended a funeral of a deceased from the Tribe of Quraish. I too was present along with a man named 'Aṭā', who was one of the scholars to whom people referred to in times of difficulty and confusion in Makkah. In the crowd of people, screams and shouts from a woman were heard. 'Aṭā' told that woman, 'Be quiet! Or else I will leave,' but the woman did not keep quiet and so 'Aṭā' left.

I told Imām al-Bāqir (Peace be upon him) that 'Aṭā' has left, and he asked me, 'Why did he leave?' I replied that a woman was screaming and crying and 'Aṭā' told her to be quiet, and that if she did not then he would leave. The woman did not stop her screaming and crying and therefore 'Aṭā' left. The Imām (Peace be upon him) said, 'Let's go and complete the funeral ceremony. If I leave because of this one trivial act (the woman screaming and crying), then I will have not fulfilled the duties and the responsibilities (of attending to the funeral ceremony of that Muslim who has passed away).’”

Zurāra said, “Once we completed the Ṣalātul Mayyit, one of the inheritors of the deceased Muslim told the Imām, ‘May Allāh ﷻ have mercy on you; you may go back home since you have earned a great reward’. Imām al-Bāqir (Peace be upon him) did not accept this man’s advice (to go home). Zurāra said to the Imām, ‘This man has allowed you to go back home, and I also was thinking of asking you to go back.’ The Imām replied, ‘Do as you intend to do since we did have not come with this man’s permission so that we should return with his permission; rather, we performed this action for that reward we anticipate since a person is rewarded proportionately to the extent that he accompanies the corpse.’”

Conduct of the Imām (Peace be upon him)

Ibn Shahr Āshīb relates from Mūsā ibn Sayār that, “As Imām ‘Alī ibn Mūsā al-Riḍā (Peace be upon him) and I were approaching the walls of the city of Ṭūs, I heard the sound of mourning and lamenting. I was trying to find out where the sound was coming from when I saw a deceased person. At this time, I saw my Master, Imām ‘Alī ibn Mūsā al-Riḍā (Peace be upon him) dismounting his horse. He proceeded towards the body, lifted it, and held it close to his body in the same way that a mother would hold her newborn baby. After this, the Imām realized that I was there and said, ‘O’ Mūsā, a person who takes part in the funeral of one of our friends will have the sins removed from one’s record, just as the one who has just been born.’”

As the body was being brought near the grave, I saw Imām ‘Alī ibn Mūsā al-Riḍā (Peace be upon him) focus his attention on the body, and he moved the other people aside until he was able to reach the body. He placed his blessed hand on the chest of the deceased man and said, ‘O’ So and so! You have been granted paradise and after this hour, you will feel neither fear, nor grief.’

I said to the Imām (Peace be upon him), ‘How is it that you know this person seeing as how you have never been to this city before?’ The Imām (Peace be upon him) replied, ‘O’ Mūsā! Don’t you know that the actions of our Shi’a are presented to us every morning and evening!? In the event that there are shortcomings and sins in their record, we ask Allāh ﷻ for His Mercy and Forgiveness for that person, and if there are good actions on their record, then we ask Allāh ﷻ to grant them a great reward and recompense!” (Sitārgān Dirakshān, Volume 7, Page 27)

﴿Burial of the Dead Body﴾

Rule 129: It is obligatory to bury a dead body in the ground so deep, that its smell does not come out and causing the beasts of prey to dig it out. If there is a danger of such beasts digging it out, then the grave should be made solid with bricks, etc.

Rule 130: If it is not possible to bury a dead body in the ground, then it may be kept in a vault or a coffin instead.

Rule 131: The dead body must be laid in the grave on its right side such that the face remains facing the Qiblah.

Rule 132: If a person dies on a ship and there is no fear of decay of the dead body, and if there is no problem in retaining it for some time on the ship, then it should be kept on it and buried in the ground after reaching the land. Otherwise, after giving Ghusl, Hunūt, Kafan, and performing Ṣalātul Mayyit, it should be lowered into the sea in a vessel of clay or with a weight tied to its feet. In addition, as far as possible it should not be lowered to a point where it will be eaten up immediately by the sea predators.

Rule 133: If it is feared that an enemy may dig up the grave and exhume the dead body and amputate its ears, nose or other limbs, then it should be lowered into sea if possible, as stated in the foregoing rule.

Rule 134: The expenses of lowering the dead body into the sea, or making the grave solid on the ground, can be deducted from the estate of the deceased if necessary.

Rule 135: If a non-Muslim woman dies with a dead child or a soulless fetus in her womb, and if the father is a Muslim, then the woman must be laid in the grave on her left side with her back towards Qiblah, so that the face of the child will be towards the Qiblah.

Rule 136: It is not permitted to bury a Muslim in the graveyard of the non-Muslims, nor is it permissible to bury a non-Muslim in the graveyard of the Muslims.

Rule 137: It is also not permissible to bury the dead body of a Muslim at a place which is disrespectful, such as places where garbage is thrown.

Rule 138: It is not permissible to bury a dead body in a usurped place, or in a place that is dedicated for purposes other than burial (e.g. in a Masjid).

Rule 139: It is not permissible to dig up a grave for burying another dead body in it, unless one is sure that the grave is very old and the previous body has been completely disintegrated.

Rule 140: Anything which is separated from the dead body (whether it be its hair, nails or teeth) must be buried along with the body. If any part of the body, including hair, nails or teeth are found after the body has been buried, then they must be buried in a separate place, according to Iḥtiyāt Wājib. It is even Mustahab that nails and teeth cut off or extracted during one's lifetime are buried as well.

Rule 141: If a person dies in a well and it is not possible to take him out, then the well must be covered, and it will be treated as his grave.

Rule 142: If a child dies in the mother's womb and remaining in the womb is dangerous for the mother, then it must be brought out in the easiest possible way. If it becomes inevitable but to cut the child into pieces, then there is no objection in doing so.

It is however, better that if the husband of the woman is skilled in surgery then the dead body of the child be taken out by him, and if it is not possible, then the job must be performed by a skilled woman. If one is not available, then a skilled surgeon who is the maḥram (one with whom marriage cannot be contracted) of the woman must do it. If that too is not available, then a skilled man who is not maḥram (one with whom marriage can be contracted) must remove the dead child. If such a person is not available even, then any unskilled person can remove the dead body.

Rule 143: If a woman dies and there is a living child in her womb, then it must be brought out in the safest possible way; even if there is no hope for the child's survival. The body of the mother must then be sewn up.

Mustahab Acts of the Burial

Rule 144: It is Mustahab that the depth of the grave should be approximately equal to the size of an average person. Also, his or her dead body should be buried in the nearest graveyard, except when the graveyard which is situated farther is better due to some reason, such as if pious people are buried there or people go there in large number for Fātiha (to pay respects to the dead).

It is also recommended that the coffin is placed on the ground a few yards away from the grave and then it is taken to the grave by halting three times briefly. It should be placed on the ground every time and then lifted before it is lowered into the grave which would be the fourth halt.

If the dead body is that of a male, then it should be placed on the ground on the third halt, in such a manner that its head should be towards the lower side of the grave and at the fourth halt, it should be lowered into the grave from the side of its head.

If the dead body is that of a female, then it should be placed on the ground such that on the third halt, it is towards the Qiblah and should be lowered into the grave sideways and a cloth should be spread over the grave while lowering it.

It is also Mustahab that the dead body should be taken out of the coffin and lowered into the grave very gently, and the prescribed supplications should be recited before and during the actual burying of the dead body.

After the dead body has been lowered into the ground, the ties of its shroud should be unfastened, its cheek should be placed on the ground, a pillow made of earth (dirt) should be done up under its head and some unbaked bricks or lumps of clay should be placed behind its back so that the dead body will not turn onto its back.

The Following should be read if the Deceased is a Male

اسْمَعِ افْهَمْ يَا _____ ابْنَ _____

“Listen and understand. O’... son of ...”

Here the name of the deceased and his father should be called. For example, if the name of the deceased was Muḥammad and his father’s name was ‘Alī, then it should said three times:

عَفْوِكَ

Translation: “O’ Allāh, make the earth spacious on her sides (in the grave) and elevate her soul up to Yourself and reveal to her Your proofs. O’ Allāh, we beseech Your pardon, Your pardon!”

Rule 145: It is recommended that the person who lowers the dead body in the grave should be ṭāhir, bareheaded (no covering on his head) and bare-footed and he should climb out of the grave from the side of the feet of the deceased. Moreover, people other than near relatives of the deceased should put dirt into the grave with the backside of their hands and recite the following:

«إِنَّا لِلَّهِ وَإِنَّا إِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُونَ»

If the deceased is a woman, then she should be lowered into the grave by a Maḥram and in the absence of a Maḥram, her relative.

