PREFACE

In the Name of Allah The Compassionate, the Merciful.

May Allah shower His blessings upon Muhammad (s.a.w.s.) and his Purified Progeny (a.s.)

Imam Jafar as-Sadiq (a.s.) says:

'Write (down the traditions) and propagate the knowledge among your brothers. When you die, bequeath these books as your legacy to your sons. Verily, there will come on the people a time of disturbance, when nothing will give them any satisfaction and to nothing will they pay any heed except to their books.' (Al-Kafi)

In the light of the above tradition, World Islamic Network (WIN) has taken up the task of diffusing Islamic teachings according to the School of Ahlul Bayt (a.s.). This booklet is the second of the series titled : IN THE LIGHT OF QURAN AND HADITH.

Compiled by the great scholar Allama Sayyid Murtaza Askari these booklets deal with some of the important issues of faith. We pray that Allah give us the tawfeeq to continue this noble endeavour.

INTRODUCTION

In The Name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

Praise be to Allah the Lord of the worlds. Benedictions be upon Muhammad (s.a.w.s.) and his Purified Progeny (a.s.).

Peace be upon the righteous companions.

Some of the controversial issues have divided the Muslims. These issues have been misused by the enemies of Islam to divide the Muslims and to weaken them. Therefore in order to unite the Muslims and to defend the boundaries of Islam it is necessary to clear the misunderstandings regarding these differences. In sorting out these issues we have been ordered to confine ourselves within some limits. As the Almighty Allah says: 'And obey Allah and His Apostle and do not quarrel for then you will be weak in hearts and your power will depart...' (Sura Anfal 8 : 46)

It is a must for us today, and for all times to refer to Quran and Hadith in case of any difference of opinion. As the Almighty Allah says: '...then if you quarrel about anything, refer it to Allah and the Apostle...' (Sura Nisa 4 : 59).

In these series we shall refer to the Quran and Hadith to guide us on the correct path in various controversial topics. We seek the help of the Almighty in this.

MESSENGER OF ALLAH (S.A.W.S.) WEPT ON VARIOUS OCCASIONS

(1) The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) wept at the illness of Sa'ad bin Ubada.

In Sahih Muslim:

Abdullah bin Umar said that Sa'ad bin Ubada complained of illness. The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) came to visit him accompanied by Abdur Rehman bin Auf, Sa'ad bin Abi Waqas and Abdullah bin Masud. As he entered (his room) he found him in a swoon. Upon this he said: Has he died? They said: Messenger of Allah, it is not so. The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) wept. When the people saw Allah's Messenger (s.a.w.s.) weeping, they also began to weep. He said: Listen, Allah does not punish for the tears that the eye sheds or the grief that the heart feels, but He punishes for this (pointing to his tongue), or He may show mercy.¹

(2) Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) wept on the death of his son Ibrahim.

The following narration has been mentioned in Sahih Bukhari, Sahih Muslim, Sunan Abi Dawood and Sunan Ibne Majah:

Anas bin Malik reported that: The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) entered the room and we accompanied him And Ibrahim breathed his last. The eyes of Allah's Messenger (s.a.w.s.) were filled with tears. Abdur Rehman Ibne Auf said: 'You are weeping, O Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.)'. He (s.a.w.s.) replied: "Ibne Auf, This is mercy". Then he said: "Our eyes shed tears and our hearts are filled with grief, but we do not say anything except that by which Allah is pleased. O, Ibrahim we are sorrowful due to your separation."²

And it is mentioned in Sunan Ibne Majah that: Anas Ibne Malik says: When Ibrahim the son of the Prophet (s.a.) died, he (the Prophet) said: "Do not shroud him till I have looked at him." Then he came forward in misery and wept.¹

In Sunan Tirmizi it is recorded from Jabir Ibne Abdulla Ansari that:

The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) held the hand of Abdur Rehman bin Auf and took him to Ibrahim, his son, when Ibrahim was in his last moments. The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) took him in his lap and began to weep. Abdur Rehman bin Auf said: 'You are weeping? And you had yourself prohibited weeping?' The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) replied: 'No, but I had prohibited two kinds of cries of foolish and sinful people: The cry at the time of a calamity, and tearing at the face and the collar. And the second is crying like Shaitan. And there is more in this narration. Abu Isa says that this hadith is good.'¹

(3) The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) wept for his grandson.