Rule 146: It is Mustahab that the grave is square or rectangle in shape and its height is equal to four fingers’ span. A sign should be fixed on it for the purpose of identification, water should be poured on it and then those present should place their hands on the grave parting their fingers and inserting them into the ground. One should then recite Sūrah al-Qadr seven times and pray for forgiveness of the departed soul by saying:

If the Deceased is a Man:

رَحْمَتِكَ مَا تُغْنِيهِ بِهِ عَنِ رَحْمَةِ مَنْ سِوَاكَ

Translation: “O’ Allāh, make the earth spacious on his sides (in the grave) and raise his soul to Yourself and reveal to him Your pleasure and place in his grave, Your mercy such that you make him needless of the mercy of others besides Yourself.”

If the Deceased is a Woman:

مِنْ رَحْمَتِكَ مَا تُغْنِيهِ بِهَا عَنْ رَحْمَةِ مَنْ سِوَاكَ

Translation: “O’ Allāh, make the earth spacious on both her sides and raise her soul to Yourself. Meet her with a merciful welcome. Place in her grave, Your mercy such that you make her needless of the mercy of others besides Yourself.”

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

تَنْزَلُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ وَالرُّوحُ فِيهَا بِإِذْنِ رَبِّهِمْ مِنْ كُلِّ أَمْرٍ ﴿٤﴾ سَلَامٌ هِيَ حَتَّىٰ مَطْلَعِ الْفَجْرِ ﴿٥﴾

In the Name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Merciful.

1. Surely We revealed it on the grand night.
2. And what will make you comprehend what the grand night is?
3. The grand night is better than a thousand months.
4. The angels and the Rūh (Spirit) descend in it by the permission of their Lord for every affair,
5. Peace! it is till the break of the morning.

Rule 147: It is Mustahab that when the people who attended the funeral have left, the guardian of the deceased or the person the guardian grants permission to, should recite the prescribed supplications for the deceased. These prescribed supplications can be found in the detailed books of Fiqh.

﴿Ṣalātul Waḥshat﴾

Rule 148: It is recommended that on the first night after the burial of a deceased, two Rak'at Ṣalātul Waḥshat be offered for it. The method of offering this prayers is as follows:

In the first Rak'at, after reciting Sūrah al-Ḥamd, 'Āyāt al-Kursī should be recited once; and in the second Rak'at, after Sūrah al-Ḥamd, Surah al-Qadr should be recited 10 times, after saying the Salām, the following supplication should be recited:

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، وَأَبْعَثْ ثَوَابَهَا إِلَى قَبْرِ —

"O' Allāh, Send blessings on Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad and give the reward (of this Ṣalāt) to the grave of ..."

Here the name of the deceased and his or her father's name should be mentioned.

Rule 149: Ṣalātul Waḥshat can be offered on the night of the burial of the deceased at any time, but it is better to offer it in the early hours of the night following 'Ishā prayers.

﴿The Rules of Exhumation﴾

Rule 150: It is Ḥarām to open the grave of a Muslim, even if it belongs to a child or an insane person. However, there is no objection in doing so if the dead body has decayed and turned into dust.

Rule 151: Digging up or destroying the graves of the descendants of the A’immah (Peace be upon them), the martyrs, the ‘Ulama and the pious people is Ḥarām, even if they are very old, since it amounts to desecration.

Rule 152: Digging up the grave is allowed in the following cases¹:

- When the dead body has been buried in a usurped land and the owner of the land is not willing to let it remain there.
- When the Kafan of the dead body or any thing else that is buried with it had been usurped, and the owner of the thing in question is not willing to let it remain in the grave.
- If anything belonging to the heirs has been buried along with the deceased and the heirs do not give permission to let it remain in the grave. However, if the deceased had made a will that a certain supplication, the holy Qur’ān, or a ring be buried along with his dead body, and if that will was valid, then the grave cannot be opened up to bring those articles out.
- When opening the grave does not amount to disrespect of the deceased, and it transpires that one was buried without Ghusl and/or Kafan, or the Ghusl that was performed was void, or one was not given Kafan according to religious rules, or was not laid in the grave facing the Qiblah.
- When it is necessary to inspect the body of the deceased to establish a right, which is more important than not exhumation it.

¹ There are certain situations when the exhuming is not permitted even if the land, the Kafan or the articles buried with the corpse are Ghasbī, but there is no room for details here.

- When the dead body of a Muslim has been buried in a place which is against sanctity, such as when it has been buried in the graveyard of non-Muslim or at a place of garbage.
- When the grave is opened up for legal purposes which are more important than not exhuming it. For example, when it is necessary to take out a living child from the womb of the buried woman.
- When it is feared that a wild beast would tear up the corpse or it will be carried away by flood or exhumed by the enemy.
- When the deceased had willed that his body be transferred to a sacred place before burial, and if it was intentionally or forgetfully buried elsewhere, then the body can be exhumed - provided that doing so does not result in disrespect to the deceased.

The Squeezing in the Grave is an Atonement for One's Sins

 أَمِيرِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ (ﷺ) ضَغْطَةُ الْقَبْرِ لِلْمُؤْمِنِ كَفَّارَةٌ لِمَا كَانَ مِنْهُ

1. Sakūnī narrates from Abī ‘Abdillāh Ja‘far ibn Muḥammad as-Ṣādiq (Peace be upon him) from his father from his forefathers from Amīr al-Mu‘minīn (Peace be upon him) who said, the Messenger of Allāh (Peace be upon him and his family) said: “The squeezing of the grave is an atonement for the sins a believer had committed.” (Thawāb al-A‘māl, Page437)

Explanation: One of the greatest blessings of Allāh ﷻ is to be granted a long and prosperous life in His service, and it is in the ‘Ālam Barzakh (the period after death, and before the Day of Resurrection) that a person will truly understand the loss one is in because of the time that one had wasted in this world.

The Reward for Visiting the Deceased

1. Ishāq ibn ‘Ammār relates that: “I said to Abī al-Ḥasan (Peace be upon him), ‘Does a believer who has passed away know those people who visit his grave?’ The Imām (Peace be upon him) replied, ‘Of course, he is acquainted with those who visit him as long as they are sitting beside his grave. As soon as they get up from his grave side and leave, the fear takes over the person in the grave because of his leaving’.” (Wasā’il al-Shī’a, Volume 3, Page 223)

٢. عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ سَنَانَ قَالَ: قُلْتُ لِأَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ (ؑ): كَيْفَ التَّسْلِيمُ عَلَى أَهْلِ الْقُبُورِ؟ فَقَالَ: قُلْ: «السَّلَامُ عَلَى أَهْلِ الدِّيَارِ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُسْلِمِينَ أَنْتُمْ لَنَا فَرَطٌ وَنَحْنُ إِنْشَاءُ اللَّهِ بِكُمْ لِأَحْيُونَ».

2. ‘Abdullāh ibn Sanān relates that: “I asked Abī ‘Abdillāh (Peace be upon him) how should one greet the deceased in the graveyard?” He (Peace be upon him) replied, “One should say:

السَّلَامُ عَلَى أَهْلِ الدِّيَارِ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُسْلِمِينَ أَنْتُمْ لَنَا فَرَطٌ وَنَحْنُ إِنْشَاءُ اللَّهِ بِكُمْ لِأَحْيُونَ

Translation.- “Peace be upon the people of the lands from the believers and the Muslims. You are an example for us (that we too shall die) and God willing, we will meet with you.” (Wasā’il al-Shī’a, Volume 3, Page 227)

٣. عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ إِسْمَاعِيلَ بْنِ بَزِيْعٍ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ أَبَا جَعْفَرٍ (ؑ) يَقُولُ: مَنْ زَارَ قَبْرَ أَخِيهِ الْمُؤْمِنِ فَجَلَسَ عِنْدَ قَبْرِهِ وَاسْتَقْبَلَ الْقَبْلَةَ وَوَضَعَ يَدَهُ عَلَى الْقَبْرِ فَقَرَأَ «إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ فِي لَيْلَةِ الْقَدْرِ» سَبْعَ مَرَّاتٍ أَمِنَ مِنَ الْفَرَعِ الْكَبِيرِ.

3. Muḥammad ibn Ismā’il ibn Bazī’ narrates that, “I heard Abā Ja’far (Peace be upon him) say, “The person who goes to visit a believing brother's grave, and then while facing the Qiblah, sits near the head of the grave, and places his hand on top of it and recites Sūrah al-Qadr seven times, will be protected from the greatest fear and fright on the Day of Judgement'” (Wasā'il al-Shi'a, Volume 3, Page 227)

٤. مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ بْنِ الْحُسَيْنِ بِإِسْنَادِهِ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ مُسْلِمٍ أَنَّهُ قَالَ: قُلْتُ لِأَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ (عليه السلام): «الْمَوْتُ نَزُورُهُمْ؟ قَالَ: نَعَمْ، إِلَى أَنْ قَالَ: قُلْتُ: فَأَيُّ شَيْءٍ نَقُولُ إِذَا أَتَيْنَاهُمْ؟ قَالَ: قُلْ: «اللَّهُمَّ جَافِ الْأَرْضَ عَنْ جُنُوبِهِمْ، وَصَاعِدِ إِلَيْكَ أَرْوَاحَهُمْ، وَلَقِّهِمْ مِنْكَ رِضْوَانًا، وَأَسْكُنْ إِلَيْهِمْ مِنْ رَحْمَتِكَ مَا تَصِلُ بِهِ وَحَدَّتْهُمْ، وَتُونِسُ بِهِ وَحَشَيْتَهُمْ، إِنَّكَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ».

4. Muḥammad ibn 'Alī ibn al-Ḥusain narrates from his chain of narrators from Muḥammad ibn Muslim that he said, “I asked Abī 'Abdillāh (Peace be upon him), ‘Do we go to visit the deceased?’ He replied, ‘Yes.’ I asked him, ‘What should we say when we go to visit them?’ ‘The Imām replied’, ‘You should say:

اللَّهُمَّ جَافِ الْأَرْضَ عَنْ جُنُوبِهِمْ، وَصَاعِدِ إِلَيْكَ أَرْوَاحَهُمْ، وَلَقِّهِمْ مِنْكَ رِضْوَانًا، وَأَسْكُنْ إِلَيْهِمْ مِنْ رَحْمَتِكَ مَا تَصِلُ بِهِ وَحَدَّتْهُمْ، وَتُونِسُ بِهِ وَحَشَيْتَهُمْ، إِنَّكَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ.

Translation: “O' Allāh, make the earth spacious on their sides (in the grave) and raise their souls to Yourself and reveal to them Your pleasure and place in their grave, out of Your mercy, that what will reach out to them in their isolation and give them solace in their loneliness; verily You have power over all things.” (Wasā'il al-Shi'a, Volume 3, Page 228)

The Testimony of Forty Believers Concerning the Deceased

1. It has been narrated from Abi 'Abdillāh (Peace be upon him) that he said, “Any time a believer leaves this world, and forty believers are present at his funeral and they all testify that, ‘O' Allāh, we know nothing of this man except good, and You know that which we do not know.' Allāh, the Glorious and Most High says, 'I accept your affirmation and testimony concerning this person, and I have forgiven those actions which he performed which I know and you do not know'." (Wasā'il al-Shī'a, Volume 3, Page 285)

﴿The Rules Concerning the Bereaved Family﴾

Rule 153: It is Mustahab that after the burial, the bereaved family is consoled, and that they should be prayed for in regards to their well being. However, if the condolence is given long after the death, and if it serves to revive the sorrowful memories, then it should be avoided.

It is Mustahab that food be sent to the members of the family of the deceased for 3 days. It is, however, Makruh to eat with them in their homes.

The discouragement of eating with the members of the family of the deceased for three days, and the recommendation of sending food to their house

١. مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ بْنِ الْحُسَيْنِ قَالَ: قَالَ الصَّادِقُ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ): أَلَا كُلُّ عِنْدَ أَهْلِ الْمُصِيبَةِ مِنْ عَمَلِ أَهْلِ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ، وَالسُّنَّةُ الْبُعْتُ إِلَيْهِمْ بِالطَّعَامِ كَمَا أَمَرَهُ النَّبِيُّ (صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ) فِي آلِ جَعْفَرِ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ لَمَّا جَاءَ نَعِيهِ.

1. Muḥammad ibn ‘Alī ibn al-Ḥusain said, as-Ṣādiq (Peace be upon him) said, “Eating food with the members of the family of the deceased is one of the actions of the people of Ignorance (the period before the Prophet (Peace be upon him and his family)). However, the way of Islām is that food should be sent to their house, just as the Prophet (Peace be upon him and his family) did after the passing away of Ja‘far ibn Abī Ṭālib (Peace be upon him).” (Wasā’il al-Shi‘a, Volume 3, Page 237)

٢. عَنْ مُرَازِمٍ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ أَبَا عَبْدِ اللَّهِ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) يَقُولُ: لَمَّا قُتِلَ جَعْفَرُ بْنُ أَبِي طَالِبٍ دَخَلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ (صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ) عَلَى أَسْمَاءَ بِنْتِ عُمَيْسٍ إِلَى أَنْ قَالَ: فَقَالَ: أَجْعَلُوا لِأَهْلِ جَعْفَرٍ طَعَامًا فَجَرَّتْ أَلْسِنَتُهُ إِلَى الْيَوْمِ.

2. In another ḥadīth from Marāzim, he says, “I heard Abā ‘Abdillāh

(Peace be upon him) say, “When Ja‘far ibn Abī Ṭālib (Peace be upon him) was martyred in the way of Allāh, the Messenger of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family) went to his wife, Asmā’ bint ‘Umays, and after consoling her on the loss of her husband, ordered that food be sent to the house of Ja‘far. Thereafter, this practice became the Sunnah of the Muslims and until today, this Sunnah has remained.” (Wasā’il al-Shī‘a, Volume 3, Page 237)

۳. عَنْ أَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) قَالَ: لَمَّا قُتِلَ جَعْفَرُ بْنُ أَبِي طَالِبٍ أَمَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ (ﷺ) فَاطِمَةَ (عَلَيْهَا السَّلَامُ) أَنْ تَأْتِيَ أَسْمَاءَ بِنْتَ عُمَيْسٍ هِيَ وَنِسَائِهَا وَتَقِيمَ عِنْدَهَا وَتَصْنَعَ لَهَا طَعَامًا ثَلَاثَةَ أَيَّامٍ.

3. Abī ‘Abdillāh (Peace be upon him) said, “When Ja‘far ibn Abī Ṭālib (Peace be upon him) was martyred, the Messenger of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family) ordered his daughter, Fātimah az-Zahrā (Peace be upon her), to go to the house of Asmā’ bint ‘Amīsh, and to invite her and the other women of Asmā’s house to come to her place for food for three days.” (Wasā’il al-Shī‘a, Volume 3, Page 237)

Crying for the Deceased

۱. عَنْ أَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) قَالَ: إِنَّ إِبْرَاهِيمَ خَلِيلَ الرَّحْمَنِ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) سَأَلَ رَبَّهُ أَنْ يَرزُقَهُ ابْنَةً تُبْكِيهِ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهِ.

1. Abī ‘Abdillāh (Peace be upon him) said, “Verily Ibrāhīm al-Khalīl (Peace be upon him) asked His Lord to give him a daughter so that after his death, she would cry over him.” (Wasā’il al-Shī‘a, Volume 3, Page 242)

۱. عَنْ أَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) قَالَ: قُلْتُ لَهُ: بَأَيِّ شَيْءٍ عِلِمَ الْمُؤْمِنُ أَنَّهُ مُؤْمِنٌ؟ قَالَ: أَلْتَسْلِيمِ لِلَّهِ وَالرِّضَا فِيمَا وَرَدَ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ سُورٍ أَوْ سَخَطٍ.

1. It has been narrated from Abī ‘Abdillāh (Peace be upon him) that I (narrator of the ḥadīth) said to him, “How does the true believer know that he is (indeed) a true believer?” The Imām replied, “(A true believer is one who) submits to Allāh ﷻ and is content with whatever He puts upon him up - whether it be something that brings him pleasure or something that brings him anger.” (Wasā'il al-Shī'a, Volume 3, Page 252)

The true believer is always surrounded by difficulties

1. Muḥammad ibn Buhlūl relates from Abī ‘Abdillāh (Peace be upon him) that he said, “A Believer’s station and position (with Allāh ﷻ) is like that of a scale, such that as his faith increases, his difficulties also increase.” (Wasā'il al-Shī'a, Volume 3, Page 263)

٢. عَنْ أَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) فِي حَدِيثٍ قَالَ: إِذَا أُصِيبْتَ بِمُصِيبَةٍ فَادْكُرْ مُصَابِكَ بِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ (ﷺ)، فَإِنَّ الْخُلُقَ لَمْ يُصَابُوا بِمِثْلِهِ قَطُّ.

2. It has been narrated that Abī ‘Abdillāh (Peace be upon him) said, “Whenever you are afflicted with difficulties, you should remember your difficulties with relation to those that the Messenger of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family) faced, since there is no one who faced greater difficulties than he.” (Wasā'il al-Shī'a, Volume 3, Page 267)

٣. عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ، عَنْ صَالِحِ بْنِ أَبِي حَمَادٍ، رَفَعَهُ قَالَ: جَاءَ أَمِيرُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) إِلَى الْأَشْعَثِ بْنِ قَيْسٍ يُعَزِّيه بِأُحْلُوهُ، فَقَالَ لَهُ: إِنَّ جَزَعْتَ فَحَقَّ الرَّحْمَ أَنْتِ، وَإِنْ صَبَرْتَ فَحَقَّ اللَّهُ أَدَيْتِ، عَلَى أَنَّكَ إِنْ صَبَرْتَ جَرَى عَلَيْكَ الْقَضَاءُ وَأَنْتَ مَحْمُودٌ، وَإِنْ جَزَعْتَ جَرَى عَلَيْكَ الْقَضَاءُ وَأَنْتَ مَذْمُومٌ، الْحَدِيثُ.