The given narration has been recorded in the books of Sahih Bukhari, Sahih Muslim, Sunan Abi Dawood and Sunan Nasai:

Usama bin Zaid reported: While we were with the Apostle of Allah (s.a.w.s.), one of his daughters sent for him (the Messenger) to call him and inform him that her child was dying The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) rose up to go, accompanied by Sa'ad bin Ubada, Muadh bin Jabal, and I also went along with them. The child was lifted to him and his soul was feeling as restless as if it was in an old (waterskin). His (Prophets') eyes welled up with tears. Sa'ad said: What is this, Messenger of Allah? He replied: This is compassion which Allah has placed in the hearts of His servants, and Allah shows compassion only to those of His servants who are compassionate.¹

(4) The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) wept for his Uncle Hamza (r.a.)

The books Tabaqat Ibne Saad, Maghazi of Waqidi and Musnad Ahmed Hanbal mention the following tradition:

After the Battle of Uhud, the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) passed by a house of Ansars. He heard the wailing of the people for their martyred family members. The eyes of the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) filled with tears and he began to weep. Then he said: "But there is no one to weep for Hamza." When the ladies of the family of Sa'ad bin Muadh and Usayd bin Huzayr al-Ashhal returned they told them to go and weep for Hamza, the uncle of the Prophet (s.a.). Then from that time to date none of the women of Ansar have wept for their dead ones before weeping upon Hamza (r.a.).¹

(5) The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) wept for the martyrs of the Battle of Mutah.

It is recorded in Sahih Bukhari that: The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) gave people the news of the martyrdom of Zayd and Jafar and Ibne Rawaah even before the messenger had arrived with it (the news). He (s.a.w.s.) said: "First Zayd took up the standard, then he was killed, next, Jafar took it up, he too fell fighting then Ibne Rawaah took it up" And he was in tears....."²

(6) The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) wept for Jafar bin Abi Talib.

A narration recorded in the books of Al Istiab, Usud al-Ghaba, Al Isabah and Ibne Athir etc that:

When Jafar was killed with his companions, the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) came to his house and summoned his children. Then he consoled them up and there were tears in his eyes. Asma, the wife of Jafar said: May my parents sacrificed for you, you are crying? Shall I tell you about Jafar and his companions?

¹ Tabaqaat Ibne Saad 3:11 (Beirut Edition). Maghazi of Waqidi 1:315-317. Musnad Ahmed Hanbal 2:40. Sirat Ibne Hisham 3:50.

"Yes", he replied the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.), "I am very sorrowful today."

Then Asma called and the women gathered, and Fatima (s.a.) entered weeping and wailing, "O Uncle!".

The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) said: "A brave one like Jafar deserves to be wept upon."¹

(7) The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) wept for his mother at her grave.

Many books of traditions like Sahih Muslim, Musnad Ahmed Hanbal, Sunan Abi Dawood, Sunan Nasai and Sunan Ibne Majah mention the following tradition:

Abu Huraira says: "The Prophet (s.a.w.s.) visited the grave of his mother and wept and made others weep too."¹

(8) The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) wept for his grandson, Husain (a.s.) on various occasions.

(i) Tradition of Ummul Fazl.

The first narration quoted by us is recorded in Mustadrakul Sahihayn, History of Ibne Asakir and Maqtal of Khwarizmi, other books also mention this incident.

Ummul Fazl the daughter of Harith came to the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) and said: "O Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) I had a dream in which I saw that a piece of your flesh flew off and fell into my lap. The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) told her, "You have seen something good, by the will of Allah, Fatima will give birth to a child and you will be present in the house."

Later Fatima (s.a.) gave birth to Husain (a.s.) and Ummul Fazl was present as the Prophet (s.a.) had predicted. She placed Husain (a.s.) in the lap of the Prophet (s.a.). She said:

"Thus when I saw the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) that his eyes were filled with tears. I said, 'O Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.), may my parents be sacrificed for you, why are you weeping?'

He replied, 'Jibraeel came to me and informed me that my people will soon murder this son of mine.'

I asked, 'This son?'

'Yes', he replied, 'And he gave me the red dust of his grave.'

Al Hakim says, 'This is an authentic hadith according to the standards of Bukhari and Muslim but they have not included it in their collections.'¹

(ii) Tradition of Zainab Binte Jahash

A similar type of narration has been presented in the books: Tarikh Ibne Asakir, Majmauz Zawaed, Tarikh Ibne Kathir etc:

Zainab says: One day while Husain (a.s.) was in my house and near me at the staircase, then I became thoughtless. The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) entered... He said, "Let him be (as he is). The Prophet (s.a.w.s.) stretched out his hands while he was performing the prayers and took Husain (a.s.) to him. I said, "O Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) I have never seen you do this before?"