3. It has been narrated from ‘Alī ibn Muḥammad from Ṣāleḥ ibn Abī Ḥammād Rafah that when the brother of Ishaq ibn Qais left the world, Amīr al-Mu’minīn ‘Alī ibn Abī Ṭālib (Peace be upon him) went to see him and offer his condolences. After this, he said, “If you show impatience and grief (concerning the deceased), then you have fulfilled the rights of your family; and if you show patience, then you have fulfilled the right of Allāh ﷻ. Therefore, if you observe patience over incidents that happen to you, then what is decreed will come to pass for you while you are to be praised and commended; but if you have grief and anxiety and are not patient when things befall you, then what is decreed will come to pass for you while you will be blamed and rebuked.” (Wasā’il al-Shī’a, Volume 3, Page 270)

1. Zurārah related that as-Ṣādiq (Peace be upon him) said, “Someone who hits his knees when a misfortune befalls him (because of not having patience), loses the reward of that misfortune.” (Wasā’il al-Shī’a, Volume 3, Page 270)

Explanation: This hadith has been related from the Prophet of Islām and ‘Alī ibn Abī Ṭālib, and Mūsā ibn Ja‘far (Peace be upon all of them) in which all of them have mentioned that the reward of that which has come to pass, is taken away for not having forbearance and patience in front of the difficulties and hitting the knees (as a sign of grief).

The reward for saying “Indeed we are all from Allāh ﷻ, and to Him is our return”

In a well known ḥadīth from a companion of Imām Muḥammad al-Bāqir (Peace be upon him), it is stated that, “I heard the Imām (Peace be upon him) say that anytime a Believer is struck with problems and difficulties in this world, that time one says:

«إِنَّا لِلَّهِ وَإِنَّا إِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُونَ»

Then Allāh ﷻ forgives him his past sins. Of course these are the minor sins, not those which are counted as the major sins, since the major sins are those which Allāh ﷻ has promised the punishment of the fire of Hell for, which if performed continuously, guarantee one the fire of Hell.”

The Imām (Peace be upon him) also said, “If at anytime in one’s life, one recollects about a tragedy that befell him, and then repeats:

«إِنَّا لِلَّهِ وَإِنَّا إِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُونَ»

Along with these words, if he thanks Allāh ﷻ, then Allāh ﷻ will forgive him those sins that occurred during the time one said the above sentence, except for the major sins.”

The reward for offering condolences

1. It has been narrated from Sakūnī from Ja‘far ibn Muḥammad al-Ṣādiq (Peace be upon him) from his fore-fathers (Peace be upon them) that the Messenger of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family) said, “Whoever offers condolences to one who is grieving will clothed with a beautiful and respectful robe on the Day of Judgement.” (Thawāb al-A‘māl, Page 441)

٢. عَنْ جَعْفَرِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ الصَّادِقِ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) عَنْ أَبِيهِ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ (ﷺ) قَالَ: مَنْ عَزَى مُصَابًا كَانَ لَهُ مِثْلُ أَجْرِهِ مِنْ غَيْرِ أَنْ يُنْقَصَ مِنْ أَجْرِ الْمُصَابِ شَيْءٌ.

2. It has been narrated by Ja‘far ibn Muḥammad as-Ṣādiq (Peace be upon him), from his father (Peace be upon him) from his fore-fathers (Peace be upon all of them) that the Messenger of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family) said, “Whoever consoles a person who has had a misfortune befall him will receive the same reward as the one who is facing the tragedy without any reward being decreased from the one facing the misfortune.” (Thawāb al-A‘māl, Page 441) that person a Ḥūrī in Paradise for every hair that was under his hand.” (Thawāb al-A‘māl, Page 443)

The reward for soothing an Orphan

1. It is related that Abī Marium Anṣārī said that the Messenger of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family) said, “When an orphan cries, the ‘Throne (of Allāh ﷻ) shakes and at that My Lord, Glorious and High is He, says, ‘Who is it that has made this servant of mine cry, whose parents I have taken while he is still in his childhood? By My Power and Glory, I will make Paradise incumbent on that person who stops this child from crying.’” (Thawāb al-A‘māl, Page 445)

The reward for having patience and forbearance

1. Abū Ḥamzah al-Thumālī relates from Abī Ja‘far al-Bāqir (Peace be upon him) that he said, “Whoever shows patience in the face of difficulties, Allāh ﷻ will add honour to his honour, and will make him enter into Paradise with Muḥammad and his Ahl al-Baīt (Peace be upon all of them).” (Thawāb al-A‘māl, Page 440)

٢. عَنْ أَبِي بَصِيرٍ عَنْ أَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ (ع) قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ أَبَا جَعْفَرٍ (ع) يَقُولُ: إِنِّي لِأَصْبِرَ مِنْ غُلَامِي هَذَا وَمِنْ أَهْلِي عَلَى مَا هُوَ أَمْرٌ مِنَ الْخُتْلِ إِنَّهُ مَنْ صَبَرَ نَالَ بِصَبْرِهِ دَرَجَةَ الصَّائِمِ الْقَائِمِ وَدَرَجَةَ الشَّهِيدِ الَّذِي قَدْ ضَرَبَ بِسَيْفِهِ قُدَّامَ مُحَمَّدٍ (ﷺ).

2. Abū Baṣīr relates from Abī ‘Abdillāh (Peace be upon him) that he said, “I heard Abā Ja‘far (Peace be upon him) say, ‘I show patience and forbearance with this slave of mine and some members of my family with respect to things that are more bitter for the mouth than colocynth. Verily, anyone who adopts patience and forbearance will receive the reward of one who fasts, stays awake during the night in prayer, and will attain the rank of a martyr who fought alongside the Prophet (Peace be upon him and his family).” (Thawāb al-A‘māl, Page 440)

The reward for showing patience over the death of a Child

١. عَنْ أَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) قَالَ: وَكَذَلِكَ وَاحِدٌ يُقَدِّمُهُ الرَّجُلُ أَفْضَلُ مِنْ سَبْعِينَ وَوَلِدًا يَبْقَوْنَ بَعْدَهُ يَدْرُكُونَ الْقَائِمَ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ).

1. Imām as-Şādiq (Peace be upon him) said, “If the child passes away before the father (and he shows patience), the reward is greater than if the man passes away and leaves behind seventy children who remain alive and meet al-Qā’im (Peace be upon him).” (Wasā’il al-Shī’a, Volume 3, Page 246)

٢. عَنْ أَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ (ﷺ): إِذَا قُبِضَ وَوَلَدُ الْمُؤْمِنِ وَاللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا قَالَ الْعَبْدُ. قَالَ اللَّهُ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالَى لِمَلَائِكَتِهِ: قَبِضْتُمْ وَوَلَدَ فَلَانٍ؟ فَيَقُولُونَ: نَعَمْ رَبَّنَا. قَالَ: فَيَقُولُ فَمَا قَالَ عِبْدِي؟ قَالُوا: حَمْدَكَ وَاسْتَرْجَع، فَيَقُولُ اللَّهُ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالَى: أَخَذْتُمْ ثَمْرَةَ قَلْبِهِ وَفُرَّةَ عَيْنَيْهِ، فَحَمَدَنِي وَاسْتَرْجَع، ابْنُوا لَهُ بَيْتًا فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَسُمُوهُ بَيْتَ الْحَمْدِ.

2. It has been narrated from Abī ‘Abdillāh (Peace be upon him) that the Messenger of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family) said, “Anytime the child of a believer passes away, Allāh ﷻ knows best what His servant says (at this loss). Allāh ﷻ says to His Angels, ‘Did you take the soul of this man’s child?’ The Angels reply, ‘Yes, O’ Allāh.’ They are then asked, ‘At that time when My servant was facing this difficulty, what did he say?’ The Angels reply, ‘He praised you and recited: إِنَّا لِلَّهِ وَإِنَّا إِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُونَ.’ Then Allāh ﷻ will say, ‘(Even though) you took the light of his eyes (his child), with the exception of praising me and the reciting of إِنَّا لِلَّهِ وَإِنَّا إِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُونَ, he said nothing else - thus, build a house for him in Paradise, and name that house the House Of Praise.” (Wasā’il al-Shī’a, Volume 3, Page 246)

٣. عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَسْبَاطٍ رَفَعَهُ قَالَ: كَانَ أَبُو عَبْدِ اللَّهِ (عليه السلام) يَقُولُ عِنْدَ الْمُصِيبَةِ: الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي لَمْ يَجْعَلْ مُصِيبَتِي فِي دِينِي، وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي لَوْ شَاءَ أَنْ يَجْعَلَ مُصِيبَتِي أَعْظَمَ مِمَّا كَانَتْ، وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ عَلَى الْأَمْرِ الَّذِي شَاءَ أَنْ يَكُونَ فَكَانَ.

3. ‘Alī ibn Asbāṭ narrated that, it was the custom of Imām as-Ṣādiq (Peace be upon him) that anytime a difficulty arose, he would say, “Praise be to Allāh that this difficulty that has come is not a difficulty in the religion (meaning not a test of the beliefs). Praise be to Allāh since Allāh is the All-Powerful and could have made this trial greater than it is. Praise be to Allāh that this trial was put before us.” (Wasā’il al-Shī‘a, Volume 3, Page 247)

Rule 152: It is (also) Mustahab that a person should observe patience on the death of one of the near ones, especially on the death of his son, and, whenever the memory of the departed soul crosses his mind, he should recite:

«إِنَّا لِلَّهِ وَإِنَّا إِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُونَ»

“Verily, we are (all) from Allāh, and to Him is our return.”

One should (also) recite the Holy Qur’ān for the sake of the departed ones. A person should also visit the graves of one’s parents, pray for the blessings of Allāh for oneself and should make sure the grave is solid so that it may not be ruined easily.

Rule 154: As a matter of Iḥtiyāt, one must refrain from scratching one’s face or body, or pulling out one’s hair as a sign of grief. However, slapping one’s head or face is permitted.

Rule 155: It is not permissible to tear one’s clothes on the death of anyone, except on the death of one’s father and brother, although according to Iḥtiyāt Mustahab, one must not tear one’s clothes on their death either.

Rule 156: If a wife mourning the death of her husband scratches her face causing blood to come out or pulls her hair, then according to Iḥtiyāt

Mustahab she should set a slave free, feed ten poor people, or provide them with clothing. The same rule applies if a man tears his clothes on the death of his wife or son.

Rule 157: The Iḥtiyāt Mustahab is that while weeping over the death of any person, one's voice should not be very loud.

﴿Qaḍā Ṣalāt of the Father﴾

Rule 158: If the father did not offer some of his obligatory prayers, and did not care to perform the Qaḍā in spite of being able to do so, then after his death, according to Iḥtiyāt wājib, it is mandatory upon his eldest son to perform the Qaḍā - provided that the father did not leave them as a deliberate act of transgression. If the son can not do so, then he may hire someone else to perform them. The Qaḍā prayers of his mother are not obligatory upon him, though it is better if he performs them.

Rule 159: If the eldest son doubts whether his father had any Qaḍā Ṣalāt, then he is under no obligation (to perform any Ṣalāt).

Rule 160: If the eldest son knows that his father had a certain number of Qaḍā prayers on him, but he is in doubt whether his father offered them or not, then, according to Iḥtiyāt wājib, he must offer them.

Rule 161: If it is not known who is the eldest son of a person is, then it is not obligatory on any of the sons to offer their father's Qaḍā prayers. However, according to Iḥtiyāt Mustahab, they should divide his Qaḍā Ṣalāt between them, or should decide between themselves for offering them.

Rule 162: If a dying person makes a will that someone should be hired to offer his Qaḍā prayers, and that hired person performs them correctly, then the eldest son will be free from his obligation.

Rule 163: If the eldest son wishes to offer the Qaḍā prayers of his mother, then in the matter where the loud or audible whisper recitations in Ṣalāt is concerned, he will follow the rules that apply to him. Therefore, he should offer the Qaḍā prayers of his mother for Fajr, Maghrib and 'Ishā, loudly (reciting the Sūrahs out loud).

Rule 164: If a person has to offer his own Qaḍā prayers and he also wishes to offer the Qaḍā prayers of his parents, then whichever one he offers first will be in order.

Rule 165: If the eldest son was a minor or insane at the time of his father's death, then it is not obligatory for him to offer Qaḍā Salat of his father when he attains puberty or becomes sane.

Rule 166: If the eldest son of a person dies before offering the Qaḍā Ṣalāt of his father, then it will not become obligatory on the second son (to offer them).

﴿Hiring a Person to Offer Ṣalāt﴾

Rule 167: After the death of a person, another person can be contracted to offer those prayers and other acts of worship that the deceased did not offer during his lifetime on the payment of wages. In addition, it is in order if a person offers the services without taking payment for it.

Rule 168: A person can accept payment to perform some Mustahab acts such as Ziyārat, ‘Umrah, Ḥajj, on behalf of living people. Also one can perform Mustahab acts and dedicate their reward to a living or deceased.

Rule 169: A person who is hired to offer the Qaḍā prayers of the deceased should be a Mujtahid, or should know the rules of the prayers correctly according to Taqlīd, or should act according to precaution, provided that he knows fully on what occasions precaution is to be observed.

Rule 170: At the time of making the intention, the hired person must specify the deceased, although it is not necessary that he should know his or her name. Hence, it is enough if one intends: “I am offering prayers for the person on behalf of whom I was hired.”

Rule 171: The hired person should act with the intention that he is discharging the obligation of the deceased. It will not be enough if he performs a deed and dedicates its reward to the deceased.

Rule 172: One who hires a person, should be satisfied that the hired person will perform the act for which he will be hired.

Rule 173: If it transpires that the person hired for offering prayers for the deceased has not performed them, or has performed them incorrectly, then another person must be hired for the purpose.

Rule 174: If a person doubts whether or not the hired person has performed the act, and in spite of the hired person's assurance he is not satisfied, then he must hire another person. However, if he doubts whether the hired person has performed them correctly or not, then he should assume that it was correct.

Rule 175: A person who has some excuse (for example, if he offers prayers with Tayammum or in a sitting position) should never be hired for offering prayers for the deceased, even if the prayers of the deceased may have become Qaḍā in that way as well.

Rule 176: A man can be hired on behalf of a woman, and a woman can be hired on behalf of a man; and in the matter of offering prayers loudly or in a quite whisper, the hired person should act according to his or her own obligation.

Rule 177: Observing order is not obligatory for the Qaḍā prayers of the deceased, except in the case of prayers whose performance is prescribed in an order such as Z̤uhr and 'Aṣr prayers or Maghrib and 'Ishā prayers of one day.

Rule 178: If it was agreed with the hired person that he will accomplish it in a particular manner, then the hired person should follow that agreement. If nothing was agreed upon, then he can perform the Ṣalāt according to his own obligation.

According to Iḥtiyāt Mustahab, between his own obligation and that of the deceased, he should choose that which is nearer to precaution - for example if the obligation of the deceased was to say Tasbihāt Arba'ah: (Recitation of: in the third and fourth Rak'at while standing) three times, and his own obligation is to say it once, then he should recite it three times.

Rule 179: If it was not agreed with the hired person how many Mustahab acts he will perform, then he should perform as many as is common.

Rule 180: If a person hires several people for offering the Qaḍā prayers of the deceased, then it is necessary, as explained in rule number 177, that he should fix a time for each one of them.

Rule 181: If a hired person agrees to offer the prayers of the deceased within one year, but he dies before the year ends, then another person must be hired to offer the uncompleted prayers. Further, if he feels that the hired person probably did not offer some of the prayers, then according to Iḥṭiyāt wājib, another person must be hired.

Rule 182: If a person hired for offering the prayers of the deceased dies before offering all the prayers, and if he had taken wages for all the prayers, and the hirer has placed a condition that he would offer all the prayers himself, then the hirer can take back the proportionate amount of wages for the remaining prayers. He can also cancel the contract and pay an adequate sum. If it was not agreed that whether the hired person would offer all the prayers himself or not, then the heirs of the deceased should take the money from his estate and hire another person to complete the task. If there is nothing in the estate, then it is not obligatory upon the heirs.

Rule 183: If a hired person dies before offering all the Qaḍā prayers of the deceased, and if he himself has some Qaḍā of his own, and there is any wealth remaining from his estate, then after acting according to the above rule, someone must be hired to perform all his Qaḍā if he had willed and if his heirs give permission. If they do not permit, then his one-third must be spent for the Qaḍā prayers.

﴿The Rules of Fasting﴾

Rule 184: There is no harm in a person observing Musthḥab fasts, if he has been hired to observe the Qaḍā fasts of the deceased, or if he has an obligation to make up fasts as a Kaffarah. However, if a person has his own Qaḍā of fasts, then he cannot observe Mustahab fasts.

If he forgets this and observes a Mustahab fast and remembers before Zuhr, then his Mustahab fast will be void but he can change his intention to become a Qaḍā fast, and if he realized the situation after Zuhr, then his fast becomes void as a precaution, and if he remembers after Maghrib, then the validity of his fast is a matter of doubt.