¹ Mustadrakul Sahihayn 3:176 Tarikh Ibne Asakir. Majmauz Zawaed 9:179. Maqtal Khwarizmi 1:159.

He said, "Jibraeel came to me and informed me that this (Husain) will be killed by my Ummat." I requested him, 'Then show me the dust of the land where he will be killed.' And he gave me some red earth.'¹

(iii) Tradition of Ayesha

Abi Salma has been recorded in Tarikh Ibne Asakir, Maqatal Khwarizmi and Majmauz Zawaid to have said:

Ayesha said: The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) had seated Husain (a.s.) upon his thigh when Jibraeel came and asked, "Is this your son?"

"Yes", he replied.

Jibraeel said, "But your Ummat will soon kill him after your demise."

The eyes of the Prophet filled with tears.

Jibraeel said, "Would you like to see the land where he shall be killed?"

"Yes", he replied.

Then Jibraeel showed him the fine dust of his grave.

¹ Tarikh Ibne Asakir. Majmauz Zawaid 9:188. Kanzul Ummal 13:112. The tradition is mentioned in the Shia book: Amaali of Shaykh Tusi 1:323

In another narration there is a variation where Jibraeel is reported to have indicated towards Iraq and took some red dust from it and showed it to him and said, "This is the dust from his fatal battleground."¹

(iv) Tradition of Umme Salma

Mustadrakul Sahihayn, Tabaqaat Ibne Saad, Tarikh Ibne Asakir and other books have mentioned the following tradition from Umme Salma:

The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) was sleeping one night when he awoke with a start. He was in a state of terror. Then again he went to sleep and once more woke up with a start. This time he was more worried. Again he went to sleep and woke up. In his hands was some red dust. He was turning it around in his hands.

She said, "What is this dust, O Messenger of Allah?" He said, "Jibraeel informed me that this Husain will be killed in the land of Iraq. I asked Jibraeel to show me the dust of the land where he will be killed. And this is that dust."

According to Al Hakim it is an authentic tradition as per the standards of Bukhari and Muslim but they have not narrated it.¹

(v) Tradition Anas Ibne Malik

Musnab of Ahmed, Al Mojamul Kabir of Tibrani and Tarikh of Ibne Asakir and other books too have recorded this tradition from Anas Ibne Malik that he said:

“Malik sought the permission to visit the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.). He was granted the permission when the Prophet was inside the house with Umme Salma. The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) said, ‘Umme Salma, please guard the door and do not allow anyone else to enter.’”

Umme Salma was maintaining her vigil when Husain Ibne Ali (a.s.) came, pushed open the door and entered. The Prophet (s.a.w.s.) embraced him and kissed him. Malik enquired, “Do you love him?” “Yes”, replied the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.)” Surely your people will soon kill him. If you wish I can show you the place where they will kill him?”

¹ Mustadrakul Sahihayn 4:398. Al Mojamul Kabir, Tibrani, Tradition No.55. Tarikh Ibne Asakir. Tabaqaat Ibne Sa'ad. Zahabi's History of Islam. Maqtal Khwarizmi. Zakhairul Uqba :148. Kanzul Ummal 16:266.

He replied, “Yes”.

He said, “Then he took a handful of dust from the place where he will be killed and he showed this dust to us. It was red in hue. Umme Salma took it and kept it in her cloth.

Thabit said: “We used to say, ‘It certainly is Karbala.’”¹

THE TRADITION OF THE HOLY PROPHET (S.A.W.S.) REGARDING PROHIBITION OF WEEPING AND THE SOURCE OF THIS TRADITION

Sahih Muslim and Sunan Nasai record the following traditions:

¹ Musnad Ahmed Hanbal 3:242 and 265. Tarikh Ibne Asakir, Biography of Imam Husain (a.s.) Tradition No.615 and 617. Mojamul Kabir of Tibrani, Tradition No.47. Maqtal Khwarizmi 1:160. (1) Abdullah bin Umar reported that Hafsa wept for Umar (when he was dying). He (Umar) said: 'Be quiet, my daughter. Don't you know that the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) had said: "The dead is punished because of his family's weeping over it?"'¹

(2) Umar reported Allah's Apostle (s.a.w.s.) as saying: "The dead body is punished in the grave because of wailing on it."²

(3) Ibne Umar reported: When Umar was wounded he fainted, and there was a loud lamentation over him. When he regained consciousness he said: Didn't you know that the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) said: "The dead is punished because of the weeping of the living?"³

The tradition of Umar and his son as explained by Ayesha

Let us consider the following incident, which finds mention in the books of Sahih Bukhari and Sahih Muslim:

Abdullah bin Abu Mulaika reports Ibne Abbas as saying: When we came to Medina, it was before long that the Commander of believers was wounded, and Suhaib came weeping and crying: 'Alas for the brother, alas for the companion !' Upon this Umar said: 'Didn't you know, or didn't you hear, that the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) said: "The dead is punished because of the lamentation of his family?"