Rule 185: A person who has touched a dead body (i.e. has brought any part of his own body in contact with it) can observe a fast without having to do Ghusl for touching a dead body, and the fast does not become void even if one touches a dead body during the fast.

﴿Miscellaneous Rulings﴾

Rule 186: If a person inherits some property and one knows that the person from whom he has inherited it did not pay Khums on it, then he (the heir) must pay its Khums. If that property is itself not liable for Khums, but the heir knows that the person from who he has inherited, owed some Khums, then he must pay it from the deceased's estate. However, in both cases, if the person from whom he inherits did not believe in Khums or never paid it, then it is not necessary for the heir to pay the Khums owed by the deceased.

Rule 187: If a merchant or one who works to earn a living fixes a time in the year for payment of Khums and makes a profit but dies during the same year, then the expenses till his death must be deducted from the profit, and Khums must be paid on the remaining balance.

﴿The Rules of Zakāt﴾

Rule 188: If a poor man dies and his property is not enough that it may liquidate his debt, then the creditor can adjust his claim against Zakāt. Even if his property is sufficient to clear his debt but his heirs do not pay his debt, or the creditor cannot get back his money for any other reason, then he can adjust the debt against Zakāt.

Rule 189: If a person owes Khums or Zakāt and has an obligation of Ḥajj and is also indebted, and he dies, and his property is not sufficient for all these things, and if the property on which Khums and Zakāt had become obligatory has not ceased to exist, then Khums or Zakāt must be paid and the balance must be spent on repaying the debt. If the property on which Khums and Zakāt became obligatory has ceased to exist then his property must be spent to pay back his debt and if anything remains then it must be spent on Ḥajj. If there is still excess, then it must be divided between Khums and Zakāt.

Rule 190: If a person dies before sunset on the night of ‘Eid ul Fitr, then it is not Wājib to pay his fitrah or that of his family from his estate. Nevertheless, if he dies after sunset, it is commonly held that fitrah will be obligatory, but it is still doubtful. However, it is better to act on precaution and pay his fitrah as well as that of his family.

﴿The Rules of Ḥajj﴾

Rule 191: If a person did not perform Ḥajj in the year in which he could afford to go for Ḥajj and cannot perform Ḥajj now due to old age, an ailment, or weakness, and he does not have hope that in the future he will be able to perform Ḥajj, then he must send someone else to perform Ḥajj on his behalf.

In fact, even if he does not lose hope, then according to Iḥtiyāt Wājib, another person must be hired and if he becomes capable afterwards, the Ḥajj must be performed personally as well. Also, the same applies if a person capable of going to Ḥajj for the first time is prevented from performing Ḥajj due to old age, ailment or weakness, and loses hope of gaining strength. In all these cases according to Iḥtiyāt Mustahab, one should hire a male person someone who is going to Ḥajj for the first time.

《The Rules of Depositing a Trust》

Rule 192: If the owner of a deposit dies, then the transaction is nullified; and if the deposit is transferable to the heirs without any liability, then the trustee must deliver the deposit to the heirs, or inform them about it. If he fails to do so without any justifiable excuse, then he will be responsible for its loss or damage. However, if he delays it to investigate whether the claimants are the right heirs or not, or whether there are other heirs besides them and he shows no negligence on his part in parting with the deposit or informing the heirs, then he will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may happen.

Rule 193: If the owner of the deposit dies and it devolves upon his heirs, the trustee of the deposit must give the property to all the heirs or to the person who has been authorized by all of them to receive the property. Hence, if he gives the entire property to one heir without the consent of others, then he will be responsible for the shares of the remaining heirs.

Rule 194: If the trustee of a deposit dies, or becomes permanently insane or unconscious, then his heir or guardian must inform the depositor of the property and deliver the property to him as soon as possible. But if insanity or unconsciousness is intermittent, then the deposit cannot be termed as void.

Rule 195: If the person with whom a property has been deposited observes in himself the signs of death approaching, then as a precaution, he should if possible, deliver the deposit entrusted to him to its owner, guardian, agent or (at least) inform him. If it is not possible to do so, then he should make such an arrangement which would satisfy him that the deposit will reach its rightful owner after his death. For example, he should make a Will about it attested by witnesses and give the name of the depositor to the executor of his Will and to the witnesses, describing fully the nature of the deposit, and the place where it is kept.

Rule 196: If a person with whom a property has been deposited, sees in himself the signs of approaching death, and does not act according to his obligation as mentioned in the foregoing rule, and the property suffers loss or damage, then he will be responsible for the deposit and should make amends for it. But if he recovers from his illness or after some time repents and acts according to his obligations, then he will not remain responsible.

﴿The Rules of Lending﴾

Rule 197: If the one who has lent something out dies, then the borrower must give it to the heirs, acting according to rule 192 in respect of the deposits.

Rule 198: Prayers offered in a property whose use and benefit belongs to someone else are void, unless permission is taken from the entitled person. For example, if a house has been rented out, and the owner of the house or anyone else offers prayers in that house without permission of the tenant, then according to Iḥtiyāt, his prayers are void. If a person made a will before his death that one-third of his estate should be used for a particular cause, then prayers cannot be offered in that property until that one-third has been dispensed with.

Rule 199: Use of a property which belongs to a dead person, who has not paid Zakāt or other similar dues is allowed - provided that such a use does not in any way prevent from obligations. A person wishing to pray in such property can do so with the permission of the heirs. Similarly, there will be no objection if the debt is paid up or guaranteed for payment.

Rule 200: The rule for the use of a property belonging to a dead person who is indebted to people, is the same as the above-mentioned rule, pertaining to Zakāt and other similar dues.

Rule 201: If a dead person did not owe anyone, but some of his heirs are either minor, insane or absent, then use of that property without permission of the guardian of those heirs is Haram, and it is not permissible to offer prayers in it either.

﴿‘Iddah (Waiting Period) of a Widow﴾

Rule 202: If a woman is free and not pregnant, when her husband dies, she must observe ‘Iddah (a waiting period) of four months and ten days. This means that she must not marry during this period, even if she has entered into menopause; or her husband had contracted a temporary marriage with her, even if he did not have sexual intercourse with her. If however, she is pregnant, then she must observe the waiting period until the birth of the child. But if the child is born before the end of four months and ten days from the death of her husband, then she must wait until the expiry of that period.¹ This period is called the waiting period after death (‘Iddatul Wafat).

Rule 203: It is Ḥarām for a woman who is observing the ‘Iddah of death to wear brightly colored clothing, use Surma, or do any such act which is considered as being an adornment.

Rule 204: If a woman becomes certain that her husband has died and marries another man after the completion of the ‘Iddah of death, and later learns that her husband had actually died later, then she must separate herself from her second husband. In addition, according to Iḥtiyāt, if she is pregnant, then she must observe ‘Iddah of divorce for the second husband until she gives birth to her child, and should thereafter observe the ‘Iddah of death for the first husband. However, if she is not pregnant, then she must first observe ‘Iddah of death for her first husband and thereafter she must observe ‘Iddah of divorce for the second husband.

Rule 205: In the situation where the husband has disappeared or is absent, the ‘Iddah of death begins when the wife learns of his death, and not from the time when he actually died. But this rule does not apply to a woman who has not attained the age of maturity (according to Islām), or if she is insane.

Rule 206: If a woman says that her 'Iddah is over, her word can be accepted unless she is known to be unreliable - in which case her word will not be accepted. For example, if she claims to have seen blood three times in the month, then her claim will not be accepted, unless her women relatives confirm that it is her habit.

﴿Addenda﴾

We present two short supplications, in both ‘Arabic and their English translations, from the grandson of the Prophet of Islām, ‘Alī ibn Ḥusayn ibn ‘Alī ibn Abī Tālib (Peace be upon them all) from his collection of supplications known as as-Ṣaḥīfah as-Sajjādiyyah al-Kāmilah (The Psalms of Islām), which we found to be fitting with the theme of this book.

The English translation of the following Duas’ have been taken from the book as-Ṣaḥīfah as-Sajjādiyyah al-Kāmilah (The Psalms of Islām), printed by Muḥammadi Trust of the United Kingdom, translated by Dr. William Chittick.

O Allāh to Thee belongs praise for the good health of my body, which lets me, move about, and to Thee belongs praise, for the ailments which Thou causest to arise in my flesh!

For I know not, my God, which of the two states deserves more my thanking Thee and which of the two times is more worthy for my praise of Thee:

The time of health - within which Thou makest me delight in the agreeable things of Your provision, through which Thou givest me the joy to seek the means to Your good pleasure and bounty, and by which Thou strengthenest me for the acts of obedience which Thou hast given me success to accomplish;

Or the time of illness - through which Thou putttest me to the test and bestowest upon me favors: lightening of the offences that weigh down my back, purification of the evil deeds into which I have plunged, incitement to reach for repentance, reminder of the erasure of misdeeds through ancient favor; and through all that, what the two writers write for me: blameless acts, which no heart had thought, no tongue had uttered, and no limb had undertaken, rather, as Your bestowal of bounty upon me and the beneficence of Your benefaction towards me.

O Allāh, bless Muḥammad and his Household,

Make me love what Thou hast approved for me, make easy for me what Thou hast sent down upon me, purify me of the defilement of what I have sent ahead, erase the evil of what I have done beforehand, let me find the sweetness of well-being, let me taste the coolness of safety, and appoint for me a way out from my illness to Your pardon, transformation of my infirmity into Your forbearance, escape from my distress to Your refreshment, and safety from this hardship in Your relief!

Thou art gratuitously bountiful in beneficence, ever gracious in kindness, the Generous, the Giver, Possessor of Majesty and Munificence!

His Supplication when Death was Mentioned

اِسْتِثْمَامَ سَاعَةٍ بَعْدَ سَاعَةٍ وَلَا اِسْتِيفَاءَ يَوْمٍ بَعْدَ يَوْمٍ، وَلَا اِتِّصَالَ نَفْسٍ بِنَفْسٍ، وَلَا لُحُوقَ
قَدَمٍ بِقَدَمٍ وَسَلِّمْنَا مِنْ غُرُورِهِ، وَآمِنًا مِنْ شُرُورِهِ، وَانصِبِ الْمَوْتَ بَيْنَ اَيْدِيْنَا نَصْبًا، وَلَا
تَجْعَلْ ذِكْرَنَا لَهُ غِيْبًا، وَاجْعَلْ لَنَا مِنْ صَالِحِ الْاَعْمَالِ عَمَلًا نَسْتَبْطِئُ مَعَهُ الْمَصِيْرَ اِلَيْكَ،
وَنُخْرِصُ لَهُ عَلٰى وَشِكَ الْاِلْحَاقِ بِكَ حَتّٰى يَكُوْنَ الْمَوْتُ مَا نَسْنَا الَّذِي نَأْتُسُ بِهِ، وَمَأْلَفْنَا الَّذِي
نَشْتَأِقُ اِلَيْهِ، وَحَامَتْنَا الَّتِي نُحِبُّ الدُّنُوَّ مِنْهَا فَاِذَا اُوْرِدَتْهُ عَلَيْنَا، وَاَنْزَلْتَهُ بِنَا فَاَسْعِدْنَا بِهِ زَائِرًا،
وَادْنَسْنَا بِهِ قَادِمًا، وَلَا تُشَقِّقْنَا بِضِيَافَتِهِ، وَلَا تُحْزِنَا بِزِيَارَتِهِ، وَاجْعَلْهُ بَابًا مِنْ اَبْوَابِ مَغْفِرَتِكَ،
غَيْرِ عَاصِيْنَ وَلَا مُصْرِيْنَ يَا صَاحِبَ جَزَاءِ الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ، وَمُسْتَصْلِحِ عَمَلِ الْمُفْسِدِيْنَ.

O Allāh, bless Muḥammad and his Household,

Spare us from drawn out expectations and cut them short in us through sincerity of works, that we may not hope expectantly for completing an hour after an hour, closing a day after a day, joining a breath to a breath, or overtaking a step with a step!

Keep us safe from the delusions of expectations, make us secure from their evils, set up death before us in display. And let not our remembering of it come and go!

Appoint for us from among the righteous works a work through which we will feel the homecoming to Thee as slow and crave a quick joining with Thee, so that death may be our intimate abode with which we are intimate, our familiar place toward which we yearn, and our next of kin whose coming we love!

When Thou bringest it to us and sendest it down upon us, make us happy with it as a visitor, comfort us with its arrival, make us not wretched through entertaining it, degrade us not through its visit, and appoint it one of the gates to Your forgiveness and the keys to Your mercy!

Make us die guided - not astray, obedient - not averse, repentant - not disobedient or persisting, O He who guarantees the repayment of the good-doers and seeks to set right the work of the corrupt!

Those actions which prove beneficial during death to ease the troubles and tribulations

1. Reciting Sūrah Yā Sīn, Sūrah as-Saffāt and the following Duā’:

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ الْحَلِيمُ الْكَرِيمُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ الْعَلِيُّ الْعَظِيمُ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ رَبِّ السَّمَوَاتِ السَّبْعِ
الْعَالَمِينَ

2. Shaikh Ṣadūq narrates from Imām Ja‘far as-Ṣādiq (Peace be upon him) that he said, “Allāh will save the person who fasts on the last day of the month of Rajab from the after effects of death.”
3. The fasting on the 24th of Rajab carries a great reward. One of it’s merits is that when the Angel of Death comes to remove the spirit, he will appear in the form of a handsome youth carrying a bowl of pure drink which he offers the one who is about to die. The dying person does so, and thus, leaves this world in peace.
4. The Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him and his family) has stated that if a person recites a four Rak’at Ṣalāt on the 7th of Rajab, and in each Rak’at after Sūrah al-Fātiha, recites Sūrah at-Tawḥīd three times followed by Sūrah al-Falaq and Sūrah an-Nās once, and after the Ṣalāt recites a Ṣalawāt on the Prophet and his family and the Tasbīhāt al-Arbā’ ten times, that:

“Almighty Allāh will offer him shelter under the Throne, and grant him the reward of a person who has fasted the entire month of Ramaḍān and until the time he finishes the prayer, the Angels pray for his forgiveness.

Allāh will ease the pain of death on him and save him from the squeezing of the grave. He will not die until he sees his place in Paradise, and will be safe from the hardships of the Resurrection.”

5. Shaikh Kaf'amī quotes a narration from the Prophet of Allāh (Peace be upon him and his family) that he said that Allāh will forgive 4000 major sins of the person who recites the following Duā' ten times daily. This person will also be protected from 100,000 calamities at the time of death, including the squeezing of the grave. He will also be protected from Satan and his army. Allāh will pay off his debts and save him from troubles and anxieties.

أَعَدَدْتُ لِكُلِّ هَوْلٍ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَلِكُلِّ هَمٍّ وَعَمٍّ مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ وَلِكُلِّ نِعْمَةٍ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ وَلِكُلِّ رَخَاءٍ الشُّكْرُ لِلَّهِ وَلِكُلِّ أُعْجُوبَةٍ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَلِكُلِّ ذَنْبٍ أَسْتَغْفِرُ اللَّهَ وَلِكُلِّ مُصِيبَةٍ إِنَّا لِلَّهِ وَإِنَّا إِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُونَ وَلِكُلِّ ضَيْقٍ حَسْبِيَ اللَّهُ وَلِكُلِّ قَضَاءٍ وَقَدَرٍ تَوَكَّلْتُ عَلَى اللَّهِ وَلِكُلِّ عَدُوٍّ اعْتَصَمْتُ بِاللَّهِ وَلِكُلِّ طَاعَةٍ وَمَعْصِيَةٍ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ الْعَلِيِّ الْعَظِيمِ

6. The recitation of the following Duā' seventy times carries a great reward, the least of which is that one will be given glad tidings that he will enter Paradise.

يَا أَسْمَعَ السَّمَاعِينَ يَا أَبْصَرَ النَّاطِرِينَ يَا أَسْرَعَ الْحَاسِبِينَ يَا أَحْكَمَ الْحَاكِمِينَ

Those actions which prove beneficial during death

1. The best of deeds is to perform the Ṣalāt on time. It has been related that there is not a single person in the east or the west on whom the sight of the Angel of Death does not fall on at least five times a day at the time of Ṣalāt. When the time of death approaches, the Angel of Death recognizes him and helps him to recite the Shahādātāin and shuns away Satan from him.
2. The recitation of Duā' Tamjīd, Duā' number 11 of as-Ṣaḥīfah as-Sajjādiyyah al-Kāmilah of Imām 'Alī ibn Ḥusayn Zāin al-'Abidīn (Peace be upon him) is very beneficial so as to die on the right path and to be saved from turning away from it.

3. The following Duā' should be recited in the Qunūt on Sundays during the month of Dhū al-Qa'dah:

4. One should always wear a Aqīq ring, preferably of red color and it is better if the following line is engraved on it:

مُحَمَّدٌ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ وَعَلِيٌّ وَوَلِيُّ اللَّهِ

5. Sūrah al-Mo'minūn should be recited every Friday.
6. The following Duā' should be read seven times after Ṣalāt al-Fajr and Maghrib.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ وَلَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ الْعَلِيِّ الْعَظِيمِ

Those actions which are beneficial for warding off fear in the Grave

1. One who recites the following Duā' 100 times daily will be saved from the anxiety in the grave:

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ الْمَلِكُ الْحَقُّ الْمُبِينُ

2. It has been narrated that one who fasts for 12 days in the Month of Sha'bān, Allāh will send 70,000 Angels to his grave.