Abu Mulaika says that he went to Ayesha and told her of this. She said: I swear by Allah that Allah's Messenger (s.a.w.s.) never said that dead would be punished because of his family's lamenting (for him). What he said was that Allah would increase the punishment of the unbeliever because of his family's lamenting for him. Verily it is Allah who has caused laughter and weeping. No bearer of a burden will bear another's burden."

Ibn Abu Mulaika said that al-Qasim bin Muhammad said that when the words of Umar and Ibne Umar were conveyed to Ayesha, she said: "You have narrated it to me from those who are neither liars nor those suspected of lying but (sometimes) hearing misleads.¹

We can also mention a similar type of tradition which has been recorded in Sahih Muslim, Sahih Bukhari, Sunan Tirmizi and Muwatta of Malik.

Hisham bin Urwa relates from his father that he said: I heard Ayesha say, when she was told that Abdullah bin Umar says that the dead person is tormented by his family's weeping over him, that "Allah may bless Abu Abdur Rehman that he heard something but could not retain it (well).'
Actually, the bier of a Jewish man passed by the Prophet (sa.w.s.) and the member of his family were wailing over him. Upon this he said: You wail and he is being tormented."¹

According to Nawawi (died 676 A.H.), the commentator of Sahih Muslim: The above narrations are the ones which have been related by Umar and his son Abdullah. However, Ayesha considered them to be ignorant of the actual import of the words of the Holy Prophet (s.a.w.s.)²

² Nawawi's Sharh Sahih Muslim.

The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) told Umar not to prohibit weeping

The books of Sunan Nasai, Sunan Ibne Majah and Musnad Ibne Hanbal record the following narration:

Salma binte Azraq reports that Abu Huraira said: Someone of the family of the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) died. The women gathered and began to weep upon the death. Umar stood up and refrained them from weeping. The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) said: Do not stop them, Umar, because the eyes weep and the heart is sorrowful and it has been only a short while (since the calamity).¹

And in Musnad Ahmed Hanbal:

From Wahab bin Kaysani, from Muhammad bin Umar that he informed him: Salma Ibne Azrak was sitting with Abdullah Ibne Umar in the market place when a bier passed and people were weeping on it. When Abdullah Ibne Umar restrained them from weeping, Salma Ibne Azraq told him; Do not say that, because I have witnessed my father say that he heard from Abu Huraira that a woman from the family of Marwan died and Marwan told his women not to weep upon her. Abu Huraira told him not to restrain them as he himself had witnessed the incident when the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) told Umar not to send away the women who were weeping upon the dead. Moreover, the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) had said: "Call them back, son of Khattab, for surely the soul is sorrowful and the eyes weep and it is a fresh incident."

He said, "Did you not hear him say that?".

"Yes", he replied, "The Almighty and His Messenger are more knowledgable."¹

CONCLUSION

In the first section of our tradition, we have proved beyond any doubt that the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) has time and again wept upon the death of various people; martyrs as well as those who had died a natural death. He has also wept near the grave of some people.

Similarly in the second section, we have shown that the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) had shed tears for the imminent martyrdom of Imam Husain (a.s.), his beloved grandson. This also proves that weeping for Imam Husain (a.s.) is a meritorious act as proved in the previous section. In addition, we can say that it is one of the Sunnat of the Prophet (s.a.).

The third section consists of narrations which were wrongly understood by the second Caliph, Umar. We have also discussed how Ayesha, Abu Huraira and Ibne Abbas have corrected him.

We can safely conclude that the traditions reported by the second Caliph and his son, as regards the prohibition of weeping, are faulty.

Doubtlessly, weeping due to the fear of death, weeping upon the dead and upon their graves is from the practices of the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.). It is his Sunnat. One who weeps upon Imam Husain (a.s.) has actually followed the sunnat of the Holy Prophet (s.a.w.s.).