Those actions which save one from the Squeezing of the Grave

This event is so horrifying that it makes a person shiver with fright in this very world. Amīr al-Mu'minīn 'Alī ibn Abī Ṭālib (Peace be upon him) said, "O' Servants of Allāh! The state in the grave of a person whose sins are not forgiven is more horrifying than death itself. Fear it's (grave's) narrowness, it's squeezing, and it's imprisonment and its loneliness!

Verily the grave calls out daily, ‘I am the house of loneliness, terror and worms.’ The grave is like paradise for the good doer, while a dungeon of hell for the evil doer. Allāh tells His enemies that He will send 99 serpents in their graves, which will tear their flesh and smash their bones and this punishment will continue until the day of Judgement. If one of the serpents were to exhale towards the earth, all plants and trees would be destroyed! O’ Servants of Allāh! Your souls are tender, and you bodies delicate - you can not confront any ordinary serpent of this world - how then will you face these ones?”

1. Al-Imām as-Ṣādiq (Peace be upon him) used to wake up in the middle of the night and call out in a loud voice, so that everyone in the house could hear him:

اللَّهُمَّ أَعِنِّي عَلَى هَوْلِ الْمَطْلَعِ وَوَسْعِ عَيْ ضَيْقِ الْمَضْجَعِ وَارْزُقْنِي خَيْرَ مَا قَبْلَ الْمَوْتِ وَارْزُقْنِي خَيْرَ مَا بَعْدَ الْمَوْتِ

2. One of his (a.s.)’s supplication (Duā’) is also stated:

اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكْ لِي فِي الْمَوْتِ، اللَّهُمَّ أَعِنِّي عَلَى سَكَرَاتِ الْمَوْتِ، اللَّهُمَّ أَعِنِّي عَلَى غَمِّ الْقَبْرِ، اللَّهُمَّ أَعِنِّي عَلَى ضَيْقِ الْقَبْرِ، اللَّهُمَّ أَعِنِّي عَلَى وَحْشَةِ الْقَبْرِ، اللَّهُمَّ رَوِّجْنِي مِنَ الْحُورِ الْعِينِ.

3. One who recites Sūrah an-Nisā every Friday, will remain safe from the squeezing of the grave.
4. Allāh will save the person who recites Sūrah az-Zukhruf from the reptiles of the earth and the squeezing of the grave.
5. A person who recites Sūrah al-Qalam in the Wājib Ṣalāt or the Mustahab Ṣalāt will remain safe from the punishment in the grave.
6. If a person passes away between the time of sunset of Thursday and the sunset of Friday, Allāh will exempt him from the punishment in the grave.
7. Ṣalāt al-Lail is another act that saves one from the squeezing in the grave, grants one immunity from the fire of hell, and increases ones age and sustenance.

8. If a person recites Sūrah al-Takāthur before going to bed, Allāh ﷻ will grant him freedom from the punishment of the grave.
9. Fasting four days in the month of Rajab or twelve days in the month of Sha'bān also has benefits for the deceased.
10. Reciting Sūrah al-Mulk on top of the grave is an act which saves the deceased from the punishment in the grave.
11. The Prophet of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family) has said that when a person is being buried, the following Duā' should be recited three times, as this will protect the corpse from punishment in the grave until the Day of Judgement:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ بِحَقِّ مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ أَنْ لَا تُعَذِّبَ هَذَا الْمَيِّتَ

12. The Holy Prophet (Peace be upon him and his family) has said that if a person recites a two Rak'at Ṣalāt on Friday night in which after Sūrah al-Fatiha, Sūrah al-Zilzāl is read 15 times, Allāh ﷻ will free him from the punishment of the grave and save him from the fear on the Day of Judgement.
13. To keep abut of the dirt of the land of Kerbalā, from around the grave of Imām al-Ḥusayn, Peace be upon him, in one's kafan or to rub it on the sevens parts of prostration.
14. It has been narrated from Imām Ja'far as-Ṣādiq, Peace be upon him, that if forty people gather near the deceased and say:

Allāh ﷻ will safeguard the deceased from the punishment in the grave.

Those actions which help one on the Day of Judgement

1. It is related that if a person recites Sūrah al-Yusūf daily, during the day or night, he will be brought on the Day of Judgement in the likeness and beauty of Prophet Yusūf, Peace be upon him, and will be saved from the fear of the Day of Judgement.
2. Imām Muḥammad al-Bāqir, Peace be upon him, said that the person who recites Sūrah al-Dukhān in his optional Ṣalāt or Wājib Ṣalāt will remain safe from the fear of Qiyāmat.
3. Imām Ja‘far as-Ṣādiq (Peace be upon him) has said that a person who recites Sūrah al-Aḥqāf in the day or night on Friday will be safe guarded from all fears of this world as well as the hereafter.
4. Imām Ja‘far as-Ṣādiq (Peace be upon him) has said that a person who recites Sūrah al-Aṣr in his optional Ṣalāt will arise in delight on the Day of Judgement. His face will be glowing, his eyes shining, and he will enter Paradise in this cheerful state.
5. The Holy Prophet of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family) has said that if a person guards himself from sins of the lustful passions only for the sake and fear of Allāh ﷻ, then Allāh ﷻ will make the fire of hell forbidden upon him and keep him away from the fear of Qiyāmat.
6. Imām Muḥammad al-Bāqir (Peace be upon him) said that whoever suppresses his anger even after having the power to retaliate, Allāh will fill his heart with faith and save him from the terror of Qiyāmat.
7. Imām Ja‘far as-Ṣādiq (Peace be upon him) has said that if a person helps his believing brother and frees him from his anxiety and fulfills his desires, Allāh , will offer him seventy two types of favors. One of them is that He will increase his sustenance in this world and seventy-one are that He will guard him against the terrors and hardships of Qiyāmat.

Glossary

‘Ādil: Just. A person who refrains from committing the major sins, and also does not persist in committing the minor sins.

Ahl al-Kitāb: Literally the People of the Book. A term used in the Qur’ān and aḥādīth to denote the Jews and Christians.

Iḥtiyāt Mustahab: Recommended Precaution. Its significance is the same as that of Mustahab. When a Mujtahid uses this term, he means that there is no solid proof for that particular act being Mustahab, but his standards of precaution demand that it be considered as Mustahab.

Iḥtiyāt Wājib: Obligatory Precaution. Its significance is the same as that of Wājib with the difference that in the rules where a Mujtahid says it is “Obligatory precaution,” you have the option of leaving his taqlid (following) in that particular problem, and following the rulings of the second most knowledgeable Mujtahid in that problem (in order words, perform Rujū).

Iḥrām: The state one enters before performing the ‘Umrah or Ḥajj.

Iḥnā ‘Asherī: A Shi‘a Muslim who believes in the succession of twelve Imāms, one after the other, starting with ‘Alī ibn Abī Ṭālib and ending with Imām Mahdī Ṣaḥib al-Zamān (Peace be upon all of them).

Irtimāsī: A form of Ghusl/Wuḍhū in which the entire body is submerged under water at one time.

Jabīrah: A bandage or covering over top of injury.

Janābah: The state a person enters due to sexual intercourse, or by the ejaculation of semen.

Kafan: The three pieces of cloth (for the man) and the four pieces of cloth (for the woman) used to cover a deceased Muslim.

Khums: Literally $\frac{1}{5}$. An Islāmic tax levied on cash and various goods, which must be paid every year.

Maḥram: A person to whom marriage is forbidden.

Makrūh: Reprehensible, disliked. The acts whose performance is not punished, but whose avoidance is rewarded, e.g., eating in the state of Janābat.

Mubāḥ: Permitted, allowed, lawful, legal. The act or thing which is permitted and lawful. There is no reward for performing it and no punishment for neglecting it, e.g., drinking tea. Mubāḥ is mostly used for lawful things, not for permitted actions.

Muḥtaḍir: A person who is experiencing the pain of death.

Mustaḥab: Recommendable, desirable, better. The acts which if a person does not perform, is not punished for, but whose performance is rewarded, e.g., the call to prayer, (Aḍhān).

Non-Bāligh: A person who has not reached the age of maturity, according to Islāmic law.

Qaḍā: An act performed after its specified time, for example praying Ṣalāt al-Fajr after Sunrise, or missing a fast of the month of Ramaḍān and performing it in the month of Safar.

Qiblah: The direction that the Muslims face while praying, slaughtering an animal, and other rites - the Holy Ka'bah which is located in Mecca in present day Saudi Arabia.

Qurbat: An action done with the intention of seeking nearness to Allāh ﷻ.

Shahādātāin: The testifying to the Oneness of Allāh ﷻ and the Prophethood of Muḥammad (Peace be upon him and his family):

أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَأَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ

Shariah: The noble and sacred law of Islām brought by the Prophet of Islām (Peace be upon him and his family) that forms the basis of all areas of a Muslim's life - including civil, criminal, and public law.
